The projected new bridge over the Tiber is to be commenced immediately. It will span the river at the point known as the Orso, where the ancient inn of that name is still standing. It was at this house that Montaigne lodged when he was in Rame.

France will spend nearly $7,000,000 on her mayy this year. Among the vessels now being built are the Brenus, 10 520 tons; the Hoche, 10,600 tons; the Neptune, 10,600 tons; the Magenta and the Marceau, each 10,600 tons, and the Requip, 7,200 tons. These are to be war ships worthy of the name.

When a chief dies in Sitka his wives pass to his next heir, and unless these reliets purchase their freedom with blankets, they are united to their grandson or nephew as a matter of course. High-strung young Siwashes sometimes scorn these legacies, and then there is war, all the widows resenting such an outrage of decency and established etiquette.

The Louisiana sugar planters report prospects of a good season. There are over 1,200 industrial establishments dependent on the sugar crop in the Pelican State and not less than 500,000 people are directly concerned in this indus' try from the planting of the cane to the exportation of the refined product.

Whichever party rules England hereafter, it is evident that its lease of power will largely depend on the humors and caprices of the 2,000,000 voters who have lately been added to the roll Even before these men have appeared at the polls their influence has made itself felt in the vote of the Commons against the Gladstone Budget:

The German Government has discharged all women who were employed in its postal, telegraph and railway service as clerks and in other capaci ties. As during the last twenty years they nearly monopolized such service in some towrs, much suffering has ensued among the discharged. The molive alleged is that women are unfit for such public service.

The Dogs.

There was a good deal of anxiety this morning at the City Hall to know at what hour the cart would come in with the captured dogs. Several boys were among the inquiring crowd and when told that it would not arrive until 11 o'clock, they seated themselves to wait and see if their favorite "purps" had been captured.

To Be Regretted.

It is to be regretted that the members of the Press Association did not make some regular and official notification of their intention to visit this section, so that the citizens of Wilmington might have extended to them some countesy and hospitality. We have heard several prominent gentlemen voice this regret. As it is, Wilmington is not the managed to unlock the door of the coop lastantly clearing 4,000 acres of cane of point at which they aimed, but Smiththis nuisance. It was truly interesting and brother firemen of Charlotte? instructive to listen to the touching incidents related by old comrades, one to another, and note the brotherly and sympathetic feeling which seemed to pervade and bind together the survivors of that gallant old company.

At 12 o'clock the visitors, with Co K, assembled in the Courthouse to hear an oration, full of impressive pathetic and eloquent sentiments from the silver-tongued Colonel that tried men's souls" "had buckled on his armor and bared his bosom to the front of war," 'neath the stars and bars, and as a soldier upon whose escutcheon no dishonor ever rested he spoke in burning elequence to his comrades, held There were two cases of failure to in rapt attention his large and appreciative audience and withal paid fitting tribute to the gallant Co. which will go down to ages to come as having fired the last guns of the war; and few men could have, on that occasion, uttered sentiments so touching and so inpiring to the remnant of that gallant command.

Having dined, Co. K returned to the Court House and on motion Captain Kinchen Powers was made permanent Chairman and Dr. R. T. Sanders elected Secretary of the Company. John W. Rowe being called out arose and made some very appropriate remarks referred with commendand zeal to the arms in defense of his country. At the close of his remarks and on motion of Mr. John W. Rowe the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That Co. K tender to the General Assembly of North Carolina their hearty and sincere thanks for the Winston Twin City Daily; J. H. Lindmemory in which their dead comrades say, Kernersville News; J. H. Kernare held, as well as the living, by the ville, Graham Gleaner; J. W. Hicks passage of a humane act entitled "An act for the relief of certain soldiers of the late war between the States."

It was further resolved that Co. K hold their next annual meeting at South Washington and that everybody with aunts be invited to attend. And now, while we shed a tear in memory of the brave boys who have passed "over the river," let us bestow a smile upon those who are still left with us for the noble part they bore in the late memorable struggle.

Political.

A preliminary meeting or caucus of members of the Democratic party of the city was held at the Court House last night, at which Mr. H. McL. Green was made chairman and Mr. E. F. Handbills were out yesterday stating Johnson was appointed secretary. The that the steamer Blanche would leave object of the meeting as near as we now apparent, it is claimed, from the ion, the meeting adjourned to meet again at some future time. The next meeting will probably take place next Friday night, the 19th inst, at the same place.

Opera House.

There was a large andience at the Opera House last night to witness the rendition of "Hazel Kirke" by the Standard Dramatic Company, and all were very much pleased with the performance and manifested their appreciation by frequent rounds of applause There was some trouble with the drop scene, which was the cause of a short delay, and there were one or two hitches in the performance, but these were so slight as to be hardly noticeable and were not in the least annoying to the Fayetteville, via C C Railroad, daily, good natured audience. The acting was generally good, and it was a first rate performance for the money expended. The company will remain here during the remainder of the week, and will present the "Two Orphans' for to-night's entertainment. Square Dealing

Is the foundation that we built our business on when first started, and it has at all times been our compass in the storms, squalls and business hurricanes as in the calms, in the past fitteen years, never fearing the result, and why shall we? Well knowing that by giving one hundred cents value in return for every dollar we receive, we shall retain our well-carned patronage. No houses will or can do more, as no house can exist without a profit, and none can do business on less profit than the Old Reliable. Believing this, our aim is to keep on the truth-telling and truth-selling basis, so that the name of SHRIER will be synogymous of square dealing. See us before buying. Rethe money will be refunded.
