

THIS PAPER published every evening, Sundays excepted by JOSH T. JAMES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. SUBSCRIPTIONS POSTAGE PAID: One year $10.00, six months $6.00, three months $3.00, one month 35 cents. The paper will be delivered by carriers free of charge in any part of the city, at the above rates, or by mail at the above rates, or by express at the above rates, or by freight at the above rates. Advertising rates low and liberal. Advertisers will report any and all fall-backs to the publisher regularly.

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Two brothers, farmers in Nottingham, N. H., aged 85 and 81 years respectively, have done all their own mowing this year.

Brushes and broom brushes in England, France, Belgium and Denmark are now generally made from a sort of grass known in Brazil as passava. The grass is also employed in the manufacture of brooms.

The use of the prefix "Honorable" has been made a misdemeanor in the San Francisco Chronicle in referring to the Rev. William F. Garrison, "Grand Chancellor of the Order of Chosen Friends," charged with grand larceny.

Mr. Herbert Galdstone, who is said to reflect the real feelings of his father, in the new edition of "Dod's Parliamentary Companion," is recorded as being in favor of the settlement of all Irish questions in Ireland by Irishmen. This is very significant.

The schooner Onward, which has arrived at Victoria, B. C. from the fishing grounds, reports running overboard, which, it is supposed, was the vessel which was nearly lifted out of water, and every person on board was thrown down.

The medicinal properties of whiskey have been discovered in Topeka, Kansas, where the druggists have filled nearly 12,000 prescriptions since prohibition went into effect. The average dose in each case is a pint flask but the doses are believed to be smaller than that.

The shopkeepers of Vienna are accustomed to the nuisances of politics. They have just been in the throes of a general election in Austria, and the agitation proved too much for the nerves of the Vienna bourgeoisie. They pasted up their shop windows a notice: "To Canvasers—We pray you not to worry us any more about the elections."

Madame Modjeska has created considerable sensation on the other side by a speech delivered before the curtain in Dublin, in which she described Poland as being akin to Ireland "in her misfortunes, her oppressions and her hopes and undying prayers for liberty." The Standard and other journals seem to forget that actresses and actors generally simulate the sentiments most likely to draw a boucault once hung out a Confederate flag in London.

The collection of sculptures from Pergamos, which is being gathered at Berlin, has just received a valuable addition. It is a slab representing the death of a giant in the war between the gods and the giants. The scene is represented with wonderful vividness. He slowly sinks backward from left to right, apparently crying aloud with pain, his countenance betokening agony. Instead of fingers and toes, he has claws like an eagle.

Paul Pinkham, of Millbridge, a blind man, has followed the lobster business for ten years, says the Mount Desert Herald. His boat is guided by his wife, but he hauls his traps, takes out his lobsters, puts on the bait, as well as as quickly as if he could see. He has caught a ton a week for three weeks. Mr. Pinkham makes his own traps and builds his own boats. In the lobster season he picks berries for the canning factory nearly as fast as those who can see.

No Battles to Win. It makes no difference what inducements other horses may offer in the way of prizes we can save you money. Good goods, low prices and square dealing has won for us the reputation of being the leading clothing house in Wilmington. Doing business on the principle of $1 worth for $1 every time. Selling goods for what they are—wool for wool, and cotton for cotton—not recommending anything too highly and guaranteeing whatever we say. Do not purchase before seeing what your money can buy at our establishment. Money refunded on goods not proving satisfactory after close inspection at your homes. STRIKER, the Old Reliable Clothier, 114 Market Street. Sign of the Golden Arm.

The Boy Clipper Plow has earned a reputation of being the best ever used and are pronounced perfect by the best farmers. Sold wholesale and retail at the factory agency, JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Schr. Isaac Oberlon, Swift, hence, arrived at New York June 20th.

The cool spell has passed by and the weather is now warm as Summer.

Ger. barque Edward Penn, Kipp, hence, arrived at Liverpool June 19th.

We noticed quite a fine display of dog collars at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Schr. Charley Ducki, Patterson, from Bangor, Me., for this port, arrived at Vineyard Haven June 20th.

Open front shirt with pleated bosom at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market st., J. ELSBACH, Prop.

A car-load of watermelons arrived here to-day and quite a number of our people were made happy by a feast up on the luscious fruit.

Secure your tickets for the excursion to the "Rocks" on the Passport to-morrow night. There will be good moon light, good music, good company and a chance for a good sheephead supper for those who may desire it.

We understand that the government work near Trenton, in Jones county, were closed last Saturday, in consequence of the want of money, resulting from the failure of Congress to make appropriations. Col. S. L. Fremont, who has been in charge of the work, will return to this city.

Mr. H. Cronberg, the artist, has presented us with a framed picture of a view of the contest at the Athletic Grounds on Friday last between the Seaside and the Palmettos. It was taken instantaneously and is a handsome and a striking picture and it hangs on the walls of our sanctum.

The oppressive heat of to-day is a powerful reminder of the fact that it is only about eight miles from the city to Pine Grove, on Wrightsville, Captain Manning's place, and that a moonlight excursion, per wagonette, will leave for that place to-morrow night where a good both and a pig-fish supper await all who go.

Personal.
Our townsman, Mr. J. C. Chase, was at Springfield, Mass., on the 19th inst., in attendance upon the fourth annual meeting of the New England Water Works Association. By a report of the proceedings of the Association in the Springfield Republican we see that Mr. Chase took an important and active part in the discussions of the meeting.

Not Comparable.
Base-ball can be compared with no other amusement. In horse racing it is all over in a couple of minutes. There will be 224 championship games played this summer, and between 600,000 and 700,000 people will witness them. That shows what base-ball is.

The Fourth.
The question is asked if the merchants will close their places of business on the Fourth of July so as to allow their employes an opportunity for celebration the day as a holiday. The only anxiety in the matter arises from the fact that the Fourth falls on Saturday this year and on Saturday people generally buy something to eat for Sunday. For ourselves our patriotic principles prohibit printers performing perfunctory labor on the Fourth and therefore we announce in advance an intention to take holiday, as usual, on that occasion.

Now is the season for painting your houses. Go to JACOBI'S Hardware Depot and buy your paints, if you want to save money.

Call at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot and examine his fine assortment of fishing poles and lines.

City Court.

Gilbert Hancock, colored, charged with the larceny of a pair of shoes from the store of Messrs. George R. French & Sons, last Saturday night, was the first case for the Mayor's consideration this morning. The testimony was direct and positive as to the guilt of the defendant and he was required to give a bond in the sum of $75 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court in default of which he was committed to jail.

There were five cases of failure to pay licence tax in which judgment was suspended upon a settlement of the amount due.

Wearing of the Green.

Green is to be the most fashionable summer color. Not one particular tone of green, but every shade of that many shaded color. Yellow greens, blue greens and the pale and the deepest shades are seen alike. Except in the dark tones on the very delicate tints for evening wear, there are few green dresses, but in wraps, and more particularly in bonnets and hats, green literally runs riot. Not only in green leaves and foliage of all kinds but in silk, velvet and gauze draperies of all kinds, green is brought out and combined with various colors. A novelty in the way of a wrap is a bright green velvet visite lined with gold-colored satin elaborately garnished with gold and green shaded bead embroideries and pendants. The effect is exceedingly dazzling, especially as there is a bonnet matching the wrap, with a frame of gold gauze embroidered with beads, and puffed brim and strings of green velvet, with garniture in the shape of a huge bunch of green leaves and gold grasses, with two or three bright red poppies added.

Mr. Cicero Burruss.

We glean from the Norfolk Virginian, of Saturday's date, the following particulars relative to the death of Mr. Cicero Burruss, which occurred in that city on last Friday morning:

This community was painfully shocked yesterday morning at the announcement of the sudden death of Mr. Cicero Burruss, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Norfolk, which occurred at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. John B. Corpew, No. 129 Granby street, at 7 o'clock, Mr. Burruss retired as usual on Thursday evening, and yesterday morning arose, dressed himself and walked about. About the hour named he sat in a chair and immediately expired.

The deceased was born in Caroline county, Virginia, October 17, 1819, where he spent his boyhood days. He came to Norfolk in 1847, and since that time has been engaged in various business enterprises. He was at one time a member of the Common Council, and founded the banking house of Burruss, Son & Co., from which firm he retired some time since. At the time of his death he was President of the Atlantic & Danville Railroad. He leaves two children—Mrs. E. A. Corpew and Capt. Nathaniel Burruss—the former with whom he had lately lived.

His funeral will be largely attended from the First Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Ocean Breeze Waltz.

Our thanks are due to the composer, Mr. I. H. Greenwald, of this city, for a copy of the above named waltz, and we acknowledge our pleasure at having heard it played by him to-day. It is, we believe, his first attempt at musical composition, and although we knew him to be a musician of marked ability, we had no idea that the faculty of originating and putting into shape good musical thought belonged to him to such a marked degree. Ocean Breeze Waltz, as a musical idea, is far above mediocrity. Its harmony is good and, while it is not remarkably difficult, it will make an excellent velocity study. It begins in the key of C, modulates to the key of F, then to B flat and closes, as it commences, in the key of C. It is arranged for the piano, but can be played on the cabinet organ by playing the passages marked for octaves as they are written. We hope that our young pianists and organists will secure a copy of this really good piece of music, partly because we would like to see genuine home talent encouraged, but mainly because the music and harmony are good. We hope also that our young friend will continue in the field of musical composition, feeling assured that thereby he will win success. The waltz is for sale at Heinsberger's.

Indications.

For the South Atlantic States, local rains, followed by fair and cooler weather, Westerly winds, shifting on the North Carolina coast to Northerly.

Now is the season for painting your houses. Go to JACOBI'S Hardware Depot and buy your paints, if you want to save money.

The entertainment to be given in the Opera House on Wednesday evening by the pupils of the St. James' Sunday School will surely prove a pleasant occasion to all who may attend. The lady managers have decided to charge a small price for admission and the entertainment will be well worth the money.

Announcement.

To Our Friends & Patrons:
WE WILL ALWAYS HAVE AN ESTABLISHMENT in this city to supply the trade in our line, notwithstanding our having sold our present place of business. We will remove to some other store in this city on or about Oct. 1st. We have been asked about this so often that we have found it necessary to inform those interested that we will always maintain a house in Wilmington, as stated above, and shall also be glad to have a call from one and all at our Richmond house where we keep the largest assortment of

of any house in that city.
Our "Thistle Dew" Eye takes the lead of all other brands, and our Plank Road Chewing Tobacco goes ahead of all of that kind in the market. Our sales are enormous.
