MALARIA

Enters the system from unknown causes, at all seasons. Shatters the Nerves, Impairs Digestion, and Enfeebles the Muscles.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

THE BEST TONIC

Quickly and completely cures Malaria, and Chills and Fevers. For Intermittent Fevers, Headache, Lack of Energy, it has no equal. It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and strengthens the muscles and nerves. It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—of other iron medicines.

Dr. J. C. KENNEDY, the patriotic and scholarly Catholic Divine, of Arkansas, says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters with the greatest satisfaction for Malaria, and as a preventive of Chills and like diseases, and will always keep it on hand as a ready friend."

Geniune has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN'S CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD. LADIES' HAND BOTTLE—useful and attractive, containing list of prices for rectifiers, information about coins, etc., given away by all dealers in medicines, or mailed to any address on receipt of 2c. stamp.

The Daily Review.

JOSH T. JAMES, Editor & Prop.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SATURDAY, JULY 11, 1885

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as second-class matter.

A dispatch from Berlin says that the latest news from the palace with regard to the Emperor's condition is to the effect that, after a brief rally from the precarious condition in which he was said to be several days ago, he lapsed into a much weaker state. His present condition has so alarmed the members of the imperial family and the palace officials that they have abandoned the policy so persistently pursued heretofore of denouncing all adverse reports with regard to the venerable Kaiser's health as fabrications, and now admit that his condition causes much anxiety, and freely hint that the worst may be expected at any moment.

The King of Bavaria is making strong efforts to arrange matters privately with his numerous creditors. Recently he borrowed from the Bavarian Bank $2,000,000. This sum the King and the heir to the throne, who made himself a party to the contract, agreed to repay to the bank within ten years, at the rate of $300,000 per annum, the money to be taken from the royal privy purse. Not long after this matter had been fixed up the King again got deeply into debt and became embarrassed. He this time, and it was but recently, applied for help to the agents of an American insurance company for $1,250,000. The company demanded as security for the loan an issue of royal bonds. The King was unwilling to assent to this, and the negotiation still hangs fire.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says: "It is reported that the President is inclined to make no further appointments of consequence until after the warm weather is over, but if he has any such intention it will require all his resolution to hold to it in the face of the steady onslaught of office seekers. It is related on the authority of a Democratic State Senator of Ohio, who called upon the President a day or two since, that Mr. Cleveland asked him about Democratic prospects in Ohio for the coming election. He replied that things were looking fairly well, but that the Democrats could not hope to succeed unless they had the small postoffices. To this, according to the State Senator, the President, looking at Postmaster-General Vilas, who was in the room at the time, replied, 'Oh, you shall have them; every Republican must go!'"

I reply to an interviewer, who desired to know if Gen. Don Carlos Buell intended to write an account of the battle of Shiloh, he said, among other things: "I have agreed to write a paper on this subject for the Century magazine. I have never made any secret as to my views in regard to the battle," he added. "In my opinion the Union forces were in a very desperate condition after the first day's fighting. I was then marching South with 37,000 men, but I only brought 20,000 into the fight at first. I think the Confederates would unquestionably have triumphed but for my arrival." The reporter asked him if he had read Gen. Grant's articles in the February Century. "Certainly," he replied, "but the desperate effort made to bolster up that side ought, I think, to show its weakness. How any one can hold the opposite opinion after an examination of the official report, I fail to see. Grant was in a desperate condition after the first day's fighting, as the history of the battle clearly shows." In a further conversation for Gen. Buell expressed great admiration Gen. Albert Sidney Johnston, whom he regarded as a man of unquestionable military genius.

Grimmer and ever more ghastly become the stories of the fall of Khartoum. That told by a Greek refugee who survived the storm of the ill-fated city is full of lurid light. There are passages that remind us of Carlyle. When the city was betrayed he heard a hideous uproar as of men shouting and yelling and of women wailing around about on all sides. "Men with frightful gashes on their faces and limbs came flying by and towards us, women with torn garments and disheveled hair—shrieking, screaming, 'Jesus Christ!'" Gordon, according to the Greek, was shot by an Arab in his palace as he was reading the Bible; his head was cut off and carried about the city on a spear. His body was then cut into little pieces. Gordon's head was taken over to the Mahdi. A grim, savage smile passed over his face. He gazed long at the countenance of his late enemy. "God be praised," he cried, "can this be he?" Horrible, indeed, was the scene in the bazaar, where gay curtains and bright satins lay smeared and splashed with blood, making strange contrast with the naked bodies of the numerous dead. "One corner was so full of corpses and dying that we could not get by. I had my hands tied, and I fell several times in the road, slippery with blood."

A Lucky Man.

"A lucky man is rarer than a white crow," says Juvenal, and we think he knew. However, we have heard of thousands of lucky ones and we propose to let their secret out. They were people broken down in health, suffering with liver, blood and skin diseases, scrofula, drowsy, and consumption, and were lucky enough to hear of and wide enough to use Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," the sovereign blood purifier, tonic and alterative of the age.

THE NARROW ESCAPE.

Mr. Peter Lawrence, of Dalton, Mass., led a miserable life for fourteen years, with stone in the bladder. He called on Dr. Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y. for relief. "We will first try 'Favorite Remedy,'" said the Dr., "before risking an operation." A few days later he received the following letter:

DALTON, MASS.

Dear Dr. Kennedy:—The day after I came home I passed two gravel stones, and am doing nicely.

REMARKABLE RECOVERY OF A LADY OF MILLVILLE, N. J., WHO WAS PROFOUNDLY BILIOUS OF RECOVERY—HOW IT WAS ACCOMPLISHED.

Mrs. S. C. Dougherty says: "I had been a sufferer from Dyspepsia for the time I was sixteen years old. I had consulted various physicians and been under their treatment during most of the time, but finding no relief, had given up in despair of ever having my health restored. A friend recommended Dr. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY, which I tried, and in a few days I was cured. I feel like I never knew of, and worthy of the greatest confidence."

The above is but one of the hundred facts which prove that Dr. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY is without an equal as a cure for biliousness peculiar to females. But, if the reader desires more evidence, read the following proof from Mrs. Carrie Key, the wife of Sergeant Key, Co. C, 3rd N. Y. Reg., who says under date of "at 1884":

"Two years ago my husband came home to the spring from Virginia, where he had been in charge of a school. He was taken down with biliousness. We were both sick with it. After consulting our family physician and finding no permanent relief we tried your FAVORITE REMEDY, and I am willing to acknowledge it the best medicine in the world for the bowels I ever used, and FAVORITE REMEDY is a most excellent preparation for the blood." These are facts which can be proved. It is the result of the scientific knowledge of medicine attained only by the years of experience of an educated physician. It is a positive cure for Biliousness, Kidney and Liver Diseases, and all diseases peculiar to females. Price $1 per bottle.
