The extraordinary attendance at the Queen's drawing room on the 13th gives point to the complaints of London tradesmen that her absenting herself is rainous to trade. The crowd at the drawing room was due to her personal presence.

The remains of Alexander H. Stephens are soon to be placed in a vault on the grounds of his old home, Liberty Hall. The place has been purchased by a memorial association. General Toombs will deliveran oration at the reinterment.

The election of Mr. Sinclair, a Presbyterian Liberal, for Antrim county, Ireland, has excited universal surprise. The idea of his being elected was spe cially scouted by the Parnellite party. He is the first Liberal returned for that county for a number of years, and defeated the eldest son of Lord O'Neill, a great Tory magnate of the North,

The President's policy toward maimed Union veterans is to retain in office those he finds there as long as they perform their duties creditably. He has informed Col. Roosevelt, of Pennsylvania, who lost a leg in the Union army, that he need not apprehend removal from the office of consul, which he now holds at Bordeaux, as long as he attends properly to his business.

A house at Schenectady was for a long time infested by roaches and water bugs. Last fall a servant, hearing that toads were an antidote, caught three every day. ordinary hop toads and put them in the kitchen. Not a foach or water bug can now be found in the house. The toads become domesticated, never wander about the house, and are so cleanly and inoffensive that there is no objection to their presence.

The New York correspondent of the Virginia Medical Monthly relates that on personal inquiry at forty of our drug stornes he learned of 289 cases of the opium habit. Three fourths of the habitues were found to be women, and many of these were not of good character. Morphia was the form of opium most largely called for, and some of the victims used sixty grains a day-enough to kill thirty people.

Trinity Sunday.

To-morrow is known in the Church Calender as Trinity Sunday. St. John, the beloved disciple, says (in the Saviour's words) "There are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word and the Holy Ghost, and these three are One." and in another place He commanded his disciples to baptise all nations "in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Gnost," and on these two sayings the doctrine of a Triune God is principally based. There are 25 Sundays after
