Two years ago the whole State of over the cutting of wire fencing Now it is never heard of. This, according to the Dallas Herald, is the result of judicious legislation.

Twenty years have not sufficed to destroy the explosive qualities of shells which were used in the late war. For est fires have recently laid bare the old battlefields of the Wilderness, and many old shells have exploded.

The richest colored man in Philadelphia is John McKee, a real estate deals er, who is estimated to be worth between $200,000 and $300,000. There are two or three others in the same city whose fortunes run up into the hundred thousands.

The Mont Ventoux Observatory, near Avignon, in France, is in course of construction, and in a few weeks will be in working order. Its height is nearly 6,300 feet above the sea level, and the additional observatory, likewise in progres*, is 5,150 feet in height.

In a Washington street, Boston, window are five pairs of shoes which look as if they had been made for as many giants. They are thirteen inches long | week. by five inches wide, and are manufactured of stout pebble grain leather The order for them came from Nash- Dver's. ville, Tenn., and they are said to be intended for a mother and four daughters-

The Detroit Lancet describes the four pot. plans for reducing obesity: The eating of nothing containing starch, sugar or lat, called the Banting system; the eating of fat, but not sugar or starch, called the German Banting; the wearing of wool and sleeping in flannel blankets, instead of sheets, or the Munich system : not eating and Crinking at the same time, or, rather, the allowing a couple and drinking, the Schweninger system.

Some of the London manufacturers complain that the great Health Exhibition was by no means free assist vegetation. from the kind of charlatanism so often observed in such affairs. A filter manufacturer says that the- committee sent for several of their articles "to be tested." The awards were made, and -after seven months-the filters were returned. A little scientific examination of the machines revealed the jected to any test.

The immediate publication of the manuscript diary of Shakespeare's cousin the Town Clerk of Stratford-on-Avon, is announced. The diary extends from 1613 to 1616-the years of Shakespeare's residence at Stratford previous to his death on the 5th of May (April 23, O. S.) of the latter year .-From beginning to end it is a record of the attempts made to enclose, and of the resistance offered to the enclosure of, the common fields of Stratford, in which Shakespeare was interested, not only as a freeholder, but also as the owner of a moiety of the tithes.

At a recent meeting of the Boston Society for Medical Observation, Dr. Folsom cited the vital statistics of Massachusetts for forty years, as showing a decrease in the number of deaths from consumption in that State. Only about one-sixth of the total death rate is now caused by the disease. The Doctor thought physicians were too much inclined to give unfavorable prognostics in such cases, and he advised keeping patients quietly in one place, rather than shifting them about in search of a more favorable climate.

In a report upon the overcrowding of 26th and 27th inst. Dublin, Dr. Cameron points out certain of the disastrous results of the desertion of the city by wealthy families, who prefer to live abroad or in England. part turned into tenements for the poorest class of the population, huddled together with an appalling disregard of health or cleanliness. VOL. IX.

WILMINGTON, N. C. TUESDAY, MAY 12, 1885.

In the Clinical Record Dr. Holland relates that one of his lady patients once called on a "psychometric healer" who greatly impressed her by his pre-Texas was convulsed with excitement science in telling her she suffered from due to the fact that her liver was bound back to her diaphragm. The lady thought that only a man of diabolical insight could have discovered her symp. toms without an examination and she hastened nervously to her physician. There she was informed that almost every woman patient a doctor has is a sufferer from headache and sideache, and that she would be in a bad way indeed if her liver were not anchored in the manner stated by the charlatan

Memorial Day.

Our space will not permit us to publish the a imirable address of Mr. John S. Long, before the Ladies' Memorial Association at Oakdale yesterday, all though we would like much to do so, as it was a grand effort. Mr. Long is one of the most eloquent orators of North Carolina, and his address yesterdry was a masterpiece. It was more -it was an inspiration.

The day was just cool enough for comfort, and it was taken advantage of by a large number of our citizens. so that the attendance yesterday was unusually large-much larger than upon any recent precious occasion. Many ladies and gentlemen, with their children, started for the Cemetery long before the hour appointed for the procession to move, in order to see the beauties of the place at this charming season of the year, and also to obtain favorable positions for seeing and hearing before the throng should arrive. The Marshals having charge of the Confed erate lot and adjacent grounds had taken especial care that there should be no confusion and as little discomfort and advertised in the REVIEW. No pains inconvenience as possible, and in this good work they were entirely success-

All the exercises, as indicated in the published programme, were fully carried out without any accident or hitch to cause annoying delay. The efficient chief marshal, with his corps of aids, deserves much credit for the smoothness with which every part of the programme was conducted.

The instrumental music, by the Cornet Concert Cinb, was selected with much care, was entirely appropriate and was rendered in exquisite taste and with perfect precision. The Wilmington Light Infantry, under the command of Capt. Morrison, did escort duty with full ranks and the drill, precision and soldierly bearing of the men received, as they deserved, the unqualified praise of the people. The volley firing vas as nearly perfect as possible.

The vocal music was appropriate and was rendered with exquisite pathos by the accomplished choir who had volun teered for the occasion. The parts were well balanced, the voices blended ing's Northern bound train. in perfect harmony and the effect was subdued, yet grand.

The floral decorations were unusu. ally beautiful and attractive, besides being abundant in quality, and the work of decorating the mound was one of the most impressive and touching exercises of the day. In this duty, which came more especially under the charge and direction of the Ladies Memorial Association, there was a solemnity in paying tearful as well as floral tributes to the sacred memory of tallen heroes which deeply impresed the assembled multitude.

Interesting Meetings.

A series of meetings are in progress at Brooklyn Hall, which have thus far been blessed with happy results and are quite interesting. The services are conducted only at night, but they are well attended. The exercises begin promptly at 8 o'clock every night and will be continued through this week and probably longer.

First of the Season.

The teachers and scholars of St. Thomas' Sunday School will inaugarate the exeursion season by an excursion to Lake Waccamow on the 20th inst, North Carolina's Independence Day. They will charter the train and are making elaborate preparations for a good time on that occasion.

Postponement.

Mr. E. W. Kerr, one of the Directors of the Wilmington, Clinton & Point Caswell R. R, writes us to say that the meeting of the Board which was announced for to-day, Tuesday, has been postponed until next Tuesday, the 19th. at which time he hopes that all of the Directors from this city will be present. Mr. Kerr adds:

This will be a very important meeting, and a strong effort will be made then to put new life in the road. As a local feeder the people of Wilmington ought to take a deep interest in this road. If we will all make one more 'long pull, a strong pull and a pull all together," we can build the road.
