The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

It is announced that five hundred Canadians on snow-shoes will call on President elect Cleveland.

As a result of the semi-annual examination at West Point 25 per cent. of the fourth class has been dropped.

The Czar of Russia has an income of over $8,000,000. The editor of the Boston Post remarks that although he don't get quite as much he has more fun on it.

The London World announces the approaching marriage of Viscount Sherbrooke, or Robert Lowe, aged seventy-three and a widower without an heir, to Miss Sneyd, his amanuensis.

The messengers who carried the electoral votes to Washington traveled 32, 674 miles and received $8,468.50. The Oregon messenger received the largest sum—$776.50—and the Maryland man the smallest—$10.50.

There is high authority for stating that at the last meeting of the British Cabinet it was decided that the course of England would be to assume the whole responsibility of the Egyptian financial question and the proclaiming of a protectorate.

The London Post has an article of nearly three columns, bearing the earmarks of Lord Lytton, under the heading "Is Another Mutiny Possible in India," which the Post answers affirmatively, saying that it is ready to ripen whenever the Russians reach the frontier.

Incredible as it may appear, ladies who travel in New Orleans street cars are subjected to even greater annoyances and indignities than are their sisters in New York cars. The New Orleans Times is waging a vigorous crusade in their behalf, and insists that smoking in closed cars shall be prohibited.

"Everybody," says Mr. Henry Waterson, "has had his fling. The sweet-faced kid with the velvet paw; the iron-jawed Protectionist, with his axe to grind; the rapid newspaper critic, with his stuffed club; the man with a grievance and the man with a razor, all have got in their work. Now it is our turn."

Webster Flanagan, of Texas, who made the frank declaration, "What are we here for if not for the offices?" in the Chicago Convention of 1880, is in Washington. He says he stands by what he then said and expects to be compelled to give up his position of Internal Revenue Collector on short notice.

Sarah Bernhardt will sell her present residence and furniture at auction and go into a smaller house. She has settled a part of her income on her creditors. Mme. Bernhardt has entered into a contract to write the Paris correspondence for several foreign newspapers. The Tribune of Rome will pay her 4,000 francs monthly. Her first article will be a critique on M.
Sardou's dramas.

The record of the amount of public money received by British peers and their relatives since 1850 stands: Dukes, £9,760,000; Marquises, £8,905,050; Earls, £48,181,202; Viscounts, £11, 241,202; Barons, £31,136,188; total, £108,614,632. Among the Dukes, the Duke of Beaufort has had the greatest number of relatives provided for by the public; among the Marquises, the Marquis of Waterford; among the Earls, the Earl of Kimberley; among the Viscounts, Viscount Strathallan; among the Barons, Lord Carrington.

The National Druggist says: "Dr.
Fleischl, of Vienna, declares that mor-phinism, alcoholism, and similar habits can now be cured rapidly and painlessly by means of cocaine chloride. The method is very simple—a withdrawal, either gradual or abrupt and complete, of the habitual intoxicant, and treatment of the nervous and other symptoms which arise therefrom by means of hypodermic injections of the cocaine. He claims that in ten days a cure may be effected in any case. The dose of cocaine chloride, hypodermically, is from one-twelfth to one-fourth of a grain, dissolved in water, repeated as necessary."

A prophet, they say, is no good in his own country; but there is an exception to this proverb. Dr. Bull has been of infinite good to his countrymen and his Cough Syrup has become a national balm.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

F. C. MILLER—A $15 Prize
O. W. YATES—Bl. nk Books HEINISBERGER—Bridal Presents
Miss E. KARRER—Special Notice
R. M. McINTIRE—Closing out Wraps HUMPHREY & JENKINS—Oysters, &c.

This weather is trying to the patience, health and wood pile. We hope there may be a change in a few days.

Yesterday was the anniversary of the birth of Gen. Robert E. Lee. It ought to have been observed in some way in Wilmington but was not.

Why not call in and see the suits that Dyer is making to order for $25? You will be surprised. This is no fooling but strictly business.

Miss E. Karrer gives notice in this issue that she will continue the sale of zepphyrs, all colors, at 10 cents per oz. cash, until February 10th.

The question has been mooted whether or not an excursion to New Orleans could be gotten up among our citizens, to come off sometime during the month of February?

Two white tramps were accommodated with lodgings at the guard house last night. They were young men anxious to get to New York, and they left this morning on a vessel bound for that port.

The handsome residence on the Northwest corner of Chestnut and Third streets, the property of Mrs. John L.
Holmes, has been leased as a rectory by the vestry of St. James' church and will be occupied by the new Rector, Rev. Dr. Lewis, and his family.

It is the candid opinion of one of the conductors of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, that he saw as many as 300 tramps last Sunday in making his trip to this city. Some were coming South and some were going North, and the road was fairly lined with them.

Mr. John T. Kilham, a young landscape painter from New York, is in the city, engaged in the pursuit of his art.
We saw yesterday a painting of a lion's head, which was skillfully executed, and was a carefully painted picture of one of the lions in Central Park, New York.

Huffman's Dime Museum seems to be growing in popular favor, and the entertainments are generally well attended. A gallery has been prepared especially for the colored people, and the comfort as well as the amusement of those who attend is the aim of the management.

Indications.

For the South Atlantic States partly cloudy weather, local rains, Northerly winds, slight changes in temperature and falling barometer.

Personal.

Dr. E. Porter, of Rocky Point, and Maj. James Reilly, of Brunswick county, were in the city to-day.

Mr. C. M. D. Humphrey, who has been sick for a week past, with a threatened attack of pneumonia, which was happily averted, is again on duty.

The Black Tigers.

A friend has handed us a copy of the Norfolk News, of date Sept. 29th, 1884, containing a report of the escape of the two black tigers from Robinson's Circus. It will be read with interest at this time, in connection with the shooting of one of the animals on Black River.

Yesterday morning two black tigers succeeded in escaping from their cage on the cars that brought Robinson's circus to Portsmouth. They immediately proceeded to kill two goats, and after a hearty meal, departed for parts unknown. The animals were of a rare species, cost $2,000, and had been with the circus only a little over a fortnight.
As soon as the escape was made known men and dogs started in pursuit, but up to 2 p. m. the search had been unavailing. They rarely attack man unless in self defense or from intense hunger, but all the same they are anything but pleasant beasts to have prowling about, and the farmer had best be careful to see that his stock is carefully looked up, and women and children will remain near home and not go strolling through the woods until the animals are caught or killed.

Naturally there is considerable excitement among the people of Portsmouth and to some extent in Norfolk also.

An advertisement in another column offers a reward of $100 for their capture and return. Here is a chance for a jungle hunt without the necessity of going to India.

We observe quite a fine display of new Revolvers for very reasonable prices, at Jacob's Hardware Depot.

For Breakfast.

The black tiger has been skinned and his hide will be stuffed. We have heard it whispered by the breezes that quietly blow, that a part of the animal was cooked and eaten for breakfast yesterday morning. Only one of the party knew what sort of meat they were eating until after the meal was finished, but all declared that it was good.

Miss Carrie Swain.

This talented soubrette with a superb company appeared at the Opera House last night in the "Little Joker" written expressly for her by Mr. Fred.
G. Maeder, in which she assumes the title role, and she took the house by storm. It was a stormy night, yet there was a fair audience. It ought to have been larger and undoubtedly would have been, but for the inclemency of the weather. Miss Swain sang, danced and cut up all sorts of didos in the most inimitable manner, which kept the audience in roars of laughter.
Every movement seemed natural and easy; nothing strained, but all was brimming over with the very best of fun. The support was first rate and we hope that they may come again, when we bespeak for them a crowded house. Miss Swain's acting last night was equal to the best efforts of Lotta, in her palmiest days.

The Counterfeiters.

Ben Allen, colored, who was arrested on Saturday last by officer Carr for being engaged in the manufacture of counterfeit coin, was brought before U.
S. Commissioner T. M. Gardner this morning for a preliminary examination. District Attorney W. S. O'B.
Robinson was present and conducted the case for the government. Only one witness was examined, the testimony being substantially as heretofore given, when the Attorney thought it useless to occupy the time and attention of the court further in the matter at present, and the accused was required to give bonds in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at the next term of the U. S. District Court, in default of which he was committed. The trial of Louisa Allen, also colored, who was arrested at the same time and place with Ben, upon the same charge, will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. to-morrow, at which time U. S. District Attorney Robinson will appear for the government and Mr.
Marsden Bellamy will appear for the defense.

Audit and Finance.

The Board of Audit and Finance met in regular session last night. Present, K. J. Jones, chairman, and Messrs O.
A. Wiggins and W. R. Kenan.

After acting upon several bills the following communications, which had been received from the Board of Aldermen, were acted upon:

Resolved, That the sum of $45 be appropriated to reimburse Dr. Potter for medicines furnished the poor of the city.

Disapproved on the ground that the care of the poor is not committed to the city by law.

Resolved, That the disposition of the horses of the Little Giant Engine Company be referred to the committee on Fire Department, with power to act.

Approved, providing the action of the committee does not entail any expense upon the city.

Resolved, That the horse be provided for the use of the Hook and Ladder Company.

Disallowed, on the ground that the average of appropriations for the Fire Department, in the current fiscal year, is overdrawn; also, the collections for the nine months ended Dec. 31st, 1884, of the present fiscal year, are nearly $9,000 short of the corresponding period of last year. The Board, however, recognize the necessity of having another horse for the company and think that it should be provided for in the appropriation for the ensuing fiscal year, which will be made in March.

In the matter relating to fixing "Jacob's Spring" and the sewer leading therefrom to the river, the Board declined to act until the cost could be ascertained, but would approve of an expenditure of $100 for the procuring the necessary information.

In the tax matter of James W. Collins, Secretary and Treasurer of the Mechanics Building and Loan Association, wherein it appears that two parties had listed the same property, one having paid the tax in full and the other $21 on account, for the year 1873.

Ordered, That the Loan Association be allowed $21, to offset any year that the tax has not been settled on the property.

Coupons, amounting to $2,664, which had been redeemed and cancelled, were burned in the presence of the Board.
Adjourned.

A Foot Race.

There was quite an excitement this afternoon on Water street, the occasion being a foot race between Mr. W.
N. Harris, of this city, and Capt. M.
H. Rich, of the schooner J. F. Augur, now in port. The race was three times around the block embraced by Princess, Front, Chestnut and Water streets, making the distance travelled about three-fourths of a mile, and the stakes were the cigars for all the captains present and also for the reporters.
It was a lively time and the contestants patted brick in a decidedly allegro movement. The race was won by Mr.
Harris.

A Happy Event.

A wedding took place at Alma, in Robeson county, on Wednesday last, which was an occasion of much interest to many citizens of Wilmington.
Mr. Edward S. Lathorp, general freight agent of the Alma & Little Rock Railroad, was married to Miss Cora M. Fore. The ceremony was performed at the residence of Mr. J. B. Wilkinson, at Alma, on the 14th, Rev. Dr. Pritchard, of this city, the officiating minister, having been assisted by Rev. Mr.
Lynch, of Maine. Mr. Wilkinson's residence was profusely decorated with flowers and evergreens, and the bride and groom were stationed under a large floral bell as the words were pronounced which made them man and wife. The attendants were: Mr. J. S.
McRae and Miss M. B. Baker, of Robeson; Mr. Martin McRae, of Charlotte, and Miss Minnie McInnis, of Wilmington; Mr. E. S. McRae, of Robeson, and Miss Ida Larkins, of Wilmington; Mr. J. P. Patterson and Miss Janie Sellers; Mr. A. E. Baker and Miss Carrie McManis; Mr. A. M. Mc-Lean and Miss Maggie Patterson; Mr.
W. H. Fowles and Miss Maggie Jackson, of Richmond, Va.; Mr. John Leach and Miss Bettie McLaurin, of Wilmington; Mr. P. A. Fore and Miss Jessie B. McRae, of Shoe Heel.

The receipts of cotton at this port to- day foot up 238 bales.
