THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10, 1885. NO. 134.

PLEASE NOTICE. We will be glad to receive communication from our friends on any and all subjects, general interest but the name of the writer must always be attached to the Editor. Communications must be written on one side of the paper. Personalities must be avoided. And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.

The work of improving the Fifth Street M. E. Church has been somewhat retarded in consequence of the delay in furnishing the necessary lumber as fast as required.

At a very small cost, you can get your old shirts repaired, and made as well as new again at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market street, J. ELSEBACH, Prop.

Guy Wright's band made some inspiring music upon our streets this forenoon, calling attention to the fact of the match game of base ball between the Seaside and Durhams this afternoon.

The baggage of the Standard Dramatic Company has arrived and the troupe will play at the Opera House to-night. "Under the Gaslight" will be the piece which will be presented.

The Zanesville, Ohio, Family Herald, the organ of the Independent Order of Rechabites, gives a glowing account of the recent High Tent meeting in this city and has many kind words for our city and her people.

Does anybody know how many base ball nines there are in this city? It seems to us that every male between 10 and 20 years of age, both white and colored, belongs to some nine. There are other ballists, of more tender years.

Goldboro proposes to have a regular old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration, in which, among other features of interest, it is proposed to have a prize contest of fire companies, and to this end they will invite the firemen of Wilmington, Raleigh and Newbern.

The two new yachts which arrived on the Regulator yesterday from New York are indeed beauties, and look as if they might sail like the wind. They have drawn a good deal of attention during the day to where they were stored in the steamer's sheds, at the foot of Chestnut street.

Steamboatmen report that the water in the Cape Fear is quite low. The rains which have been frequent in this vicinity and in Pender and Sampson counties have not extended to the Cape Fear region in such quantities as to materially affect the volume of water.

Notwithstanding the unfavorable appearance of the weather, quite a large party of ladies and gentlemen went down the river on the Passport this morning with the excursion of the Germania Band. Just before starting the band played several pieces, which, considering the time the members have had for practice, were remarkably well rendered.

Ex-Attorney-General Thomas S. Kenan is in the city, the guest of his brother, Capt. W. R. Kenan. Mayor Hall has gone to Burgaw today where he will deliver an address at the reunion of Co. K., of the Third North Carolina Infantry.

Military. The Wilmington Light Infantry now numbers about 75 men, rank and file, but they do not propose to be satisfied until the number reaches the maximum of 100. Its prospects are certainly good for this number, and we are glad to know that its present number consists of some of our best and most worthy young men, who give character as well as efficiency to the corps.

The Pictures. We were shown to-day two photographs, one representing Cliverius, convicted of the murder of Fannie Lillian Madison, and the other representing the unfortunate girl. The picture of the former shows a rather prepossessing and quite juvenile face, in which there is nothing to indicate a criminal, while the picture of the girl looks as if she were older by two or three years than her alleged murderer.

Dr. Warren's Book. Dr. Edward Warner's book, "A Doctor's Experience in Three Continents" will be issued in August. This work is really a biography and is a succinct history of a career which has been illustrated by many stirring incidents, thrilling adventures and striking vicissitudes of fortune, and in which, under the domination of a strange but imperious destiny, the role of a country doctor has been transformed into that of a Professor, the Surgeon General of the Confederate States and a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor, and the scene of labor transformed from the swamps of North Carolina to the shores of the Chesapeake, the banks of the Nile and the quarters of the Seine. Dr. T. J. Boykin, of Baltimore, will receive subscriptions.

Art Exhibition. Many and nimble fingers were busy at work to-day at Vollers' Hall in preparing for the Art Loan Exhibition and Promenade Concert for the benefit of St. James' churchyard, which will commence at half past 7 o'clock to-night. The articles to be exhibited were nearly all in the Hall, and the main portion of them had been placed in positions where they could be the best observed, and the ladies and gentlemen present were busy in arranging the details for the occasion by the aid of tapestry and other adornments.

To describe the interior of the Hall and all the articles of beauty, value and historic interest would take a space much larger than that at our command, and consequently we must content ourselves with a general description of what we saw, with a brief notice of some of the most important features of the Exhibition.

The walls upon three sides of the Hall are hung with paintings, some of which are copies from the old masters and some are original paintings. Among the latter is a fine painting by Rembrandt, two by Titians and one by Messonier, the property of Mr. Wm. Latimer. There are also portraits of Bishop Ravenscroft, Bishop Atkinson, and one of George Washington, painted by an artist who came to this country with the Marquis De LaFayette. There are many beautiful paintings and among them is a crucifix painted more than 200 years ago. This is the property of Mr. George W. Kidder. A painting representing Spanish Students, owned also by Mr. Kidder, a painting of a flock of sheep, owned by Mr. Wm. Latimer; Magdalen, a copy from Titian, besides many others of rare beauty and merit are worthy of mention.

In the central portion of the Hall is a most unique and ornate service table from the Tuilleries when that palace was occupied by Louis XVI. There is also a large vase from the same place and of the same period, which is a most magnificent article and is of great value on account of the historic interest which attaches to it. The table and vase are the property of Mr. Wm. Latimer, by whom they are contributed. There is also near the centre of the Hall a "Milton Shield," an exact copy from the original in South Kensington Museum, London. This is also contributed by Mr. Wm. Latimer. La Cigale, an exquisite statuette in marble, is very attractive.

Mrs. James Sprunt contributes three very handsome screen paintings of her own handwork and of which she has good reason to be justly proud. A tete-a-tete set, once the property of the beautiful but unfortunate Marie Antoinette, is a most elegant work of art and is invaluable on account of the sad historic interest with which it is surrounded. There is also an autograph letter of George Washington, in an excellent state of preservation, dated Williamsburgh, Va., May 5th, 1765, and bearing his signature.

One of the features of peculiar interest and intrinsic value is a gold watch and chataine, made in 1659, formerly belonging to Lady Dalrymple, but now the property of Dr. E. A. Anderson. Near these is a miniature portrait of Gabriel Johnson, the first Royal Governor of North Carolina, now the property of Mrs. Jane Iredell Meares, while in another place, near the centre of the Hall, is a small table made from the wood of the house in which Shakespeare was born, and upon the top of the table is inlaid a representation of the house itself, done in a very artistic manner, and in a vase is a block of the wood of his celebrated house upon Stratford-on-Avon. These are the property of Mrs. H. Webb, by whom they were contributed. A plate, once the property of Napoleon III, is contributed by Mrs. George Kidder. An ivory clock case which took a prize at the first London Exhibition, and which is an excellent piece of workmanship, is contributed by Mrs. H. Webb. Among other things we noticed miniature portraits of Capt. Clapp, who was the first minister from the United States to Spain, and his wife.

Mr. John Kilham, of this city, contributes several very fine pictures painted by himself, and his wife contributes a case of art needle work which is very fine.

In the above we have given but a faint idea of all the objects of interest and value with which the large hall is filled, but we trust that we have been successful in naming a few of such importance as to receive the attention of our people. There are things curious and almost innumerable to which we would gladly call attention did space permit. There are birds, Scottish daggers, whose handles are set with precious stones, a statuette of Cupid cut from a single block of marble and many other things of rare beauty and historic interest which none can fully imagine or appreciate unless by a personal observation. We had but little idea that so many rare and exquisitely beautiful objects were in the city and we believe that there are many others who are as ignorant in the matter as we were. It is an exhibition of which the promoters may well be proud and one which every citizen of Wilmington should witness.

Board of Aldermen. A called meeting of the Board was held yesterday afternoon; present, His Honor, Mayor Hall, and Aldermen Worth, Boney, Bear, Dudley, Giles, Darby, Doscher and Rourke.

The committee on Markets and Fees, to whom was referred a proposed amendment to the market ordinance, submitted the following and recommended its adoption:

Be it Ordained, That it shall and may be lawful from and after the hour of 4 o'clock in the afternoon for farmers and producers to drive about the streets and sell from their carts all manner of green vegetables and farm products to consumers or other persons. This ordinance shall not extend to the sale of fresh meats, and nothing in this ordinance shall conflict with the ordinance against the sale of green vegetables or farm products now contained in the general market ordinance.

Be it ordained that all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed. Passed.

The Market Committee was authorized to rent a stall in the Front Street Market House to J. W. Taylor for the sale of dried fish.

The Market Committee, to whom was referred the application of B. H. J. Ahrens to erect a refrigerator in the Front street market house, reported, recommending that the petition be granted for the term of five years, he paying for the same the amount established by the market law two years ago for the rent of the stall to be occupied.

A petition from Messrs. W. E. Worth & Co., asking to be allowed to erect a refrigerator in the Front street market house, was read; when, on motion of Alderman Bear, the whole matter was referred back to the committee to report at the next meeting.

The committee on Streets and Wharves, to whom was referred the petition of certain merchants for the use of two feet of sidewalks for the exhibit of their goods, reported, recommending the adoption of the following:

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Wilmington: That section 5, sub-division 1, Article XII, of the General Ordinances of the city, entitled "Streets and Sidewalks," be amended so as to read as follows: No person shall place in any street, nor upon any sidewalk of the city, beyond the space of two feet next adjoining and in front of his place of business, any boxes, casks, crates, merchandise, or other obstructions; provided, however, that building material, earth, and other obstructions of like character, may, by permission of the Mayor in writing, be allowed under such restrictions as he may impose. Provided, that nothing therein contained shall prevent any person from loading or unloading any wagon, cart or dray, at any house, warehouse or store. And provided, further, that it shall not be lawful to place any obstructions aforesaid on the sidewalk of an alley, or upon any sidewalk whatever where the same is less than ten feet in width, or upon the west side of Front street, between Dock and Orange streets.

Every person offending against any of these provisions shall forfeit and pay twenty-five dollars for each and every offence, and a like sum for each and every day that such obstruction or obstructions are permitted to remain.

Provided, That the use of the two feet provided for shall not permit the use of the said two feet after dark and between dark and daylight.

Alderman Bear offered the following amendment, which was lost: Provided, That nothing in this ordinance shall be so construed as to prevent the authorities from causing to be removed anything that shall be deemed an obstruction.

Mayor Hall advocated the adoption of the report of the committee. The report of the committee was then adopted.

The Mayor stated that there was a vacancy on the police force, when, on motion of Alderman Worth, D. S. Bender was elected to fill the same.

On motion, the Board then adjourned.

Postponed. The indications for stormy weather to-morrow are such that the excursion to the ladies of Front Street M. E. Church is postponed till next week.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS: Mosquito Net! WHITE BAR NET, LACE NET. All widths and grades just received, and at lowest figures. All-Over Laces and Embroidery with edges to match. Masonic. At a meeting of St. John's Lodge No. 1, A. F. & A. M., held last night, interesting addresses were made by F. H. Busbee, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, Deputy Grand Master C. H. Robinson, and Past Deputy Grand Masters J. C. L. Gudger and Thomas S. Kenan.

Arm, ye Brave! Our basement neighbor, Mr. I. Shrier, has taken a new method to draw attention to his store, by having a post erected in front of his door on the edge of the sidewalk, at the top of which is a large gilt covered arm and hand pointing towards the door. Upon the side of the arm is the legend I. Shrier in black letters and the extended finger of the hand is pointed in a menacing manner to one of his good looking clerks.

Indications. For the South Atlantic States, local rains, followed by fair, warmer weather, except in the extreme Southern portion, where the temperature will remain nearly stationary. Easterly winds.

The Leading Clothier. So positively certain are we that low prices has won for us the enviable reputation we enjoy of being the leading clothing house of Wilmington, that we intend to keep right on in the old way giving the people the best value and the best made goods for the least money. We do and can afford to sell cheaper than any other house in the city, and we make the same liberal offer to every body: if any article bought of us is not, exactly as represented, or is in any respect unsatisfactory it may be exchanged or we will promptly refund in cash the price paid for it. Examine our goods at your homes, compare their quality and price with goods from other stores and you will see why our trade continues to grow and prosper. SHRIER, The Old Reliable Clothier, 114 Market street.

Now is the season for painting your houses. Go to JACOB'S Hardware Depot and buy your paints, if you want to save money.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT. At a meeting of the undersigned employees of Messrs. J. J. Rowland & Bro., the following preamble and resolutions were adopted: WHEREAS, On the second day of June, 1885, our God in His sovereignty saw proper to remove, by death, from our midst Mr. J. J. Rowland, in the 33rd year of his life, there fore be it Resolved, That we bow in humble submission to the Divine will of this most sad dispensation of Providence. That in his death we realize that we have lost a kind and generous friend, the community a good, enterprising and valuable citizen and the church a zealous member and efficient officer. That we do most cordially sympathize with the bereaved family in their affliction and commend them to the Father of all consolation and comfort. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family and also to the Wilmington Daily Review, Charleston News and Courier and Henderson's Gold Leaf, for publication.

There was no City Court this morning. It was decidedly cool last night and this morning. Tomorrow is known in the Church Calendar as St. Barnabas' Day. Huckleberries were offered in market this morning at 40 cents per peck. No canteloupes in market yet, but this time last year we had watermelons. The almanac promises fair weather for Friday. The moon will change on that day. Thieves made a raid on the chicken coop of the city hospital last night and stole 13 chickens. Base Ball, and Summer underwear together. Get the latter from Dyer, who has a fine line. The Durham Base Ball Club arrived in the city this morning from Raleigh, where they played yesterday. Smithville must be a very quiet, orderly, good town, as we can seldom get an item of news from that burgh. Don't forget that the Standard Dramatic Company make their first appearance at the Opera House this evening. At 3 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer in this office registered 74 degrees, which is two degrees below Summer heat. It was cool enough for blankets this morning and the Northeasterly winds and the rain have kept the atmosphere cool to-day. The match game of base ball at Raleigh yesterday between the home club and the Durhams resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 11 to 6 for the latter. Nor. brig Akor, Lahum, cleared today for London with 1,000 casks spirits turpentine and 947 barrels rosin, valued at $17,775, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co. Our thanks are due for an invitation to attend an exhibition given by Miss Annie Hart's pupils, which was originally intended for to-night, but which has been postponed until to-morrow night on account of the inclement weather.

OPERA HOUSE. Standard Dramatic Comp'y. Brass Band & Orchestra. SIX NIGHTS AND SATURDAY MATINEE. Commencing WEDNESDAY, June 10, 1885, in the beautiful Drama UNDER THE GASLIGHT.
