Harper's Magazine.

ILLUSTRATED

With the new volume, beginning in December, HARPER'S MAGAZINE enters its thirty-fifth year. The oldest periodical of its type, it is yet, in each new volume, a new magazine, not simply because it presents fresh subjects and new illustrations, but because it steadily advances in the method itself of magazine-making. In a word, the Magazine becomes more the faithful mirror of current life and thought, and more the chief index to the attractive programme for 1885 are: new serial novels by Constance Fenimore Woolson and W. D. Howells; a new novel entitled "At the Red Glove," descriptive illustrations by F. D. Millet, R. Swain Gifford, E. A. Abbey, H. Gibson, and others; Goldsmith's "She Stoops to Conquer," illustrated by Abbey; important papers on Art, Science, etc.

REPARTEE.

They were lurching, one day, In a handsome cafe,
 And she happened to pass,
 As she noticed the way
 That he ate ice cream with impunity:
 "Can you eat ice cream with impunity?"
 And he made the reply,
 With a wink of the eye;
 "No, but I can with a spoon."

But her triumph came soon;
 As they left the saloon,
 He gave her a good opportunity;
 "And now, Bessie, dear,
 As the weather is clear,
 Can you take a walk with impunity?"
 Her smile was as bright as the moon,
 And deliciously shy
 Came the mocking reply,
 "No, but I can with a spoon!"

Getting a Picture Taken.

"Now," said the photographer, taking hold of the cloth over the instrument, "are you all ready?"
 "Yes," replied the customer.
 "Well, just keep your eye on that sign," he said, pointing to a legend on the wall which read, "Positively No Credit," "and look pleasant."—New York Sun.

The Exact Time!

It is utterly impossible for even a successful presidential candidate to feel as important as a boy when he is allowed to carry a watch for the first time.

"What time is it, sonny?" asked a gentleman of a boy on an Austin street car. The boy smiled, and looking at his astronomical time piece replied:
 "Do you want the exact time?"
 "If you please."
 "In two minutes it will be three minutes to five minutes to a quarter past three," replied the young man.—Siftings.

The Hot Water Cure.

Doctor—You have tried the remedies I prescribed for you?
 Patient—I have, doctor, and followed your directions faithfully.
 D.—And you have experienced no benefit?
 P.—Not a particle.
 D.—Then there is only one thing that will avail you; you must try the hot water cure.
 P.—The hot water cure? Will nothing else help me?
 D.—Nothing else will help you, sir.
 P.—Then I'm a gone man.
 D.—What makes you think so? You haven't tried the remedy yet.
 P.—Haven't I? Why I've been married ten years and my mother-in-law lives in my house.—Boston Courier.

Woman's Suffering and Relief

Those laud, it some sensations, causing you to feel scarcely able to be on your feet; that constant drain that is taking from your system all its former elasticity; driving the bloom from your cheeks; that continual stria upon your vital forces, rendering you irritable and fretful, can easily be removed by the use of that marvelous remedy, Hop Bitters. Irregularities and obstructions of your system are relieved at once while the special causes of periodical pain are permanently removed. None receive so much benefit, and none are so profoundly grateful, and show such an interest in recommending Hop Bitters as women.

A Postal Card Story.

I was affected with kidney and urinary trouble—
 "For twelve years!"
 "After trying all the doctors and patent medicines I could hear of, I used two bottles of Hop Bitters!"
 "And I am perfectly cured. I keep it!"
 "All the time!" respectfully, B. F. Booth, Saalsbury, Tenn.—May 4, 1883.

BRADFORD, PA., MAY 3, 1875.

It has cured me of several diseases, such as nervousness, sickness at the stomach, morbidly troubles, etc. I have not seen a sick day in a year, since I took Hop Bitters. All my neighbors use them. MRS. FANNIE GREEN

"A tour to Europe that cost me $3,000, done the less good than one bottle of Hop Bitters; they also cured my wife of fifteen years' nervous weakness, sleeplessness and dyspepsia." R. M. Anson, N. Y.

So, BLOOMINGVILLE, O., May 1, '79

Steps—I have been suffering ten years, and I tried all Hop Bitters, and it done me more good than all the doctors.

Baby Saved.

We are so thankful to say that our nursing baby was permanently cured of a dangerous and protracted condition and irregularity of the bowels by the use of Hop Bitters by its mother, which at the same time restored her to perfect health and strength.
