THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. SATURDAY, JUNE 20, 1885. NO. 143.

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Senator Vance is recovering from an operation for the removal of a tumor from his neck.

It is announced that Mr. Eudicott, the Secretary of War under President Cleveland, is writing a novel.

Every Wednesday the doors of Secretary Lamar's office are thrown open and whoever will may come. Crowds usually gather.

Edward Strauss, the youngest of the three brothers, is with his band in London. He is to play for a month at the International Exhibition for a fee of $30,000.

The death is announced in New York of Robert White Butler, said to have been the first manager of any American variety theatre. He was but thirty-eight years old and surrendered to consumption.

Manatwa, an old colored woman living in Brunswick county, Ga., is the mother of 12 children, the youngest of whom has children of her own. She presented her husband with twins on a separate occasion.

A recent report of the French Minister of Public Instruction shows that in January last 23,222 schools had a school savings bank, and that 488,624 schoolboys were depositors in these banks, and possessed there the sum total of $255,046 francs.

Miss Cleveland has received from her publishers in New York the announcement that the first edition of her book, now in press, has proved insufficient to meet the advance orders for the trade and a second edition has been ordered.

A Brooklyn church retains in fellowship a man whose reputation is so bad that the courts have decided that he cannot recover damages for defamation of character, and a Harlem congregation is edited by the exhortations in a convicted pickpocket.

According to the President's message sent to the Callan Congress the National Treasury has a surplus of 14-10,000 piastres, besides an extraordinary redemption fund of 350,000 piastres.
The national expenses last year fell within the estimate to the amount of 1,000,000 piastres.

The plunger of the race courses of Kentucky is called Jack. No one knows his name. He came several times ago to the turf exchange there, obtained employment, studied horses, and accumulated a great deal of money.
He won $15,000 or $20,000 on the Louisville and Nashville races.

Steve Elkins was in Cincinnati a few days ago and fell into the clutches of a porter. Steve says he has had all the notoriety needed in a life time. "I am a warm friend of Mr. Blaine's and of course was most enthusiastic in working for him. I would hardly care make such exertions again."

The local laws of the District of Columbia relative to taxes upon commercial travellers are enormous, two hundred dollars being charged for each traveller. To avoid this a New York agency has rented a house in Washington, expecting that one license will cover several agents. The District authorities will probably test the legality of this action.

Charles Fitzpatrick and F. X. Le Goux, of Quebec, have been definitely retained to defend Riel in Regi-man interview they said that they would undertake the defence if sufficient funds be provided to cover the expenses of the witnesses and to enable them to get such information as is required to defend such an important case. They would not make known what they will set up, but it will be no less than that of insanity.

Physical laziness is a thing of the past at West Point, but a new man has to do up with considerable gauding during the first few weeks of camp life, which begins in July. He plays a part much like that in a big boarding school, winning other men's guns, carrying other men's water and submitting without a murmur to other men's chaff. If a new man proves that he is made of stout stuff and resents an imposition with an occasional knock-down, he is into smooth water by the time the boys go back to barracks in September.

Claverius was yesterday sentenced to be hung for the murder of Fanny Lillian Madison. The day fixed is Friday, Nov. 20th. The Supreme Court, to which Claverius has appealed for a new trial, meets on the first of the month.
When asked what he had to say why sentence of death should not be pronounced upon him Claverius merely replied, "I will say, sir, that you are pronouncing death on an innocent man. That is all I have to say, sir." The prisoner was long ago pronounced guilty by the Richmond papers and the Richmond people and the fact that there has been no evidence whatever produced to prove that a murder was committed at all is merely a side issue and an insignificant fact.
It is curious, though, how the Richmond papers succeed in manufacturing opinions for some of the North Carolina newspapers.

banker of Norfolk, Va., and brother to of the banking house of Burruss, Son & Co., and his death was quite sudden.

For Charity's Sake.

The match game of base ball between the "Sea Gulls and the "Benevolent Nine," which was suspended on Wednesday afternoon at the close of the fourth inning on account of the rain, will be resumed next Tuesday afternoon and played to a finish. As the object for which the game is played is entirely charitable, the receipts being for the benefit of the Ladies Benevolent Society, and as lots of fun may be expected, it is hoped that there may be a large attendance.

No Race.

A challenge has been sent to the wheelmen of this city from Charlotte for a bicycle race between any member of our home team and Maxwell, who is the Charlotte Champion, the distance to be eight miles and the Wilmington bicyclist to have a half mile the start.
The only place in this vicinity where such a race could be run is upon the turnpike between here and Wrightsville, but as the turnpike officials have refused permission for the use of the road for such a purpose, the challenge had to be declined, otherwise it would have been gladly accepted.

Personal.

Mr. James W. Monroe, of this city, was registered at the Central Hotel in Charlotte, on Thursday.

Mayor Hall left the city last night on the Carolina Central train for Wadesboro. He expects to return to-morrow morning.

Mr. Frank B. Lippitt, son of Mr.
John E. Lippitt, of this city, is now residing in Ocala, Fla., where he is conducting a family grocery business in connection with a Mr. Whitney, the firm being known as Whitney & Lippitt.
We notice that they advertise largely in the Ocala Item.

City Court.

In the absence of Mayor Hall from the city, Alderman Bear, Mayor pro tem., presided at the City Court this morning.

Lewis Hicks, colored, charged with resisting a police officer while in the discharge of his duty, was the first case for consideration. The evidence showed that the case was of a very aggravated nature, in consequence of which the defendant was required to pay a fine of $50 or go below for 30 days.

Sam Larkins and Alex. Howe, two colored boys, for disorderly conduct in fighting at Front Street Market, were sent below for two days each.

Harry Blount, another disorderly colored boy, was also sent below for two days.

Albert Sawyer, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was discharged.

Democratic Meeting.

In accordance with announcement there was a meeting of Democratic citizens held at the Court House last night. Mr. S. G. Hall was elected Chairman of the meeting with Mr. E.
F. Johnson as Secretary. The following preamble and resolutions were adopted unanimously:

WHEREAS, The efforts of the Democracy of the United States, in November last, were crowned with success, by the election of their candidates for the positions of President and Vice President, and their subsequent inauguration on the 4th of March last;

Resolved, That to all Democrats who, by their votes and work, were instrumental in bringing about this long sought for and much needed change, it is a source of great pleasure to know that the Administration is daily removing the Republican officeholders, and filling their places with good Democrats; and to the Democracy of the South it gives unbounded pleasure to see the Republican officeholder, who was a willing tool of a corrupt administration, vacate his office for the benefit of honest men thoroughly identified with the business interests of the community in which they live.

Resolved, That inasmuch as at no time in the history of the party in this section have the masses of the whites taken as much interest, or devoted as much time, and been as vigilant to prevent fraud at the ballot box as during this campaign, that chiefly to the laboring men is due the credit of the large vote polled; and that if, at any time, this vote should be reduced, it will be caused by apathy or disaffection on their part; therefore

Resolved, That a just distribution of the Federal patronage is demanded as necessary to the best interests and harmony of the party, and that its promises, made from time to time, of an equitable distribution of the offices, with a proper recognition of the services of the rank and file of the Democracy, should be honestly adhered to.

Resolved, moreover, That as great dissatisfaction is caused by the rumors industriously circulated of the handicapping of the probable heads of the departments in this city, which rumors we are loth to believe, we are of the opinion that the heads of the Federal departments in this city give bond sufficient to entitle them to appoint, without dictation from any one, all of the subordinates, as they are better qualified to judge of the merits of the different applicants, and we believe that there are a sufficient number of intelligent, competent and good Democrats to fill all of these places without drawing on any outside of our district.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to our Senators and Representatives, and be published in our daily papers.

The Boy Clipper Plow has earned a reputation of being the best ever used and are pronounced perfect by the best

Rechabites.

Harmony Tent No. 139, Independent Order of Rechabites, was instituted at Temperance Hall last night by District Deputy T. S. Tolar, and the following officers were elected:

C. R.—W. M. Hays.
D. R.—J. W. Guthrie.
Shep.—Samuel Hall.
P. C. R.—H. Woodcock.
R. S.—E. G. Robbins.
F. S.—J. H. Smith.
Treas.—J. H. Jones.
Levite—T. Schraeder.
O. G.—E. C. Wood.

This leaves one office still vacant, which will be filled at the next meeting. The Tent will meet regularly hereafter at Temperance Hall on every Friday night.

Opera House.

The largest audience which has yet been present at the Opera House during the engagement of the Standard Dramatic Company assembled last night to witness the drama of "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." The play is old and has been upon the boards and drawn crowded houses for many years, yet its interest remains, and it was presented last night in excellent shape and the actors were frequently applauded for the faithful rendition of the different characters. To-night "East Lynne" will be the attraction, which closes the engagement of the company, as they will leave on to-night's boat for Fayetteville.

Bible Work.

At a meeting of the New Hanover Bible Society, held on the 19th inst., Mr. J. M. Elder, colporteur of the Society, made the following report of the work done by him during the past month:

Families visited 217 white, 946 colored, total 1,163; families without the Bible 19 white, 96 colored, total 115; destitute families supplied, 18 white, 70 colored, total 88; individuals supplied, 12 white, 16 colored, total 28; number of books sold 144; donated, 49.

Mr. Elder will continue his canvass of the city and arrangements will shortly be made for a union meeting of the several Evangelical Churches of the city, in the interest of the Bible cause.

Base Ball.

The last match game of base ball between the Palmettos, of Marion, S. C., and the Seaside, of this city, came off at the grounds of the latter yesterday afternoon. In consequence of the close game of the day before, when the Seaside won by a score of 3 to 2, it was thought that yesterday's game would be in much doubt, and a large crowd of people went out to see the contest. Many of them, however, were much disappointed as the home team had a comparative walk over, the victory being awarded to them by a score of 29 to 5.

The Palmettos left last night for their homes, very much pleased with the kindness with which they were treated while here, but undoubtedly feeling a little sore at their defeat.

Orange Blossoms.

Mr. A. G. Conoley, of this city, was married in Washington, N. C. on Tuesday last, to Miss Bessie Halton, a charming young lady who has spent much time here of late with her sister, Mrs. T. C. DeRosset. Quite a party were in attendance from this city, and they all, including the newly wedded couple, returned to the city on Thursday.

The Washington Gazette furnishes us with the following pleasant account of the wedding:

Society has been on the qui vive, anticipating the social event of the season, the marriage of Miss Bessie Halton, one of Washington's brightest, prettiest and most fair ones, to Mr. A. G.
Conoley, one of Wilmington's worthy citizens. Dainty fingers transposed the chancel of St. Peter's Episcopal Church into a pretty bower, composed of feathery bending ferns and fragrant water lilies, suggestive of the abode of naiads.
Just beneath the chancel chandeliers and directly over the heads of the happy couple was suspended, in lieu of the convention marriage veil, a canopy composed of pond lilies. Rev. N. Harding impressively performed the "sweetly solemn ceremony." The attendants came in the order mentioned: Mr. J.
H. Daniel, of Wilmington, the best man, with Miss Lena Bell; Mr. Edwin Geer, of Baltimore, with Miss Josie Myers, of Wilmington; Mr. David Blount, with Miss Belle Anderson, of Wilmington; Mr. C. U. Hill with Miss Katie Blount; Mr. Duncan Williams, of Wilmington, with Miss Julia Hoyt; Mr. Walter Myers, of Baltimore, with Miss Pattie Rodman; Dr. D. T. Taylor with Miss Annie Demille; Mr. Sam Whitehurst and Miss Bella Wharton; Mr. C. C. Calais with Miss Lucy Morton.

Washington's loss is Wilmington's gain. The void will be hard to fill.

Zoroaster,

BY F. MARION CRAWFORD, author of
"Mr. Isaacs," "Doctor Claudius," &c., &c., bound in cloth extra, $1.75. In "Zoroaster," Mr. Crawford returns in a measure to the peculiar methods used with such strange effect in his first novel. There, as in "Mr. Isaacs," the mystical, semi-metaphysical, semi supernatural intricacies of Oriental religious philosophy furnish a background for the story.
He gives us a splendid glowing drama of ancient Oriental life, brilliant in coloring, rich in word-painting, stirring and novel in plot, nobly pathetic in ending. There are but few figures, but each stands out from the canvas distinct, individual, a creation of a master's brush.—Christian Union

Zoroaster,

"Mr. Isaacs," "Doctor Claudius," &c., &c., bound in cloth extra, $1.75. In "Zoroaster," Mr. Crawford returns in a measure to the
natural intricacies of Oriental religious philosophy furnish a background for the story.
drama of ancient Oriental life, brilliant in col-
a master's brush.—Christian Union
