Mr. Horr, of Mich., offered an amend him in the House of Representatives re- 535 000, the appropriation for the letter lating to the declaration of the vote carrier system. After considerable de-That sentence was as follows: "And bate the amendment was agreed to. the President of the Senate makes this declaration only as a public statement, in the presence of the two houses of Congress, of the contents of papers opened and read on this occasion, and not as possessing any authority in law to declare any legal conclusion whatever."

Mr Conger said that he desired, as one of the members of the Senate, to say that he entirely dissented from the declaration that the President of the chair. Senate or the Vice President had no other power in announcing that vote than to announce the fact and he did not know by what authority the sentance quoted had been made part of the declaration.

Mr Sherman said: "I also wish for myself-having put on record my opinion-to again assert and put on record. my opinion that the declaration made was the declaration of the gentleman. who presided on that occasion, express- the meeting and adjourning of the Sening his opinion, and should not be taken ate. as a precedent, except so far as it may command the judgment of mankind of Columbus county to levy a special hereafter.
