Easter Monday.

The Ides of March have come and no really warm weather yet. To-day might be called pleasant were it not for the raw, chilly atmosphere.

It seems hard to have to replenish the coal bin and the wood pile when a fellow was congratulating himself that he could get along comfortably without doing so.

Schr. Post Boy, Gott, cleared to-day for St. Pierre, Martinique, with 136 902 feet lumber and 14.750 shingles valued at $2.234.68, shipped by Messrs. E. Kidder & Son.

The Boy Clipper Plow has earned reputation of being the best ever used and are pronounced perfect by the best farmers. Sold wholesale and retail at the factory agency, JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

in progress in all the large cities and among the leading clubs of the country to make the season a notable one in the annals of base ball playing. This city seems to have caught the infection, and the game will be the great favorite with Wilmingtonians during the year.

Several clubs will be in the field, and the Athletic Grounds, where the games will principally played, are being put in order for the purpose. Among other improvements which are being made is a nice fence 8 feet high, which is being put around the entire grounds.

Mr. H. D. Williamson. The News and Observer, pays the following handsome and deserved com pliment to Mr. H. D. Williamson, of Cerro Gerdo, the gentleman who has so faithfully and so ably represented the interests of Columbus county in this and the preceding Legislature:

The member of the house from Columbus county has during the past session of the legislature added greatly to the reputation which he gained at the session of 1883 as a safe and influential legislator. Ever watchful of and taithful to the interests of the people of his own county and of the entire State. he has won a reputation for himself as one of the strong and earnest members of the house, and he reflected honor upon his county as its representative, He has been prompt and efficient in the discharge of all business committed to his care and of every duty which devolved upon him. Mr. Williamsson served upon the following committees, viz: insane asylum; agriculture, mechanics and mining; infernal improvements and the joint committee on elec tion of justices of the peace, upon all of which he did valuable work and materially aided by his counsel. Columbus county, when represented by Mr. Williamson, may feel confident that her

St. Patrick's Day

The Hibernian Association turned out to-day in unusually large numbers, and the programme of the day was carried out in the manner indicated by us in our issue of the 13th inst. Col. John L. Cantwell was the Chief Marshal of the occasion, which is a sufficient guarantee that everything passed off smoothly. At the church Rev. Father Moore delivered an instructive and approprire .formed and paraded through several streets on their return to the Hall, Upon arriving at the Hall an election was held of officers to serve for the en. suing year, with the following result:

President-Mr. F. H. Darby. Vice President-Mr. Geo, P. Lamb, Secretary-Mr. James A. Corbett. Assistant Secretary-Mr. William Sheehan.

Treasurer-Capt. D. O'Connor.
