The streets are dry and dusty and rain is much needed.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 12 bales.

One colored tramp was lodged at the guard house last Saturday night.

The local editor is just 59 years old today, having been born on the 27th day of April, 1826.

Schooner Isaac Oberton, Trim, from Boston, arrived at Bangor April 24th, to load for this port.

Green peas have made their appearance in this market in small quantities and correspondingly high prices.

German barque Auguste Jeannelle, Jergensen, hence for Riga, Russia, sailed from Dantzic on the 22nd inst.

Now is the season for painting your houses. Go to JACOB'S Hardware Depot and buy your paints, if you want to save money.

Remember the concert of the Wizard Oil Glee Club at the Opera House tonight for the benefit of the Wilmington Light Infantry.

To every Housekeeper a good substantial cook stove is an important necessity and our readers will find the best at Factory prices at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

There is not a great many of those Hats for 50 cents at Dyer's, so you had better make a selection at once. They are going like hot cakes.

We know you like to have a good fitting shirt! And it costs only one dollar to have it made at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market street, J. ELSBACH, Prop.

Indications.

For the South Atlantic States, fair weather, variable winds, generally from the North to East, slightly colder in Northern portion and stationary temperature in the Southern portion.

War Rumors.

There were rumors in the city this afternoon that hostilities had broken out afresh in Afghanistan between the Russian and Afghan forces, but they need confirmation. In the present condition of relations between England and Russia upon the Afghan question, a declaration of war would not be a surprise, and in fact we can hardly see how it can be prevented. Both Russia and England have gone too far to retreat gracefully and with honor.

Two Attempts.

About 2 o'clock on Sunday morning an unsuccessful attempt was made to rob the premises of Mr. Ammons residing on Front, between Dawson and Wooster streets. The rascal was seen and heard as he entered the yard and was fired on by Mr. J. P. Quinn, a printer in this office, who was there in attendance on Mr. Ammons, who was sick.

A little later, between 4 and 5 o'clock, some one entered the back door of the kitchen of Mr. Amos Perry's residence on Eighth, between Dock and Orange streets, but did not succeed in getting anything he having been heard and frightened off.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At the Regular Annual Meeting of Stock holders of Bellevue Cemetery Company, held at the law office of J. D. Bellamy, Jr., Esq on the 24th inst., Mr. Bellamy moved that Chairman Manning and Directors Everett and Smith be appointed a committee to draft resolutions commemorating the death of Vice President JAMES ALDERMAN.

Resolved, That we tenderly condole with the family of our deceased friend and co-laborer, and humbly commend them to the keeping of Him who orders all things for the best, and whose chastisements are meant for mercy.

Resolved, That in the death of Vice President JAMES ALDERMAN this Company has lost an able adviser, whose upright life was a standard of emulation to his fellows.

Resolved, That these Resolutions be spread upon the Records of the Company, and that a copy be transmitted to the family of our deceased companion, and also to the newspapers for publication.
