WALTER C MURPHY, M D—Annual Meeting

There was no City Court this morning.

No tramps were lodged at the guard house last night.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 15 bales.

We learn that the measles are again quite prevalent in the city.

Br. barque Britannia, Larsen, hence, arrived at Liverpool April 26th.

Steamship Benefactor, Tribon, hence, arrived at New York April 27th.

Schr. Isaac Orbelon, Trim, cleared from Bath, Me., April 25th at this port.

Beets were brought into market this morning and offered for sale at 25 cents per bunch.

A Straw Hat that will last and look well for the whole season is sold by Dyer for 50 cents.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard will preach at the Baptist Chapel, corner of Fifth and Wooster streets, to-night at 8 o'clock.

The cotton season may now be considered as fairly over with, the Compresses in this city having shut down until next Fall.

Steamboatmen complain that the water in the Cape Fear is getting so low that navigation has to be conducted with great caution.

The full moon in April brought the usual cooler weather, but in this instance it was not cold enough for frost in this section, as many feared it would be.

We know you like to have a good fitting shirt! And it costs only one dollar to have it made at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market street, J. ELSBACH, Prop.

We are requested to state that the box sheet for the Wizard Oil Concert for the benefit of the Wilmington Light Infantry, on Friday night, will be open at Heinsberger's to-morrow morning.

Assistant Marshals.

Capt. James I. Metts, Chief Marshal for Memorial Day, announces the following gentlemen as his aids for that occasion, viz: Thos. P. Sikes, W. I. Gore, Dr. W. W. Harris, J. W. Taylor, H. C. Evans, Charles L. Cowles, C. S. Love, D. L. Gore, J. T. McIver and F. Stolter.

Personal.

Col. I. J. Young, the Collector of Internal Revenue for the Raleigh district, was in the city yesterday. He left for his home this morning, bearing with him some of the products of our market which cannot be procured in Raleigh. He has been quite sick lately.

Maj. S. M. Finger, State Superintendent of Public Inspection, arrived in the city last night, and left this morning for Pender county where he goes to look after the land belong to the Educational Fund of the State.

Peanuts.

By an enactment of the last legislature the weight of a bushel of peanuts was fixed at 22 pounds. The standard weight was formerly 28 pounds to the bushel, and as the change in weight is not perhaps fully understood it would be well for buyers to be careful and not make themselves liable to the penalty of the law.

Marriage Bells.

Our good friend, Mr. J. W. S. Robinson, Representative in the Legislature from Sampson county, was happily married, on the 22d inst. to Miss Nettie Corbett, a beautiful and charming young lady of the Black River section. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Black, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. J. A. Corbett.

Mr. Edward F. Story, formerly of this city but now of Birmingham, Ala., where he has a position with Mr. Geo. C. Kelley, was married in that city, at the Church of the Advent, on the 22d inst. to Mrs. Margaret L. Chambers, of Mississippi. We tender to our old friend our most hearty wishes for a long and a happy life in his new estate.

The Boy Clipper Plow has earned a reputation of being the best ever used and are pronounced perfect by the best farmers. Sold wholesale and retail at the factory agency, JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Another.

Since our article about the Carolina Yacht Club was published in yesterday's issue, we learn that another fine new yacht will be added to the fleet at an early date. Mr. H. M. Bowen will be the owner and the yacht will be 16 feet 3 inches in length. This, with those already mentioned, will make a fleet of 27 yachts.

Locked Up.

A young Englishman, giving his name as A. Edwards, has been in this city nearly or quite three months, but his conduct has not been such as to make him a desirable citizen and we would be glad to learn of his departure. At times he has appeared as if mentally deranged and at other times he has seemed to be actuated by real "moral cussedness." His conduct has been so unbearable that he was arrested on Monday night at the Front Street M. E. Church and locked up until his case could be investigated.

Physicians in Council.

There was a meeting of the Pender County Board of Health held at Burgaw on Monday, the 27th inst., at which Doctors Alexander, Ennett, Lucas, Murphy, Porter, Powers, Satchwell and Sanders were present. Messrs. Alderman, Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, and Taylor, County Surveyor, were also in attendance. An election of officers was held which resulted in the reelection of Dr. W. C. Murphy as President of the Board by a unanimous vote. Dr. S. S. Satchwell was elected Superintendent of Health and Dr. K. J. Powers was elected Secretary of the Board.

Dr. George F. Lucas was requested to prepare a paper on cholera and Dr. R. T. Sanders a paper on drinking water; both papers to be read at the next regular meeting, which will be held on the 1st Monday in June.

The chair announced the following committees: On epidemics, Drs. Satchwell and Alexander; on vital statistics, Drs. Porter and Ennett; on sanitary inspection, Drs. Powers and Sanders.

Southern Baptist Convention.
The Southern Baptist Convention will meet at Augusta, Georgia, on Wednesday, May 6th, 1885. The convention sermon will be preached by Rev. J. L. M. Curry, D. D., LL. D., of Virginia.

We learn that Rev. Dr. Pritchard will attend the Convention, although the First Baptist Church has not yet selected any delegates for the occasion. They may be selected, however, at tomorrow night's meeting or even on Sunday and then be in season for attendance.

The convention was organized at Augusta, Ga., in 1845, and at this meeting, its fortieth anniversary, an historical sermon will be preached by Rev. J. L. Burrows, D. D., of Virginia. Before the organization of this body all the Baptists of the United States conducted their missionary operations through the agency of the Baptist Triennial Convention. The agitation of the salary question and the decision of the northern brethren not to appoint a slaveholder to the office of a foreign missionary, led to the withdrawal of the help of southern churches. The delegates appointed by the southern churches met in Augusta in May, 1885, and formed the Southern Baptist Convention. The convention is a missionary body composed of delegates from Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia and the Indian territory, and represents a constituency of 552 district associations, 13,573 churches, 7,432 ministers and 948,184 members. These are exclusively whites. The colored Baptists in these States number 832,250. There will be more than 500 delegates.

The Southern Baptist convention has two boards—the Foreign Mission board, located in Richmond, Va., and the Home Mission board, located in Atlanta, Ga. It has under its care, also, the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Ky., and the Sunday School paper, Kind Words, published at Macon, Ga. The Foreign Mission Board has 95 missionaries in China, Africa, Italy, Mexico and Brazil. The Home Mission board has 144 missionaries in several Southern States, especially in Texas and in the Indian Territory.

All in need of a Canary or Mocking Bird Cage, will do well to call at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot, and examine his large and fine stock.

Shop Lifters.

For sometime past some of the dry-goods dealers in this city have been missing articles from their stores which could not be accounted for in any legitimate way. Some of the articles missed were valuable and costly silks, satins and laces. It is now ascertained that they were stolen by a party of colored shoplifters who have been plying their vocation successfully for several weeks. Strong suspicion points to the guilty parties and steps have been taken to have the thieves brought to justice. The early morning hours have generally been selected as the time for their work and this fact has pointed strongly to four or five colored women who have made a practice recently of visiting the stores from which the goods have been stolen at that time of the day.

LATER—Since the above was written and in type, officer C. H. Strode, armed with a search warrant, made a raid upon the premises occupied by Mag. Fisher, colored, on Eighth street, between Brunswick and Hanover, where he found large quantities of stolen goods. He arrested Mag. Fisher and her daughter Sophy Fisher and took them to the Sheriff's office, with as much of the plunder as he could carry. These he left in charge of an officer and returned with a dray to receive the rest of the stolen property.

In the meantime many of the merchants and clerks in the dry-goods trade had assembled at the sheriff's office and a large portion of the first lot of goods were identified. When the dray returned with the second load there was considerable excitement and when the large bundle in which the goods were wrapped was opened there was an immediate identification of property by many of those present. The goods were of all kinds and qualities, from the most common calico to the finest silks and satins. Some of the property had the cost marks on so that they were easily identified, while other portions were in such shape that it was impossible to identify them. The property and marks showed that the houses of Messrs. M. M. Katz, John Taylor, J. Sanson, A. Shrier, B. Solomon, R. M. McIntire, H. H. Munson and Brown & Roddick had been made to suffer by these shoplifters.

These robberies have been committed by a party of six colored women, who have made a practice of visiting the different stores in the morning hours, when only one or two clerks were in attendance, so that they had a better opportunity for committing their depredations, with much less liability of detection. The women invariably wore shawls and carried baskets into which they could deposit their plunder where it could be concealed by the shawls. There are others of the gang who will probably be arrested to-day, and whose residences will probably when searched, show a much larger amount of plunder than has already been secured.

Ger. brig Epress, Voss, cleared today for Glasgow with 1,044 barrels tar and 1,650 barrels rosin, valued at $2-977.06, shipped by Messrs. Robinson & King.

Indications.

For the South Atlantic States, fair weather, winds generally Northerly shifting to East, generally higher barometer and slight change in temperature.
