THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1885. NO. 14.

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation, of any newspaper published, in the city of Wilmington.

Coleman, the great mustard man, says that he has not made his fortune out of mustard eaten, but out of mustard wasted on plates.

A photograph taken in North Solon, O., contains the pictures of a mother and her nine sons, the youngest of the latter being 40 years of age.

A Dresden publisher has been sentenced to one month's imprisonment for publishing and selling a translation of Zola's "Nana" and "La Curee."

The London Times describes a new sort of gas lamp, which gives the light of two hundred candles at a penny per hour, and which throws out no noxious vapors. It is called the lower lamp.

The Philadelphia Record says there have been thirty murders in the City of Brotherly Love within eleven months, and five persons are now in the jails under sentence of death. This is an untoward showing for the Quaker City.

The "Post Office Waltz" is what the Cleveland Leader says the Democratic applicants for office are dancing. By the time of the inauguration ball there will probably be a little dancing in the neighborhood of every department in Washington.

A proposal is on foot to build a church in memory of Charles Reade, and many promises of support have already been received from admirers of the novelist. If carried out, the first pastor will probably be his nephew, the Rev. Compton Reade.

In a paper upon butterine, read before the Society of Arts, it is stated that in 1883 over 40,000 tons of that product were imported into England from Holland, the factories at Oss sending 150 tons a week. The latest improved butterine consists of oleomargarine, milk, vegetable oil and real butter.

The divorce Courts of Philadelphia were kept busy during 1884. Nearly 100 applications were filed by unhappy husbands and wives, praying to be relieved from their marriage vows. The greater portion of these are still in consideration, and of the 241 decrees issued during the year very many had been pending for two and three years.

When John Ruskin was 14 years of age his parents were divided between wishing him to be a Bishop and wishing him to be poet laureate. The rising genius of Tennyson did not check their aspirations in the latter direction. The boy at that time was a prolific writer of rhymes, most of which have been preserved to the present day.

The chairman of the Liverpool licensed victualler's association declares that intemperance is actually diminishing in England. In Liverpool itself there were only 15,000 convictions of drunkenness last year against 20,000 in 1875, notwithstanding the growth in population, and statistics show, he says, that the whole of England compare very favorably with other countries.

The increase of savings bank deposits was $2,516,000 in Connecticut and $11,296,230 in Massachusetts last year, and the indications of thrift are very encouraging. We are known as an extravagant people, spending on our living a larger proportion of our earnings than any other nation, and the thrift of the French would soon make the average annual increase in wealth of the United States more than $25 per capita of population.

Senator Don Cameron expresses the utmost confidence that the Republican party of Pennsylvania desires him returned to the Senate. He says he speaks the truth when he says that he does not wish to be a Senator unless by only a majority, but a very large majority, of the earnest Republicans of Pennsylvania desire it. All the indications point to Senator Cameron's re-election by a practically unanimous vote.

A private letter from Italy says Mackey is to settle only 1,500,000 francs on his step-daughter Eva as her dowry when she marries Prince Colonna. The writer adds: "Prince Colonna bears a great name and holds the position of cavalry officer in the Italian army. If Miss Mackey is able to take the upper hand with him she may possibly make a good husband out of him, although the life he has hitherto led is far from being a nice or desirable one."

"Misery can be felt crawling away," said an intense sufferer, after using St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain reliever.

F C MILLER—A $15 Prize
DR KENNEDY—Favorite Remedy
W E DAVIS & SON—White Shad
BENJ W DAVIS—General Commission M<sup>r</sup> Merchant

The storm signal was flying to day. The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 253 bales.

Two white tramps were accommodated with lodgings at the guard house last night.

There has been a brisk Southerly breeze to-day and the river was quite rough for small boats.

This is uncomfortable and unhealthy weather, and people cannot be too careful in guarding against colds.

E and W Collars and Cuffs, Fancy Bordered Handkerchiefs, Umbrellars and Walking Sticks, Percals and Calicoes, at Dyer's.

White Shad.
Messrs. W. E. Davis & Son received a message to-day brought by one of their carrier pigeons, that a white shad, the first of the season, was taken out of the trap at their fishery this morning.

Personal.
Col. F. W. Kercher, who has been absent for a month past, part of the time in this State and part in Baltimore returned to the city yesterday.

Rev. Wm. H. Lewis, the newly elected rector of St. James' church, is expected to arrive in the city to-night, and will be the guest of Mr. J. H. Boatwright.

Good Words.
The many friends of Rev. J. B. Taylor, formerly pastor of the First Baptist Church in this city, will read with profound pleasure the following, which we clip from the Lexington (Va.) Gazette:

Dr. Taylor, the pastor of the Baptist Church, has been just one year with us, but his kindness of heart and noble Christian walk and conversation have endeared him, not only to his immediate charge, but to all that he has come in contact with.

Only Ten Cents!
Huffman's Dime Museum, at No. 15 Market street, affords a means of recreation and amusement within the reach of all, and it will undoubtedly be well patronized. There will a matinee every Saturday afternoon, expressly for pleasure of the school children. The best of order will be preserved and nothing offensive to good morals will be permitted. See advertisement in another column.

Lookout for Them.
There seems to be a large amount of counterfeit coin in circulation in this city. It consists principally of pewter halves and quarter dollars, and we hear of quite a number of our citizens, who have been victimized within a few days. We have seen several specimens and they can easily be detected by scrutiny. It would be well to pay a little extra attention in making change, by which means there will be but little danger of getting this sort of bad coin.

Unsuccessful.
We saw several young men trying the experiment of riding on a bicycle to-day and, after witnessing the performance for awhile, we concluded that as a failure, they were a most pronounced success. It is a pastime in which it requires practice to become expert, and we noticed one who had no difficulty either in mounting or riding. It is a healthy and we should think that it must be a delightful pastime, and we hope that our young friends will persevere and become proficient wheelmen.

The Little Joker.
This is the name of the play in which Miss Carrie Swain will appear in the title role at the Opera House next Monday night. The play was written expressly for her by the playwright, Mr. Fred G. Maeder, who is her manager, and it has met with marked success wherever it has been presented. The Fall River (Mass.) Herald, in speaking of the play and the actress, says:

A large and appreciative audience greeted Carrie Swain's performance last evening. The play belongs to the school which Lotta's acting has made familiar, but Carrie Swain is a school all by herself. She sings much better than Lotta; her voice is a full, sweet and rich mezzo-soprano, with a high range, and her use of it shows careful training by a competent teacher. The play taxes her severely, as she is almost constantly on the stage, but she is every moment fresh and charming. Miss Swain was well supported.

On Skates.

The thanks of "the local" are due for an invitation from the manager to attend the entertainment at the City Hall to-night, at which an exciting game of polo will be played on skates. There will undoubtedly be a large attendance as roller skating has become very popular in the South, and a game of polo, which has seldom been witnessed by Southern people, will be of interest. To add to the pleasure and attractiveness of the occasion, there will be a string band of music in attendance.

Distinguished Guests.
Archbishop Gibbons, the Cardinal-elect, accompanied by his private secretary, Rev. N. W. Caughey, arrived here last night and Rt. Rev. H. Pinkney Northrop, Bishop of Charleston, S. C., will arrive this evening. These distinguished gentlemen will all be the guests of Col. F. W. Kercher. On Sunday morning next St. Thomas' Church in this city will be dedicated, on which occasion the Archbishop will preach at night. Bishop Northrop will deliver the sermon. The seats will all be free on both occasions and the services will be held at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

City Court.
Henry Hudson who has been at work in the city for a couple of weeks as a painter, while his wife has been engaged doing housework, was brought before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct. The testimony adduced developed the fact that he and his wife were both drunk yesterday, and got into a fight at the corner of Front and Mulberry streets, and when an attempt was made to separate them, Hudson made a furious onslaught on those who had interfered. He was arrested and taken to the guard house. After hearing the testimony and a touching appeal from the wife, they were discharged providing they would leave the city instantly, which they promised to do. They hail from Norfolk, Va., and stated that they wanted to go to Charleston, S. C.

This Morning's Fire.
At about half past 3 o'clock this morning a fire was discovered in a building occupied as a store room, wood house and for other purposes on the premises of Mr. C. C. Parker, on the Southwest corner of Sixth and Wooster streets. The alarm was promptly given and the firemen were quickly on hand, but the paints and oils which were stored in a portion of the building were so inflammable in their nature that it with its contents were destroyed together with a considerable amount of fencing. The efforts of the firemen were mainly directed to saving Mr. Parker's dwelling house from destruction, in which they were successful, although the building was for a time in great jeopardy and was considerably scorched. There was insurance on the building burned to the amount of $20; on the fencing $30, and on the dwelling house $800, all in the Home Insurance Co., of New York, represented in this city by Messrs. Northrop & Hodges. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary.

Street Improvements.
The street force have recently put the sidewalks on Red Cross street, between Third and Fourth, in excellent condition and they are now first-class thorough fares. The ballast is of excellent quality and will be durable. The force are at work upon Walnut street, which is being permanently and materially improved. On the South side of the latter street, between Second and Third, the sidewalk has been raised and well ballasted while a solid bulk head has been built in order to prevent any wash into the low adjacent lot. A deep and well-paved gutter has been laid sufficient to take off the water, and this gutter leads into an under drain of double terra cotta pipe, which conducts the water under and across Second street. After crossing Second street, the drain connects with a drain made of heavy plank, and this latter will lead across Front street and to the river. By this means there will be no more washing of the street and sidewalk, as has been frequently the case heretofore. The work is being done thoroughly and with a view to permanence.

Extract from a Private Letter.
Regarding Dr. David Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy," the writer, Prof. A. B. Chandler, Principal of the Academy, Brookhaven, Miss., says: "I suffered from torpidity of the Liver and Bowels and Paralysis. I used the Favorite Remedy for two months, and am now able to use my side which for a long time had been like a piece of dead flesh. My general health was never better than at present."

Indications.
For the South Atlantic States, partly cloudy weather and local rain; warmer, followed by a slight rise in temperature in Southern portion. Southerly winds.

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil. For durable coloring the walls of rooms in beautiful tints, at little cost nothing equals the MARBLEINE sold at JACOBI'S Depot.

A Black Tiger.

On Tuesday night last, as Mr. L. Johnson, who lives about 6 miles from Point Caswell, Pender county, was returning from his work, his dog treed an animal, which at first was supposed to be a coon, but after firing several shots without perceptible effect upon the animal, which he could not see distinctly, owing to the darkness, he cut the tree down. When this was accomplished, Mr. Johnson found that he had undertaken more than he had bargained for, as the animal proved to be much larger than a coon and showed fight. He then went and secured the assistance of Mr. E. A. Hawes, Mr. H. H. Boswell and some colored men, besides several dogs, and returned to see if the beast could be captured. In the meantime the animal had moved into the swamp at the head of "Hawes' Narrows" to which place he was trailed by the dogs and brought to bay. The dogs made an attack, but the animal killed one in an instant and severely wounded two others. The swamp was then surrounded and after several shots had been fired the animal was killed, and upon examination it proved to be something utterly unknown in this section. His height was about two feet high and he was considerably more than six feet in length from the end of his nose to the tip of his tail. He was jet black in color, had short and rather coarse hair, was muscularly built and had terrible claws. It is supposed to have been one of a pair of black tigers which escaped from Robinson's circus last fall, and it is probable that the other is not far distant. He was brought to the city on a flat last night, and has been on exhibition during the day at the shooting gallery near the new market, where many have been impelled by curiosity to go and see him.

The Masons.
We glean from the Raleigh Chronicle the following notes relative to the meeting in that city, in annual session of the Grand Lodge of F. and A. M. Masons.

Tuesday evening the Grand Lodge met in Masonic Hall. Grand Master Robert Bingham delivered an address fifteen minutes long and full of instruction and suggestions.

Capt. A. H. A. Williams, one of the Board of Directors of the Orphan Asylum, made a report embracing the report of Dr. B. F. Dixon, the Superintendent. Dr. Dixon's report shows that the total receipts for the year were $14,253.70; disbursements $12,589.42, leaving a balance of hand of $1,664.28. Seventy-two orphans have been admitted during the year, and forty-four have been discharged, leaving 153 now at the asylum. Dr. Dixon, in concluding his report, pays a compliment to the ladies, who, by aid societies, have been of great service to the asylum, and suggested such action on the part of the Grand Lodge as would secure the aid of the ladies throughout the State. Mr. F. H. Basbee offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That a special committee of five be appointed to prepare and report to the Grand Lodge for the formation of a visiting committee of ladies, and for the organization of aid societies for the help of the orphan asylum, as suggested in the address of the Grand Master and the report of the Superintendent.

The following gentlemen were appointed on the committee: Thos. S. Kenan, Rev. B. C. Phillips, B. W. Hatcher, Dr. I. Harrell and F. B. Mace.
