There was no City Court this morning.

We would like a little diversion in the shape of a "cool wave."

The "Mulligan Guards" were out last night, and "don't you forget it."

At 4 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer in this office registered 89 degrees.

Those beautiful flannel shirts for the encampment must be bought of Dyer, who has an elegant line.

Those Blind Doors have arrived. Parties in want of them can now be supplied at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

We call attention to the advertisement of the University of North Carolina which has of late largely increased its Faculty and means of instruction.

The Wilmington Light Infantry will start for the encampment at Asheville next Tuesday morning. We hope they will go with full ranks and flying colors.

A gentle Northwesterly breeze has made the day comparatively pleasant, which otherwise would have been almost unbearable from the intense heat.

The departure of the firemen together with the excursions down the river and to Wrightsville this morning gave our streets something of a deserted appearance to day.

We will sell all wool white flannel shirts FOR THIS WEEK ONLY at $1.50 at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market st., J. ELSBACH, Prop.

The July term of the Criminal Court of New Hanover county, Judge O. P. Meares presiding, will convene at the Court House in this city on Monday the 20th inst., at 10 o'clock a. m.

The picnic of St. Paul's Lutheran Sunday School at Seaside Park to-day was well attended. A great many who were not actual members of the school went down with the pupils to enjoy the occasion.

The regular weekly service of the First Presbyterian church will be held at quarter past 8 o'clock to night, Rev. W. W. Moore, D. D., officiating. There will also be service at the church to-morrow night, commencing at the same hour.

A large party went down the river on the Passport this morning, to enjoy the excursion gotten up by the ladies of Fifth Street M. E. Church. The delegates from Front Street and Fifth Street M. E. Churches also went down to attend the District Conference, which is held at Smithville to-day.

Call at JACOB'S Hardware Depot and examine his fine assortment of fishing poles and lines.

Indications.
For the South Atlantic States, variable winds, slightly warmer, except on the Southern coast, where it will be stationary temperature, generally fair weather, except in Southern portion, where there will be light local rains.

Arrived Safely.
From a private letter received at this office this morning, from Washington, D. C., we learn that the excursionists from this city arrived safely at about 11 o'clock a. m. on Tuesday. There was no accident and no rowdiness on board the train, as is too frequently the case, to mar the pleasures of the trip. The excursionists were busy sight-seeing and enjoying themselves heartily.

Base Ball.
The Hendersons were again declared the victors in the match game with the Seaside yesterday. The score stood 7 for the former to 2 for the latter. The Hendersons left on this morning's train or home and the Seaside can have a day of rest in which to prepare for the contest of to-morrow and Saturday with the Raleigh nine, who are expected here to-night.

Must be Sold.
In order to gain sufficient room to place our mammoth stock of fashionable clothing now in course of manufacture, we have made another sweeping reduction on Spring and Summer weight clothing—a reduction from 25 to 50 per cent, below their former price. Your chances have never been so great.

The Firemen.

The following is the official report of the judges in the engine contest of yesterday morning:

STEAMER PASSPORT,
WILMINGTON, N. C., July 15, '85.

At the contest this morning between the Newbern, Adrain and Little Giant engines, the first test was as to the first stream of water, through 50 feet of hose, thrown 50 feet. This was won by the Newbern Company in 3 minutes 39 seconds, and they are awarded first prize.

The second contest was for farthest stream of water through 500 feet of hose. A majority of the committee on contest award this prize to the Newbern Company also.

A claim was made that the Adrain Company played through 20 feet more of hose than the Newbern, and that their hose was so laid, or curved, as to prevent their giving the full force from the engine. On the other hand, a member of the Newbern certifies to the fact that the Adrain's nozzle was fully 10 feet in front of the Newbern's. They also claim that they had 5 sections of line hose 55 feet each in length in their line of 500 feet, which would make them play through 515 feet of hose.

Your judges measured 3 sections of the Newbern's line hose and found them to be each 53 feet in length.

CHAS. D. MYERS, Chief Fire Department, Wilmington.

Wm. ELLIS, Chief Fire Department, Newbern.

J. B. MAGILL, Chief Fire Department, Charlotte.

The supper at the City Hall, last night was gotten up by Mr. R. J. Lewis, of the "Gem Saloon," and was an excellent affair. The Hall was beautifully decorated with flags and floral wreaths and the tables, formed in the shape of a cross, were laden with the most tempting viands while champagne and other wines sparkled an invitation for the thirsty to imbibe.

Capt. C. D. Myers, Chief of the Wilmington Fire Department, presided, and the duty devolved upon him of presenting the prizes to the victors in the morning's contest, which he did in graceful and appropriate language. Several toasts were drunk and appropriately responded to, Mr. S. B. Watters, assistant Foreman of the Newbern company, Mr. H. C. McQueen, Capt. Edgar Parmelee, of W. S. F. Co. No. 1, Col. Roger Moore and Capt. John H. Daniel, of Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1, being the principal speakers.

Capt. Wm. Ellis, Chief of the Newbern Fire Department, spoke as follows:
GENTLEMEN:—In behalf of the Newbern Company I extend to you their sincere thanks for your hearty welcome. May the tie which cements us together in a common brotherhood, and which has been tried by fire and stood the test, be greatly strengthened by direct personal intercourse, and a more intimate personal association.

May Wilmington, renowned for her wealth, her enterprise, her intellect, and Newbern, the old City of Elms, the home of Gaston and Stanly, go onward arm in arm, in the race for every material improvement, and in the achievement of renewed victories. And while it is our common object to quench the devouring flame, a common enemy, let it be our present purpose, by a well seasoned, rational interchange of courtesies and sentiments, to add more fuel to the flame which should burn brightly in the breasts of all patriotic citizens.

Standing to-day, gentlemen, on the banks of the noble Cape Fear, its many, many hallowed reminiscences, which inspire alike the patriotic pride of Wilmington and Newbern, recalls to us all the brilliant history of the Neuse and reminds us all to revere the memory, and emulate the example, of an illustrious ancestry, who were ever ready to sacrifice life and property in the establishment as well as the maintenance of constitutional liberty.

Again, I extend to you our sincere thanks.

Howard Relief Steam Fire Engine Co. No. 1, was not represented at the banquet, neither by its officers or men, but they sent a protest to the decision of the committee in regard to the awarding of the second prize, although it was not read publicly.

This morning, when the hour arrived for leaving, the Newbern visitors were escorted to the depot by the Little Giant S. F. E. Co. No. 1 and Hook & Ladder Co. No. 1, the music being furnished by the Cornet Concert Club. The Newbernians were soon on board the Northern bound train and on their homeward journey, bearing with them the best wishes and sincere respect of our citizens. During their brief stay in our midst they have borne themselves with decorum, and in all the hilarity and conviviality incident to their visit here we have not heard of a single instance where they forgot that they were gentlemen and representatives of the people of a sister city. They expressed themselves as delighted with the cordial reception that had been accorded them and at the open hearted hospitality with which they had in every instance been received.

The Guardsman for July is on our table. It is elegantly printed and illustrated, and full of entertaining matter of interest to not only military men but to all classes of readers. An admirable sketch of Adjutant General Johnson Jones accompanied by a fine portrait, is one of the attractions of this number. Every old soldier and militiaman in North Carolina and the South ought to give this publication his hearty support. It is issued by the Oldham Publishing House, Winston N. C., at $1 a year. Send 10 cts for a specimen copy.

Personal.

Mr. E. G. C. Hay, of New York city, is here on a visit to Mr. W. A. Riach, General Auditor of the Atlantic Coast Line.

Mrs. R. T. Bennett, accompanied by her daughters Misses Mary, Edie and Katie, passed through this morning enroute for Wrightsville Sound where they will spend several weeks at the Seaside and with their relative Mrs. M. Cronly.

Painful Accident.

Mr. J. F. Laughey, a sawyer at the mill of Mr. A. Y. Wilson, in the Southern portion of the city, at about 8 o'clock this morning, while engaged in sawing timber, was caught and most painfully bruised by a log which was being hauled into the mill. The colored man who had charge of the log, which had been hauled from the dock up the inclined plane to the mill, allowed it to go too far, so that it caught Mr. Laughey and pressed him against the saw frame with a force which came near breaking both legs. He was extricated as quickly as possible, when it was found that fortunately no bones were broken, but he was so badly bruised that he had to be conveyed to his boarding house, where surgical assistance was summoned and the proper remedies applied.

Literary.

Harper's Magazine for August is a brilliant Number. It opens with a delightful frontispiece by E. A. Abbey, illustrating a poem entitled "A Love Song." Mrs. Sandham's article, "A Trip on the Ottawa," is beautifully illustrated by her husband. Mr. J. C. Beard's "Decorative Sentiment in Birds" is not only a handsomely illustrated article but full of novel and curious information.

Edwin A. Curley contributes a timely article on the "Social Democrats in the Reichstag," which shows the recent remarkable development of socialism in Germany. Among the summer articles is a bright and attractive paper by A. A. Hayes, entitled "A New England Colony in New York," with illustrations by W. T. Smedley. A short story, "The Sirdar's Chess-board," by Mrs. E. W. Latimer, is a thrilling romance, located in the Afghan hill-country. "Elder Brown's Blackside," by H. S. Edwards, is a humorous story of unusual vigor. The Rev. John E. Edwards, D. D. (a Southern writer), contributes an interesting brief sketch of the celebrated "Pawnee" panic.

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

The Prince of Wales, refusing to take the Pink Mistletoe, is like that French monarch who failed to hear church bells. They were the knells of conscience.

New Jersey has just completed her State census, and boasts 100,000 more inhabitants than she had five years ago. In 1850 the population was 1,331,000.

Eight hundred thousand more acres than ever before are planted in cotton this year, and if the season continues favorable the crop will be the largest ever known.

It is thought that the opinion of the Attorney General will not settle the question of the statue of Roach and his Dolphin, but that it will be carried to the Supreme Court for decision.

The Pink Mistletoe's revelations embrace princes of the blood, judges, nobility, gentry and ministers of the Gospel. The last named are specially to be abominated because the most trusted.

A New Orleans negro minister sees indications of decay and even dotage in the white race. He warns the "young and vigorous" negro race not to amalgamate with the rapidly degenerating Caucasians.

The financial officers of the Post-office Department now estimates the deficiency at the end of the present fiscal year in the revenues of that department at $6,000,000, or 30 per cent, greater than was expected.

The Canadians are going to make to tobacco and whiskey pay for the war in the Northwest. The internal revenue tax on whiskey is to be raised from $1 to $1.25 a gallon, and that on tobacco from 12 to 20 cents a pound.

Connecticut leads in longevity in this country. The majority of very old people are women. Among men, soldiers and farmers are the longest lived. A recent investigator found one hundred ministers who had passed the century limit, but he found only thirty doctors, ten lawyers, and ten actors.

It is the turning of official machinery to party uses that, in the President's opinion, makes offensive partisanship. The acceptance of a postmastership from him is not expected to render any man less a Democrat, but the postoffice must not be headquarters for the party, nor the postmaster devote public time to party purposes, or in any way use his position to advance a party's interest.

There appears just now a desire upon part of the governments in all parts of the world to study the latest improvements in killing men. We notice that forty Moors sent out by their government to study the manufacture of breech-loading guns, are coming to the United States, and will enter the employ of various arms-manufacturing concerns. The Chinese and Japanese are drilling under experienced men of their warlike nations.

The prediction that college bred men would monopolize all the offices under competitive examination of the civil service reform rules, does not appear to be verified. Of 5,566 applicants to whom the record is compared, the education was as follows: one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six only in common schools; 141 in part in high schools or academies; 91 in part in business colleges; 91 in part in colleges. More than 70 per cent, therefore, had only the ordinary school education.

The death of Countess Romeral from cholera is the first case in Madrid among people of means and position living in a good neighborhood. Countess had returned eight days previously from Barcelona, which is badly infected than Madrid. Her cholera, therefore, startling, because the cholera may have originated in Madrid. Her apartment was one of the buildings in a fashionable street. Her husband and three others will be quarantined in these rooms for ten days. The Countess's death was within an hour of returning from the city, and of a violent type of cholera.

Now is the season for painting your rooms. Go to JACOB'S Hardware Depot and buy your paints, if you want the best.
