TROUBLE IN CHATHAM.

Threatened Uprising of the Negroes.

MONGUE, N. C., July 10.—Jerry Faucett, a negro, who lives in Haywood, one mile from Moncure, found a note yesterday evening late. He tried to read it but finding he could not, threw it down. Mr. Walden, the man he was working with, found it, and as he could not fully understand it carried it over to a lady, Mrs. T., who read it, and its contents proved startling. This is the substance of the note:

To WM. BRYAN:—I send this note by Ephraim Neill. Meet us where we said. Uncle Peter Harris and myself and the boys have pistols and guns. We must get the moneyed men first, so we can get guns and pistols, and we will weed the white folks out. They have got two of our men but they won't tell anything. Know nothing and let us carry this straight, and don't let white folks see into this.

(Signed) WILLIAM HARRIS. There is a good deal more to note but to the same purpose. One or two men from Haywood immediately set out to notify every white person they could. In a short while crowds of excited people had gathered at Moncure, Haywood and Lockville armed with guns, pistols, &c. Ladies and children were running about crying and wringing their hands as if they were all crazed with grief. The ladies were all carried to one place and guards left with them, and the men took their posts at different places around the villages.

A warrant was issued for Neill and Bryan, who are supposed to be the ring-leaders, and they were arrested about 10 o'clock. The sheriff of the county was notified to have the jail guarded as it was thought they might attempt to release the accused murderers who are in jail. W. B. Wilkie, magistrate, telegraphed last night at 10 o'clock to Mayor Dodd for an armed force of fifty men.

After the arrest of Bryan and Neill Mr. Huddings, the train dispatcher, was notified that everything was quiet. Bryan and Neill were guarded last night by a strong guard and were taken to Pittsboro this morning. Faucett was also arrested, but was released this morning, as he did not know anything of the note except as mentioned above. The cause of the intended uprising was because of the arrest of Essick Harris yesterday. Warrants were sent out this morning for several more negroes who are implicated in the conspiracy. The whole county is in a very excited condition.

Capt. E. J. Parrish, of the Durham Light Infantry, has telegraphed to Maj. C. D. Heatt, Chief of Police, that his company was held in readiness to proceed to Pittsboro if desired. Having received no reply, Capt. Parrish disbanded his company and directed them to hold themselves ready to march if ordered to do so.

The Oak City Blues (colored) of this city, through their Captain, R. J. Smith, to day rendered their services to the Governor to go to Pittsboro for the purpose of aiding in quelling the disturbances in that locality. No reply to the tender had been received at our hour of going to press.

STATE NEWS.

Washington Gazette: Between five and six thousand barrels of Irish potatoes have been shipped from this point so far this season. A large buck was caught in a fishing net in Chocowinity Bay yesterday. He made a desperate fight before he was captured.

Newbern Journal: Eggs have taken a decided drop. Eight and one half cents per dozen now by wholesale. Mrs. M. D. Morgan seems determined to have a monopoly in taxidermy. She can not only mount the birds after being received at the shop, but can take a gun and go out and bring them in. On a short trial trip yesterday morning she brought down three, not missing a shot.

Durham Plant: Mr. G. B. Broadfoot, drug clerk of Dr. R. W. Thomas & Co., died suddenly Saturday afternoon about 5 o'clock from what is supposed to have been heart disease. He had been confined in his room all day but was not considered in a dangerous condition. He had been dead an hour perhaps when discovered. He was a native of Fayetteville and leaves two bright little children to mourn their loss.

Southland Neck Democrat: There was a horrible murder near Coleraine last week. A man by the name of Francis was found in the woods across a log with his throat cut and a razor by his side. For a day or two of course it was thought to be suicide, but a negro who happened to see or was told of it, reported that it was a murder committed by a white man named Newman. Francis was a white man also. Newman was the discoverer of the dead body. He slew Francis about a report which it is said Francis had circulated.

Charlotte Observer: A very serious case of train robbing occurred near Third Creek, on the Western North Carolina road, night before last. Three rocks struck the train, one of which embedded itself in the woodwork around a window under which a passenger lay sleeping. The second struck the engine cab and the third struck the sleeper. The rocks were apparently thrown with great force, either one with sufficient force to have killed a person. On the night previous to this, the Western North Carolina train was wrecked near Glen Alpine station.

Messrs Brem & McDowell, of this city, yesterday exhibited a quantity of garnet in small grains, having the appearance of coarse sand. This garnet is destined, to take the place of emery, as it not only answers all the purposes of emery, but it is superior to it for many things. The garnet is mined in Burke county and is milled in all sizes, wire mesh measures from No. 4 to No. 60. It is milled and milled in Burke. The garnet is applied to rollers over which a coating of glue has been passed, and adhering to the roller makes an implement that bids fair to supersede emery. These garnet rollers are used by all mill men for sharpening cards and other tools, and being cheaper than emery, it proves a popular as well as a successful article. The garnet is next in hardness to corundum, which itself is next to the diamond.

News and Observer: There are now 237 persons attending the normal school at Winsion. Tobacco in Person county is reported as being badly damaged by the drought and cut-worms. Some farmers are cutting their tobacco down and letting the suckers grow out instead.

Mr. Frank D. Clark, professor of natural sciences and of mathematics at the New York institution for deaf mutes, has been unanimously elected principal of the Arkansas institution for deaf mutes. He is a son of Mrs. Mary Bayard Clarke, of Newbern, and is a very talented young man. A man from the North is in Macon county and has caught on to a nice scheme for making money. He has put up a mill on a creek and cuts out of a fine white talc (or soapstone) round tips for gas burners. These are about half an inch in diameter and an inch in length. He packs them in that shape and ships them North. There they are sawed in two, perforated and made into perfect tips.—Maj J W Wilson, chief engineer of the Western North Carolina railroad, is now with the working force of the road, which is about five miles from the mouth of the Nantahala river. He reports the work progressing finely. At Balsam Station, the meeting point for trains going east and west, the road is 3,000 feet above sea level, being higher than any other railroad east of the Rocky mountains.

Harper's Bazar.

ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S BAZAR is the only paper in the world that combines the choicest literature and the finest art illustrations with the latest fashions and methods of household adornment. Its weekly illustrations and descriptions of the newest Paris and New York styles, with its useful pattern-sheet supplements and cut patterns, by enabling ladies to be their own dressmakers, save many times the cost of subscription. Its papers on cooking, the management of servants, and housekeeping in its various details are eminently practical. Much attention is given to the interesting topic of social etiquette, and its illustrations of art needle work are acknowledged to be unequalled. Its literary merits are of the highest excellence, and the unique character of its humorous pictures has won for it the name of the American Punch.

Quarantine Notice.

QUARANTINE FOR THE PORT OF WILMINGTON

will be enforced from May 1st, to November 1st, as follows:

Pilots will bring all vessels from Ports south of Cape Fear, from all Mediterranean Ports; and all vessels which have had any kind of sickness on board during the passage, or which have been in contact with the Quarantine anchorage; and will cause a signal to be set in the main rigging on the port side, as soon as possible after crossing the bar.

Applications for any kind of go alongside, lighter, or boat of any kind to go alongside, unless by written authority from the Quarantine Physician; and every vessel must be anchored as far to the eastward of the channel as is consistent with safety.

Regulations governing vessels while in Quarantine may be had on application at the office of the Quarantine Physician at Smithville.

Applications for permits to visit vessels in Quarantine must be made to Dr. Thomas F. Wood or Dr. Geo G. Thomas, and permits so obtained will be endorsed by the Quarantine Physician, if in his opinion, it is proper and safe to allow communication with such vessels.

A penalty of $2 00 for each and every offence will be enforced against any person violating any of the Quarantine Regulations of the Port.

Harper's Magazine.

ILLUSTRATED.

With the new volume, beginning in December, HARPER'S MAGAZINE will conclude its thirty-fifth year. The oldest periodical of its type, it is yet, in each new volume, a new magazine, not simply because it presents a fresh subject and new pictures, but also, and chiefly, because it steadily advances in the method of magazine-making. In a word, the Magazine becomes more the faithful mirror of current life and movement. Leading features of the attractive programme for 1885 are: new serial novels by Constance Fenimore Woolson and W D Howells; a new novel entitled "At the Red Glove"; descriptive illustrated papers by E G Mallett, E S Swain, Gifford, E A Abbey, H Gibson, and others; Goldsmith's "Six Steps to an 'ouquer'"; illustrated by Abbey; important papers on Art, Science, &c.
