Correction.

There were some accidental omissions last evening in the list of prizes awarded to Misses Burr & James' pupils. Miss Sallie Jewett received the Mifflin & Co, of Boston, Mass., and Wilmington to Washingprize of the 9th class and Master Eddie handed us through the courtesy of Mr. Ahrens the certificate. Miss Mary E. Polley, a bright little girl who com menced the session in her letters, received the certificate in the 10th class.

On Time. The Mechanic's Base Ball Club, o Columbia, S. C., arrived in the city this morning. The names of the members, as they are registered at the Commercial Hotel, are as follows: R. Mc-Dougald, J. Parks, J. Fetner, W. Kraft, A. Harrison, T. Thackam, W. H. Dicks, F Fetner. S Smethurst, W. McDougald, F. Ray, umpire, and J. M. McDougald, scorer.

A Fine Sight.

Late yesterday afternoon a fine "night blooming cereus." in the garden of Mr. S. G. Hall on Mulberry street, between Seventh and McRae, began to open a bud which at 9 o'clock last night was in tall bloom, and was a grand sight, the beauties of which were admired by quite a number of ladies and gentlemen of the vicinity whom Mr. Hali kindly invited to see it. After awhile the flower began to contract and this morning it was simply a withered bud.

Another Excursion.

An excursion train on the Carolina Central Railroad will leave here on the night of the 8th inst., for Charlotte and Mt. Holly. The Seasides will accompany the train and play match games with the Raleighs at Charlotte on the 9th and 10th inst., and at Mt. Holly on the 11th. It is expected that the games will all be closely contested, as each of these clubs have won 9 and lost 4 games in the contest for the championship of the State The party will leave Mt. Holly on the night of the 11th and reach here on their return on the morning of the 12th inst.

Parade Uniforms.

Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Co. No. 1 have adopted a new style of uniform which is to be worn only upon express parade occasions. It is a white bicycle flannel shirt, made of the best material, with a white shield on the breast with a red flannel figure "1" in the centre. The uniforms of the officers are precisely like those we have described with the addition of a binding of red upon the cuffs of the sleeves. The other portions of the uniform will remain as they now are. These uni- ERLAND'S STABLES at 7.30 a. m., July 4th forms are intended to be worn only 1885, for Wrigh'sville Sound.
