We will be glad to receive communication from our friends on any and all subjects general interest but The name of the writer must always be stated to the Editor.

E. D. Morgan and his party on the $100,000 yacht Amy, to run which costs $4,000 a month, have arrived at Singapore, on a cruise around the world.

A statistical work reports that there are in Nova Scotia 265 lawyers, 293 doctors and 463 clergymen. According to this every hundredth full-grown man in the province is engaged in one of these professions, one in a little over 200 being a clergyman.

A special to the Charleston News and Courier, from New York, in speaking of Gov. Cleveland's presence in that city, says:

One of the early morning delegations was one from Virginia. It consisted of Gen. Beverly, Congressman O'Farrell, ex-Congressman Goode, of Norfolk, Geo. W. Cabell and Col. Archer Anderson. It was a strikingly impressive body, by reason of all of its members being ex-army officers. Mr. Cleveland welcomed the delegation with his usual cordiality and accorded the body an interview of more than half an hour.

The delegates had come to press the claim of John S. Barbour for postmaster-general. Gen. Beverly presented Mr. Barbour's name and wishes in a brief, but eloquent speech. Mr. Cleveland listened attentively and at the end said: "Gentlemen, your petition will be carefully considered."

A rumor has it that Gen. Hancock, who was one of the callers, is in a good position for the secretaryship of war. Senator George and Congressman H. S. Van Eaton, of Georgia, called together. After a friendly chat with the President-elect, they suggested the name of Congressman Money for a Cabinet officer. Their arguments were listened to by Mr. Cleveland, but no promises were made to Mr. Money's friends. Senator George expressed himself as greatly impressed by the genial manner and frank ways of Mr. Cleveland. He spoke confidently of the hopes of the South and said that he thought that section should be given the second place in the Cabinet.

The interest was heightened when it was known that Senator Vance, of North Carolina, was closeted with the President. He was accompanied by Gen. Cleggman and Congressman Skinner. Their conference lasted only long enough for the Senator to present the name of ex-Governor T. J. Jarvis, whom they desire to be appointed a member of the Cabinet. The postmaster-generalship would be most acceptable to Mr. Jarvis.

An Indiana delegation in the interest of James E. McDonald for the attorney generalship, an Illinois delegation in the interest of Gen. T. C. Black, and Senators Lamar and Gorman also visited Mr. Cleveland.

Experience and Practice. Dr. L. O. Morgan, a leading druggist and physician of South Amboy, N. J., says that he prescribes St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-cure, in his family and to his patients, and has seen the good effects of it.

At well parties in New York cigars are handed round by an attendant to the male guests as they disperse. It used to be the practice to place boxes on the tables and let the guests help themselves, but, as in Paris, the practice of carrying off the weeds by hand has become too scandalously common.

The debt statement for January shows a return to the admirable practice of a monthly debt reduction. For the seven months of the fiscal year the debt has been brought down nearly $41,000,000, which, if maintained at the same rate for the full year, would make the total reduction on June 30 next about $70,000,000.

Tammany is in trouble because of the probability that John Kelly will not lead the "braves" in another campaign. His friends say that his days as a political leader are practically ended. Members are deserting the ship and as the New York Herald expresses it, Tammany is fast dissolving, and the breast of the County Democracy is filled with joy.

The dynamiters will hold a conclave, probably, in Paris on February 23d. Eleven delegates, four of them from America, will be present. It is said that some other and more revolutionary method than dynamiting will be adopted to ruin the commerce of England. There is an ex-detective in the employ of the Central Revolutionary Committee, as it is styled. It is reported that a warning is to be issued to the British Cabinet to the effect that if the Crimes Act Bill is renewed during the coming session trouble will follow.

It is hard to tell just why it takes a girl four hours longer to wash the front windows than the back ones. But the great popularity of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is accounted for in the millions of cures it annually makes.

Indications. For the South Atlantic States, slightly warmer, fair weather, winds shifting to Southerly with lower barometer.

Now for the Inaugural. Those who are talking of going to Washington city next month to see the new President qualify, will be interested in the advertisement published elsewhere by Capt. T. M. Emerson, relative to rates of fare. Tickets will be on sale from February 18th to March 3rd, good to return until March 10th. The rate from Wilmington is $16.15 for citizens and $10.45 for uniformed military. This is to go and return.

Exports Foreign. Brig Mary E. Dana, Mitchell, cleared to-day for Kingstown, St. Vincent, W. I., with 162,834 feet lumber, 15 barrels pitch, 5 barrels rosin, 8 barrels tar and 2 casks spirits turpentine, valued at $2,671.74, shipped by Messrs. Northrop & Cumming, Sch. J. P. Augur, Ritch, cleared for St. Lucia, W. I., with 112,933 feet lumber, valued at $1,680, shipped by Messrs. W. D. Wheelwright & Co., making a total of exports foreign amounting to $4,351.74.

The Cut Off. The Wilson short-cut is to be built, and that at an early day. Of this there is no doubt, but it would seem that it will not, for the present, go any further South than Fayetteville. We understand that Col. Bridgers and Mr. Walters are both now in Fayetteville and that the work of construction will be begun very soon. Col. Gardner and staff are also in Fayetteville. It is 68 miles from Fayetteville to Wilson and the connection will probably be made by the spring of next year.

Literary. Golden Days for February has arrived and is an excellent number—equal to any of its predecessors. Aside from the many tales of travel and adventure with which it abounds there are many instructive and interesting articles of history, science &c., which cannot fail to be of advantage to the general reader. We commend the Magazine to the boys and girls—young ladies and gentlemen—of Wilmington, as an entertaining as well as instructive periodical. Published by James Yelverton, Philadelphia, at a subscription price of $3 per annum.

Love and Law. Such is the name of the play which will be presented to the people of Wilmington at the Opera House next Thursday night, by Milton Nobles and his company. Mr. Nobles is the author of the play, as he is of all those presented by him. As dramatist and actor he has achieved a marked success, and Love and Law is pronounced equal and in some respects superior, to any of his former efforts. One of the great reasons for his success has been the fact that his plays are moral in their tone and he selects an excellent support. This season his company is exceptionally fine, among whom are several well-known Wilmington favorites. His payroll to his company amounts to $125 per day, which is a guarantee that it is first rate. We bespeak for Mr. Nobles a crowded house on the night of the 12th inst.

Personal. Mayor Hall returned from Raleigh last night. Dr. S. S. Satchwell, of Pender county, was here yesterday. Ex-Sheriff A. R. Black, Principal of the school at Willard, was in the city to-day. Mr. F. R. Stewart, senior member of the firm of Stewart, Shirreffs & Co., Civil Engineers and Contractors, of Richmond, Va., was in the city to-day. Mr. J. H. Jones, of the Signal Office in this city, leaves here to-day on the steamship Regulator for New York. After a short stay in Gotham, Mr. Jones will go Washington City, where he will remain until after the inauguration. During his absence from the city Mr. E. H. Emery will remain in the Signal Office here, and we acknowledge the courtesy of a visit from that gentleman this morning.

"The trade is improving," said Mr. Dyer, as he looked up from his work this morning. "See, there is another of these $25. Suits ready for the jours, We make the trade lively with these elegant goods."

Nor. barque Carl Maz. Beyer, from this port, arrived at Bremen on the 5th inst.

Next Saturday is St. Valentine's Day and don't you forget it, young man.

Steamboatmen report a slight rise in the Caps Fear in consequence of the recent rains. The storm signal, which has been flying almost continuously for the last fortnight, has been hauled down.

Quarterly meeting will be held at Front Street M. E. Church to-morrow, at which the Presiding Elder, Rev. P. J. Carraway, will preside.

The ordinance of baptism will be administered to two female candidates at the close of the services at the First Baptist Church to-morrow night.

The streets have been well thronged with people during the day and there has been an appearance of life and business activity which was quite refreshing.

What a pity it is that we all can't think alike sometimes; for instance, in regard to the Criminal Court and the no-fence law, and as to who ought or not to be made Collector or Postmaster!

The new steam fire engine, for the Howard Relief Fire Engine Company, was shipped from the manufactory at Waterford, N. Y., on the 3rd inst., and is expected to arrive here some time during next week.

Cotton. The receipts of cotton at this port for the week ending with to-day foot up 556 bales as against 1,736 bales for the corresponding period of last year, a decrease this week of 1,180 bales. The receipts of the crop year to date foot up 69,532 bales, against 85,265 bales to February 9th, 1884, an increase this year of 4,257 bales.

Improvements. The Hemmenway School house, for red pupils, on Fourth street, between Red Cross and Campbell, and the Peabody School house, for colored pupils, on Fifth street, between Red Cross and Campbell, have recently been repainted and furnished with new blinds to the windows, besides having received further repairs and improvements.

Crusoe's Island. This island belongs to Columbus county, N. C., and forms a part of what is known as Lee's Township. The island has an extreme length, North and South, of about five miles an extreme width of about three miles, and an area of fifteen miles, or 9,600 acres. The Waccamaw river forms the Western boundary and separates Crusoe from the main land of Columbus. Juniper Creek forms the Southern boundary, and separates it from Brunswick county, and the "Great Green Swamp" forms its Northern and Eastern boundaries. The lands, excepting the small plots occupied by the settlers, are owned by Col. H. B. Short, of Lake Waccamaw. The soil is extremely fertile, producing exuberant crops of corn, cotton, sweet potatoes, &c. On this island is Hudson's Bay, which, only a few years ago, was an almost impenetrable swamp; but now, under successful cultivation by Mr. Jas. A. Thompson, produces as high as 70 bushels corn per acre. This farm, in crop season, is a perfect wilderness of corn. Here, too, is the residence of the far-famed trapper, Willis Hudson, who, according to his own statements, has captured 49 bears—true specimens of the black and brown bear of the Great Green Swamp. There are at this time, perhaps, about 100 inhabitants upon this fertile island, who are principally engaged in farming, and such is the fertility of the soil that they have a comparatively easy task in producing an abundant support. A bridge has been built across the Waccamaw river, at Skipper's Landing, and another is nearly completed across Juniper creek, much to the convenience of this remote and almost unknown section. The citizens have also built a place for divine worship—a mere log cabin—and they also have all the advantages for gaining a good common school education possessed by any other portion of the county. The island and its inhabitants have been but little known until the past few years, but there is evidently a progressive spirit at work among them and there is a fair prospect that, at no distant day, the Crusoeites will be an enlightened and prosperous people, happy in the enjoyment of the better advantages afforded them than heretofore and with a laudable ambition to store their minds with useful knowledge.

Step Ladders, all lengths, at JACOB'S Depot.

IN MEMORIAM.

Laid to rest, in quiet Oakdale, yesterday afternoon LULA, elder daughter of Mrs. D. E. Bunting. Each is life: "Even as a vapor it passeth away," and the places that once knew us, know us no more. A small band of mourning relatives, surrounded by sympathizing friends; the solemn and beautiful rites provided by our Mother Church; the farewell words tenderly uttered by the faithful Presb. "dust to dust, ashes to ashes"; a mound of earth covered with beautiful flowers, and all is over. Not over to the mourning hearts, who must again take up the burden of life, feeling so keenly the loss of the dearly loved one, now so happily folded in the quiet bosom under the sod. The mound strewn with flowers of friendship's offering, which we left in the beautiful sunlight of yesterday afternoon covers one whose energetic young life has shined brightly in her home, making cheerful every nook and corner. So rapidly did disease accomplish its work, that the echo of her merry laugh had scarcely died upon the ears of the inmates of her home, when her useful young life was so suddenly terminated and the sorrowing mother, brother and sisters bereft of their centre, around which they all revolved. Yet, they sorrow not as those without hope, for their loss is her gain. Lift up then, your hearts, afflicted ones, for you will meet again in that land "where the wicked cease from troubling, and the weary are at rest."
