VOL. IX.

The report of firearms at about half past 2 o'clock this morning caused con siderable excitement in the neighborhoyd of Mulberry and McRae streets. A prowling thief had been discovered by one of the residents of that locality and was fired at several times, but the scamp managed to escape unharmed.

Last Night's Lecture.

There was a large and interested aut dience at St. Thomas' Catholic Church last night to listen to the entertaining and instructive lecture of Bishop Keane. The Bishop spoke without notes and held the most profound attention of his audience from the beginning to the end. The Bishop will lecture again to-night and there will be an intimate connection between the two lectures. His lecture last night was upon the "Holy Land" and his lecture to-night-"The Light of the World"-will be upon Him who made it holy and will be a refutathe importance of the road as a work tion of Rationalism and Infidelity. There will be an entire change of the
