"Wonderful Efficacy."

Some people are slow in telling what good things have been done for them, NO MORE EYE-GLASSES, but Mr. John P. Daly. of Gillisonville, S. C., says he takes great pleasure in testifying to the wonderful efficacy of Brown's Iron Bitters in dyspepsia, fever and ague, and general debility of the system. He has personally experienced the most satisfactory results from the use of this valuable medicine. Make memorandum of this, all ye whose systems are run down. Brown's Iron Bitters will cure you.

Nankin's Porcelain Tower. The city of Nankin, the capital of China, has for centuries been famous to the 'barbarians" of the outer world for on a bed of misery, its porcelain tower-a relic of the splenusurped its dignity as the seat of the bility. empire. The place is now to a great extent; a city of ruins, and the city cians. proper has shrunk to one-fourth of its former dimensions. The porcelain tower was built quite early in the fifteenth century, by the order of the Emperor Yung Loh, and as a work of filial piety. his mother, and he determined that its beauty should as far outshine that of irst National Bank of Wil- any similar memorial as the transcendent virtues of the parent, in her son's eyes, surpassed those of the rest of her sex. No expense was spared in its erection, and its total cost is estimated at more than three-fourths of a million of our own money. The work was commenced at noon on a certain day in 1413, and occupied nearly twenty years in its completion. The total height of the porcelain tower was more than 200 feet, or about equal to that of the monument of London, and it was faced New York & Wilmington from top to bottom with the finest porcelain, glazed and colored. It consisted of nine stories, surmonpted by a spire on the summit of which was a ball of brass, richly gilt. From this ball eight iron chains extended to as many projecting points of the roof, and from each chain was suspended a bell which hung over the face of the tower. The same arrangement was carried out in every story. The bells added much to the graceful appearance of the tower, breaking its otherwise formal and monotonous outline. Round the outer face of each FROM PIER 34, EAST RIVER, NEW YORK story were several apertures for fanterns, and when these were all illuminated, we are told, in the magniloquent language of the Chinese historian, that "their light illuminated the entire heavens, shining into the hearts of men, and eternally removing human misery." It is not difficult to imagine, Cashir however, that the appearance of the tower on such an occasion must have ysters. Cleveland and the Captain.

The new President has had his first experience with the typical Western steamboatman. Capt. Thomas Crumner, one of the veteran engineers on the Mississippi, called at the White House to present in person his application for a supervisorship of boilers in the New Orleans district. He was ac- week. companied and introduced by Representative Ellis. President Cleveland listened attentively and then asked: "Captain, are you a mechanical engineer and machinist?" "Yes, sir," responded the old captain, with the emphasis on the "sir." He then added, in in a burst of enthusiasm: 'I can build an engine that will pull me into this office." The President smiled and asked: 'About what power would you suggest,

Captain, for such an engine?" "Well said the engineer reflectively. 'when I left New Orleans I thought a two-borse power engine would pull me in, but since coming to Washington and talking with numerous other officeseekers. I have come to the conclusion that it will take a sixty-horse power." The President laughed outright, and when the visitors withdrew was still him greatly.

A WEEKLY JOURNAL OF TRADE, FI NANCE AND PUBLIC ECONO Y.

Sixteen Pages every Saturday. Oftentimes Twenty Pages. Sometimes Twenty. four Pages,

FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.

The feremost purpose of ERADSTREET is to be of practical service to business men. Its special trade and industrial reports; its weekly epitome of bankruptcies throughout the United States and Canada, and the summaries of assets and liabilities, are alone worth the subscription price; its synopses of recent legal decisions are exceedingly valuable. As com-mercial transactions, in the wider sense, are coming to be more and more conducted on a statistical basis, the information contained in BRADSTREET'S is of the first importance both to producers and middlemen.

The Trade and Agricultural Situation throughout the United States and Canada is reported by Telegraph to BEADSTREET'S up to the hour of publication
