I Tilden and President Cleveland are both subscribers to the fund for the erection of a monument to the memory of the poet Bryant.

Fitteen years ago the net forest revenue of British India was $250,000. Now it is $2,000,000. Forest culture has brought about the change.

Grand Rapids, Mich., has 30,900 population and five daily newspapers. The city would afford two a good , livingrone could make a good deal of Ex-Senator Thurman is said to have learned French in his boyhood from a little French girl who was his playmate. She was a poor half orphan, and was takes into the Thurman household with that very end in view.

Col. Lamont denies the rumor that the President has accepted Angust Belmont's invitation to spend two weeks with him at his Newport home.

One of the cutest of A. B. C. books is the "Household Primer." Each large letter has an amusing picture and a pretty verse. The whole is daintly printed in brown; and, best of all, is mailed free by D. Lothrop & Co. Boston, on receipt of a 2-cent stamp.

President Grevy, of France, likes often to return to his country home. He is of medium height, with broad shoulders and a solid, well-proportioned body. He enjoys outdoor exercise, and his excellent physical condition gives evidence of the fact. His face is strong and intelligent.

A preliminary British company has just been tormed with a capital of $100,000 to make geological investiga tions, engineering plans and estimates for a railway tunnel between Great Britain and Ireland. It seems to be assumed that the cost of the tunnel would be $30,000,000.

la Paris the average longevity of newspapers is about the same as that of men. The Press, founded by Emile de Girardin in 1836, has just died in what is considered a green old age .-The Patrie was established in 1841; the Debats and Constitutionel are still older; but the oldest of all is the Gazette de France, which first saw the light in the reign of Louis XIV.

Everett P. Wheeler and Frederick Whitridge, of New York, counsel of the National Civil Service League, have written to the postmaster-general requesting the removal of certain postmasters in different parts of the country for violation of Sections 11 and 12 of the civil service law. These sections forbid the solicitation of political subscriptions in Federal offices. The letter is accompanied by affidavits supporting the allegations, which will be investigated.

Dr. Wormley, in a recent work, concludes, as the result of a most searching study of the bloods of forty mam mals, that a microscope may enable us to determine with great certainty that a blood is not of a certain animal, and is consistent with the blood of man; but in no instance does it in itself enable us to say that the blood is really human or indicate from what particular species of animal it was derived." The statement has a high medico-legal importance. ..

The United States has more than three times as many miles of telegraph lines, double the number of telegraph offices and forwards twice as many telegrams annually as any other country on the globe. The figures for the United States are: Length of line. 163,940 miles; number of offices, 14,-402; messages sent last year, 57,942,247. Russia comes next in the miles of line, with 53,736, but it is far behind in number of offices and telegrams sent .-France, Germany, Austria and Australia rank ahead of Great Britain in miles

THE DAILY REVIEW:

VOL. IX.

WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, JUNE 16, 1885.

The practical annihilation of time by the electric telegraph receives a striking illustration in the statement that the message announcing the winner of the ing, which was settled. Derbr was transmitted from London to New York in three seconds, or, roughly speaking, a second for every piece of rope, but, as there was no one 1,000 miles.

Willard Perkins, ex-president of the Fat Men's Association of Waterbury, Conn., has applied for a divorce from cording to his complaint, she hurls all manner of kitchen utensils at him, and, being physically unable to dodge them. he claims a divorce.
