Subscribers will report any and all failures to receive their paper regularly.

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

A temperance society in Boston has just resolved that the use of tobacco for the gratification of the appetite is "an anathema to God and humanity."

The remains of Mrs. James Russell Lowell were interred at Kensal Green Cemetery, London, on Monday. The funeral was strictly private.

Railroad fares have now reached the lowest figures ever known in America. An immigrant's ticket from New York to Chicago can be bought for $1. The distance is 1,000 miles.

The Fourteenth Street Theatre, of New York, follows the lead of the Union Square Theatre in reducing the price of admission. Hereafter the best seats will be sold for $1 each.

The California Legislature is considering a bill requiring scratching of tickets on election day to be done with ink. It is considered as in the interest of the manufacturers of the tountain pen.

The Legislatures all over the country are passing anti-oleomargarine bills, but there are no reports of manufacturers going out of the business, or of grocers being punished for selling the stuff.

An imperial commission recently visited New Zealand with a view to purchasing mounts for the Indian cavalry, and was greatly pleased with the magnificent horse stock at several of the stud farms. It is safe to predict that in future New Zealand will furnish a large percentage of horses for the Indian army.

The average area under wheat in India in ordinary years, according to a recent estimate, is about 26,000,000 acres, and the average gross production is nearly 7,000,000 tons. Of this area 18,000,000 acres, or nine-thirteenths, live in the four British provinces of the Punjab, the Northwestern Provinces and Oudh, the Central Provinces and Bombay.

The Department of Agriculture makes the record of Indian corn for the crop of 1884, raised from 69,683,780 acres, 1,795,000,000 bushels, being a yield of 25.8 bushels per acre. Although owing to this crop having a larger area for its production than any previous crop, the total amount is the largest ever harvested, yet the yield per acre is three and three-tenths bushels less than that of the census crop of 1879.

There are probably not ten peers in London who live on their own property. Stafford, Bridgewater, Spencer and Montague houses are all on crown property. Even the Duke of Bedford lives on another Duke's land, as did the late Duke of Portland, for his residence, Harcourt House, albeit in the midst of his property, was not his. Lord Dartmouth, who owns considerable London property, lives on the Duke of Westminster's. Sir Richard Sutton and his father leased their Cambridge House to Lord Palmerston.

Judging from the present indications, the chance of asylum which has made Canada so popular with a very undesirable class of tourists from the United States is in a fair way of being reduced to a minimum. It appears that an extradition treaty is now in the course of negotiation, which includes in its list of extraditable offenses forgery, embezzlement, larceny, the counterfeiting or altering money or the issuing of counterfeit or altered money obtaining money or goods under false pretences, crimes by bankrupts against bankruptcy laws, and frauds by bailiffs, bankers, agents, factors or directors or members of public affairs of any company which are made criminal by any law for the time being in force.

Whole families have been cured of distressing aches and pains by the timely use of the great pain cure St. Jacobs Oil. Try it.

Mortality. From the report of Dr. F. W. Potter, City Physician, for the month ended February 28th, 1885, it appears that the whole number of deaths in the city during that time was 33. Of this number 19 were whites and 23 were colored. Of the whites 7 were adults and 3 were children and of the colored 17 were adults and 6 were children. As regards the mortality between the sexes there were 7 white males and 3 white females and 8 colored males and 15 colored females died during the month.

This was a beautiful, bracing morning.

We gain this month 67 minutes of daylight.

The offshore storm signal was flying this morning.

This month has five Sundays, five Mondays and five Tuesdays.

Merch came in like unto a lusty lion. May it go out as goeth the young sheep.

The railroads of the Atlantic Coast Line are doing an immense business in their passenger traffic this season.

There was a large number of flat loads of wood in the docks this morning, but the prices asked were rather high.

Rev. Dr. Deems is expected to lecture in Raleigh, on the 21st inst, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of Edenton Street Church.

There was one white tramp accommodated at the guard house on Saturday night and another was treated with like courtesy on Sunday night.

"I guarantee a perfect fit," remarked Mr. Dyer, the tailor; "and also the finest of workmanship, on our $25 suit."

The Boy Clipper Plow has earned a reputation of being the best ever used and are pronounced perfect by the best farmers. Sold wholesale and retail at the factory agency, JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

We were mistaken in stating, on Saturday, that Col. Sloan would deliver his lecture on the Battle of Gettysburg to-night at the Opera House. It will be delivered at the rooms of the Wilmington Library Association.

It is with profoundest mortification, we've kept away from the inauguration.

It is not for want of an inclination to see the gigantic demonstration, but because of that mean abomination a depressed financial situation.

The weather yesterday was very threatening in this city and the clouds were ominous of rain, but none fell until after nightfall, when there were light showers. It rained nearly all day, however, along the line of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad for its entire length.

Knights of Honor. Carolina Lodge No. 434. Regular meeting this evening at 8 o'clock. Full attendance desired.

Indications. For the South Atlantic States, fair weather, slightly colder on the coast, nearly stationary temperature in the interior and Westerly winds.

City Court. There was one case of a boy charged with disorderly conduct before the Mayor this morning and the defendant was sent below for two days. One case of drunk and down on Saturday night was discharged.

Yesterday Morning's Fire. About half past 2 o'clock yesterday morning fire was discovered in the two story frame dwelling on the West side of Melroe street, near the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, occupied by Ransom McMillan, the colored fiddler, and several disreputable colored females. The alarm was given and the fire department were on hand as soon as the lateness of the hour and the distance would permit, but the flames had gotten under such headway that their efforts to save it from total destruction were fruitless. The furniture was saved. The building was the property of Riley Moseley, colored, and was insured to the amount of $400 in the London Assurance Corporation, represented in this city by Mr. Samuel Northrop.

We observe quite a fine display of new Revolvers for very reasonable prices, at Jacobi's Hardware Depot.

The Last Rites.

The obsequies of Mr. John Griffith were held at his late residence, on the corner of Sixth and Castle streets, at half past 10 o'clock yesterday morning. Rev. D. H. Tuttle, of the Fifth Street M. E. Church, officiating. Hook & Ladder Company No. 1, of which he was the first Foreman, turned out in their entire strength and in full uniform to do honor to the dead. Besides the company there were quite a number of exempt and honorary members of the organization, and officials of the city fire department in attendance. The remains were conveyed to Bellevue Cemetery, escorted by Hook & Ladder Co., where they were interred.

Interesting Services.

Rev. W. P. Swartz preached three interesting sermons yesterday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. He is quite a young man, but is a fine pulpit orator, and the very large congregations in attendance were deeply interested in his subject, which was "Mission Work in India," a work upon which he will enter in that theatre of action shortly. In connection with, and as a result of his visit here, a Ladies' Missionary Society was organized by the ladies connected with St. Paul's Lutheran Church, at Luther Memorial Building, this afternoon. Mr. Swartz will preach his farewell sermon in this city at St. Paul's Lutheran Church at half-past 7 o'clock to-morrow night. The services will be in English.

Supreme Court.

In this Court, on Saturday, the consideration of appeals from the third judicial district was resumed and causes were disposed of as follows:

George Turner, administrator, vs J. D. Quinn, administrator, from Jones; motion of plaintiff to dismiss defendant's petition, argued on Friday, was refused, notice directed to be issued and cause put to the end of the district.

H. Weil & Brothers vs. Thomas W. Uzzell and wife, from Wayne; statement of case agreed upon and cause put to the end of the district.

C. B. Wright vs City of Wilmington, from New Hanover; argued by C. M. Stedman for the plaintiff, and J. D. Bellamy for the defendant.

N. B. Ward et als vs Farmer & Southerland, from Wayne; argued by Faircloth & Allen for the plaintiffs, and G. V. Strong for the defendants.

W. H. Borden vs Louis D. Gulley, from Wayne; argued by Faircloth & Allen and George V. Strong for the plaintiff, no counsel for the defendant.

State vs Jordan Lemon, from New Hanover; argued by attorney general Davidson for the State, and J. D. Bellamy for the defendant.

Cotton.

The receipts of cotton at this port for the month of February amount to 2,940 bales, as against 4,666 bales for the same month last year, a decrease this February of 1,726 bales. The receipts of the crop year to date foot up 91,906 bales against 83,195 bales to same date last year, an increase this year of 3,711 bales.

The Detroit Free Press defines a tack as a simple, unpretending sort of a young nail. We wonder how it would describe a sneaking, treacherous cold; one for instance that Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup only can cure.

Notice.

I HAVE ON HAND A CONSIGNMENT, and will offer for sale for a few days, at the greatly reduced price of 25 cents each, TWO HUNDRED LEONIE PEAR TREES, from the Thomasville, Ga., nursery. This wonderful fruit, which has created as great a furor in Southern Georgia as has the orange in Florida, and which has created such a profound interest among the Nurserymen and Fruit Growers throughout the entire country, has not but it is known to the public, in order to a quiet them with it, to make known its remarkable qualities, and to point out the handsome profits to be realized from cultivation, the following facts are set forth: In 1851, Major J. Coote, then a citizen of Philadelphia, sent among other varieties, a small rootlet, labeled "Lionie or Sand Pear," to his friend, Mrs. Harding, in Liberty County, Ga. It grew and flourished in its new home, and at the age of five years began to fruit. Its wonderful vigor and surpassing beauty as a tree, coupled with its early and profuse bearing, attracted the attention and won the admiration of those living in the immediate vicinity. As fruit growing was not thought of in those days, as a means of profit, the trees were confined to a few families. Hence the war a nurseryman's attention was called to it. From this beginning Thomas county has become generally known as the home and headquarters of the Lionie Pear. Here it has grown into an industry, scarcely second to cotton in its proportions, and vastly superior in profit. The fruit sells readily in the Northern markets at from $2 to $5 per bushel. One grower cleared the past season over $500 from seventeen trees. The tree is a wonderfully rapid grower, and is independent of soil, provided it is not a wet soil. It is similar to the Lombardy poplar, and with its abundant suit of dark rich green leaves, put on early in the spring, it is by far the most beautiful of all fruit trees and one of the most ornamental trees in the South. It usually comes into bearing about the fifth or sixth year; but in good ground and cultivation has been known to fruit in three years. It has fully grown it yields regular crops of from fifteen to forty bushels. The great advantages over all other Pears are these—the tree is perfectly free from blight or disease of any kind; the fruit keeps well and bears transport; it yields more abundantly than any other Pear; and it is well adapted to the soil and climate of Section North Carolina. The regular price of these trees the past season has been $1.50 a piece; and the nurserymen have been unable to supply the demand.
