WILMINGTON, N. C.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 1, 1885.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as second-class matter.

Great Britain has just added to her colonial domain a tract of valuable farming and pastureland in the interior of South Africa as extended in area as Spain and possessing a climate more salubrious, perhaps, than that of England itself. The new colony, known at present as Bechuanaland, is bounded on the south by Cape Colony, on the east by the Transvaal Republic, on the north by the 23d parallel of south latitude, and on the west by the 20th meridian of east longitude. Sir Charles Warren has for some months had a considerable British force in the country engaged in expelling Boer filibusters, restoring the natives to their rights, and settling the various questions that have kept South Africa in turmoil for several years past.

A Cincinnati special to the New York Times says: "A gentleman who has just returned from Columbus says there is a growing disposition on the part of the Democrats to unite on Hoadly for Governor and Thurman for United States Senator. It is said that Hoadly has recently agreed that if he is re-nominated for Governor by acclamation he will accept. It is doubtful whether there is any other man whom the Democrats can unite upon as easily. While there are few who really desire to see him re-elected, there is a large element in the party who rather prefer, if the Democratic candidate is to be beaten in the approaching campaign, that the candidate should be Hoadly. Having become a candidate two years ago to please himself, they say, he should now make the fight to please the party."

One of the most exciting chapters in Allan Pinkerton's book giving his detective experiences concerns the way he met three detectives, unknown to each other, with instructions to join a gang of incendiaries in a Michigan town. The Pinkertons have repeated the thing at Rome, N. Y., where, during the last eighteen months, twenty-five fires have destroyed $200,000 worth of property. After vain attempts of the local authorities to find the incendiary, the detective agency was re-sorted to, and a man by the name of Beakey was sent out by the Pinkertons to work up the case. Beakey visited Rome as a laborer, about six weeks ago, and was finally employed as a night watchman. He had been informed that suspicion followed James Maguire, a private watchman, and the two became fast friends—so fast that early on Thursday morning Beakey was able to catch Maguire in the act of setting fire to a cooper shop.

Latest reports from Virginia represent Mahone as secretly scheming for the gubernatorial nomination, but as meeting with scant encouragement. His strength now is confined almost exclusively to the old Readjuster element, which he tolled off from the regular Democracy. The Republicans are turning against him. He is too hard a master and has been too autocratic as the head of the mixed party. They are represented as hating him so cordially that if forced to choose between him and a straight-out Democrat they will go over bodily to the latter, or what will have equal effect, stay at home and permit the election to go by default—Senator Riddleberger and John S. Wise both see the danger and are endeavoring to avert the catastrophe. They would have Mahone remain more in the background and confine his efforts to the organization of the campaign, but Mahone is a hard man to handle, especially when his vanity is involved.

A careful examination of the books, check stubs and cancelled checks of the firm of Grant & Ward confirms the statement made some time ago by Ferdinand Ward concerning the "investments" and "profits" of that extremely fortunate speculator, William S. Warner. This young man, who had failed as a stock broker, was poor, it is said, when he began to put money into Ward's mythical "contract" business, but his riches grew so rapidly that in a few months he was able to invest in one day $1,130,000, upon which Ward paid him a "profit" of $261,000 forty-five days later. Warner appears to have begun his operations with Ward upon a capital of $15,000. The papers indicate that in about eighteen months he "invested" $13,734,800 and received $16,678,921, the profit being nearly $3,000,000, without including profit obligations amounting to $2,483,000, which were unpaid at the time of the failure, and for a part of which he took real estate belonging to Ward valued at $435,000. There are indications that in the course of time the public will know more about the history of this failure than has thus far been disclosed.

Only eight of the 4,169 samples of milk examined in Berlin in April were condemned. Washington has 9,355 licensed dogs, or more in proportion than any other city in the Union. Iowa farmers are offered seven cents a pound for their butter, provided it is of extra quality. Thirty life Peers to be appointed by the Crown to the Hungarian Table of Magyars are to be chosen from the arts, science, commerce, and industry. A floating island about 100 feet square is at present an interesting object in that portion of Lake Marasbesic, Me., known as the "Black Pond." Some Mongolian pheasants brought to this country by ex United States Consul Denny from China, and turned loose in Lincoln county, Oregon, have wonderfully multiplied. The bridge over the Sar at Waterford, Ireland, was built by Lemuel Cox, a native of Boston, Mass., who built several other notable bridges in that country. It is of American oak. The proverbial honesty of the Dane shows itself on the tariffs in the restaurants, where "Lafite" figures at three francs per bottle, "Real Lafite" fourteen francs, and so on. Dr. Arabella Kenealy, daughter of the late distinguished London advocate, is said to have a lucrative practice in that city, where her abilities command the respect of even "the old practitioner."

The many beautiful lays called forth by sunset's golden charms. Remind us that, in turn, the rays Cause hen-sets on the farms.—Merchant-Traveler. "Is marriage declining?" asked an exchange. No; it is generally accepting.—Burlington Free Press. The greatest catastrophe which can happen to a woman is to drop a lead pencil and break the point.—Call. My son, in the battle of life be sure you eat all you want, for it is by that you can work your weigh up.—Hawkeye. Who wonders at the number of funny writers on this continent? Wasn't it named after a merry cuss?—St. Paul Herald. The earth would be a comparatively pleasant dwelling place if it were not for the man who is always talking about "the good old times."—Hatchet. Gaze on my bruised and battered face. Mark well this sightless eye; Catch on to both my broken limbs, Then heave for me a sigh. Perhaps you think from buildings "skin" I've had a fearful fall; Oh, no, kind friends, please understand, I simply played baseball.—N. Y. Journal.

GOOD WORDS FOR A GOOD THING.—Dr. David Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy" is exactly what it claims to be, and deserves the praise that are showered upon it from all who have used it. Mr. Israel H. Snyder, of Saugerites, N. Y., says: "My little daughter was covered with Salt Rheum from head to foot. Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy' cured her. This was two years ago." Get "Favorite Remedy" of your druggist, or write to the Doctor at Rondout, N. Y. $1.00 a bottle.

REMARKABLE RECOVERY

OF A LADY OF MILVILLE, N. J., WHO WAS PRONOUNCED BEYOND HOPE OF RECOVERY—HOW IT WAS ACCOMPLISHED. Mrs. S. C. Dougherty says: "I had been a sufferer from Dyspepsia from the time I was five years old. I had consulted various physicians and been under their treatment during most of the time, but finding no relief, had given up in despair of ever having my health restored. A friend recommended Dr. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY, which I tried and had a cure." It is the best medicine I ever knew of, and worthy of the greatest confidence." The above is but one of the hundred facts which prove that DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY is without an equal as a cure for diseases peculiar to females. But, if the reader desires more evidence, read the following proof from Mrs. Carrie Key, wife of George A. Key, Co. G, 84 N. J. Reg., who says under date of March 21, 1884: "Two years ago my husband came home in the spring from Virginia, where he had been in charge of a school. He was taken down with Malarial fever. We were both sick with it. After consulting our family physician and finding no permanent relief we tried your FAVORITE REMEDY, and I can say that it completely cured us of malaria, and is the best medicine I ever heard of." DR. KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY is a safe cure for all Diseases of the Blood, and habitual Constipation. As proof of it, E. J. Sears, of Vineland, says under date of March 20: "I have used DR. KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY and in a willing acknowledgment it is the best medicine in the world for the bowels I ever used, and FAVORITE REMEDY is a most excellent preparation for the Bowels." These are facts which can be convinced the most skeptical that DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY is an honest preparation, which no family should be without. It is the result of the scientific knowledge of medicine attained only by the years of experience of an educated physician. It is a simple cure for Malaria, Dyspepsia and Liver Diseases, and all diseases peculiar to females. Price $1 per bottle. June 22 d&w rms
