THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. FRIDAY, JUNE 26, 1885. NO. 148

Jacob Sharp's New York Broadway cars promise $1,500,000 profits a year. There has been a picturesque addition to the offences charged against members of the Illinois legislature. A representative is now accused of criminal assault upon a little girl. Wonder if it will not turn out that one or two of the members who died during the senatorial fight were murdered by their fellow members.

The folly of repressing news was never more apparent than in the Sudan troubles. The correspondents have returned home, and they are now disclosing facts which turn the English defeat into an English disgrace. Their descriptions have all the more effect because they were delayed through official censorship.

Indiana has an imitator of the Baroness Bardet-Coutts in the person of Mrs. O. F. Reynolds, who lives at Lafayette, and is 56 years old, worth $2,000,000 and the mother of Mrs. Congressman Hitt, of Illinois, and of the wife of Senor Valera, Spanish Minister at Washington. The bridegroom is Randolph Sheets, a pleasant Indianapolis young man, half as old as his wife.

Now is the season for painting your houses. Go to JACOB'S Hardware Depot and buy your paints, if you want to save money.

LOCAL NEWS.
INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

MUNDY BROTHERS—Toilet Articles

Schr. Lizzie Hayer, Harrington, hence, arrived at New York June 24th. We noticed quite a fine display of dog collars at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

The Oxford Base Ball Club arrived here last night and registered at the Commercial Hotel. A large party of the Charlotte excursionists took a trip to the Sound last night and had a good time.

Those Blind Doors have arrived. Parties in want of them can now be supplied at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

The heavy rains of the last few days have washed the streets in many places so much that considerable repairs are needed. The Newbern Steam Fire Engine Co. will visit here on the 13th of July, and we hope that our fire laddies will give them fitting reception.

During the heavy shower yesterday afternoon, Market street, between Front and Second, was for a while impassable for pedestrians. Open front shirt with pleated bosom at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market st., J. ELSBACH, Prop.

The only case for the Mayor's consideration this morning was that of S. J. Bell, colored, for a violation of the market ordinance. He was fined $5 for the offense. It would be a good plan to send the hog carts out at night as a good many of those residing in the suburbs who own hogs turn them into the street at dark and let them run at large all night.

Steamboatmen complain that the water in the Cape Fear is too low for good boating. From this it would seem that the heavy rains which have visited this section, have not extended far into the up-country.

The dog law is being as rigidly enforced as circumstances will permit and we understand that warrants to the number of about 40 have been issued by the Mayor against the owners of dogs who have failed to procure the necessary badges. The Sumter Light Infantry, Capt. D. J. Auld, will make their annual excursion to Smithville this year, leaving Sumter on Wednesday July 1st. Several of the citizens of that place will arrive with the infantry and it is expected that quite a number of ladies will accompany them. The arrangements for their accommodation have already been made.

Anniversary Exercises.
The anniversary exercises of Brooklyn Sabbath School will be held at Brooklyn Hall at half past 4 o'clock next Sunday afternoon. It is expected that appropriate address will be made on that occasion by Rev. Dr. Pritchard and others. The exercises will consist of a review of the work of the past year together with singing by the pupils.

Indications.
For the South Atlantic States, local rains, followed by fair weather, warmer in the Northern portion, stationary temperature in the Southern portion, variable winds and falling barometer.

The First Bloom.
Mr. R. P. Allen, of Kelly's Cove, N. C., sends us a cotton bloom, which is the first that has been received at our office this season. He reports that the crops, of all kinds, in his section are excellent.

Superior Turnips.
Capt. Savage, keeper of the County Poor House, is again to the front with the finest turnips of the season five of which weighed (12) twelve and a half pounds. If any one can beat these let him come forward and honestly report.

Base Ball.
The talk of the day on the street has been the match game of base ball between the Oxfords and the Seaside which was called at half past 4 o'clock this afternoon, but which had not been concluded at the time of our going to press.

Yesterday's Excursion.
The excursion of the Hook & Ladder Company yesterday was one of the largest parties that ever went down the river on the Passport. In about an hour after leaving the wharf the excursionists were visited by a shower which was all the rain they encountered during the entire day although it rained here in torrents. The day was passed very agreeably and we are glad to know that the excursion was a pronounced success in every particular.

The One-Cent-Piece.
The common one-cent piece is composed of 95 per cent. copper and five per cent. tin and zinc. There is no nickel in it. Its real intrinsic value is about one tenth of a cent. The old penny used to be made of pure copper, and was worth one-third of a cent. Few counterfeiters have been made on the one-cent piece. It would not pay. Too many would have to be made and distributed to produce any money for the sharpers. The old penny was once counterfeited, the fraud being made at Birmingham, England. It didn't pay and the counterfeiters gave it up for a bad job.

Base Ball, and Summer underwear go together. Get the latter from Dyer who has a fine line.

Personal.
Mr. H. G. Myrover, of Fayetteville, is in the city to-day. Mr. W. M. Woodside, of the staff of the Charlotte Observer, visited our office this morning and we regret that we were absent at the time.

Rev. C. M. Payne, formerly of this city, but now of Concord, N. C., is expected to preach in the First Presbyterian Church here next Sunday.

We were glad to see Col. H. B. Short, of Lake Waccamaw, on our streets to-day, and were also glad to know that his health is improving. Rev. D. H. Tuttle, who has been absent from the city for something more than a week is expected to arrive here to-morrow in season to officiate at Fifth Street M. E. Church next Sunday.

Mr. Charles Gerhardt, who for the past two years has been a cadet at West Point Military Academy, arrived here on Wednesday night on a two month's furlough. He will remain with his friends in this city during the vacation.

Literary.
The July Magazine of American History is a strong number. It opens a new volume, and also its promised Civil War Papers. Its frontispiece is a portrait of President Lincoln. The leading article, "Washington in March and April, 1861," by Lieut-General Charles P. Stone, is admirably presented. The second paper, "Beginnings of the Civil War in America (I.)," is by General Thomas Jordan, the well-known Confederate officer, whose utterances cannot fail to command attention. Seizure and Reduction of Fort Pulaski, from Col. Charles C. Jones, Jr., LL. D., the Georgia historian; and "The Military Affairs of the State of New York in 1861 (I.)," from the pen of Gen. Meredith Read, are articles of interest. "Wall Street in the Civil War," a well-written article by George Rutledge Gibson, is the seventh of the war series in this number. Among the papers is one of interest on "President Buchanan," by Hon. Horatio King. Price, 50 cents a number; or $5.00 a year in advance. Published at 30 Lafayette Place, New York City.

Call at JACOB'S Hardware Depot and examine his fine assortment of fishing poles and lines.

Another Piebeian Talks.
MR. EDITOR REVIEW—I have noticed of late, communications from "political piebeians" in reference to the probable distribution of the Federal offices in this city. I expected no favors in this respect, but commenced to work up some indignation at the idea of being left out in the cold in the distribution of the hundreds of offices. With a view of finding fault and getting up a supply of indignation commensurate with the prodigiousness of the insult offered my Democracy—for I'm true blue and a worker—I made some inquiry, and scarched into "this whole sally" coming out of the offices in the Custom House, when I ascertained there were not more than seven or eight of these offices to be filled, exclusive of the collector, two of the positions require expert bookkeepers and good mathematicians to fill them, the third, a man with some clerical training and quick at figures. Two more require men of close observation and some mathematical skill. The other two or three pieces require no special qualification, further than music and punctuality. From what I can learn the personnel of the Custom House will be as follows: Three "working men" trained at a desk and qualified for the duties of their positions. One farmer, a "working man," not a resident of the city, and one who has no trade, no profession, a kind of a laboring mugwump, and the three others are men who are accredited to the "laboring class" or "working man's class." So out of the six or seven offices the "laboring class" has a representation of three, even if the three clerks who, do from eight to nine hours desk work per day and an honest old farmer, are not allowed the privilege of being laboring men in word as well as in deed. As no one has doubted the Democracy of the probable incumbents, I did not inquire into that, but came to the conclusion that I had no grounds for a stock of indignation and dropped the idea of sending resolutions to our Senators and Representatives, and imagine their feelings as they read over the weighty preamble, the mighty "Whereas," and the forcible "Resolved," speaking of "a glorious people," "valiant men," &c., when in reality they think—well—there are more dogs than days.

A PIEBEIAN WHO HAS CARRIED A TORCH, HUNG LOED AND VOTED EVERY POP, AND WANTED TO VOTE MORE.

What You Can Depend On!
That SHIRRIE'S clothing is well made, that it is correct in styles, that it is perfect in fit and that it is low in price. Yes, lower than the like can be had for elsewhere. The large variety we have enables us to fully supply the wants of men, boys and children of all classes, rich or poor, young or old. Ours is the place to trade where you can get the best and most value for your money. We guarantee entire satisfaction in every particular. Return whatever is unsatisfactory, and have your money returned to you. SHIRRIE, the Old Reliable Clothier, 114 Market street. Sign of the Golden Arm.

Surely we must not forget our "American Blotter Tablet." We could hardly do without it, as we will write often during our travels. je 1 d&w 1m
