INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
C W YATES—Stationery
HENNINGER—The Hewgag
W S DOSHER, C C—Legal ad
F C MILLER—Tar Heel Liniment MUNDY BROS.—Killed for 25 Cents Change of Sailing—Days N Y & W I S S Co

Days length 14 hours and 14 minutes.
 There was no City Court this morning.
 The base ball fever is evidently on the subsidence.
 Only two bales of cotton received at this port to-day.
 Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 13 minutes past 7 o'clock.
 There were no interments in Belle vue Cemetery this week.
 There was one interment—an adult—in Oakdale Cemetery this week.
 The number of badges sold for licensed dogs thus far this season is 543.
 At 3 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer in this office registered 90 degrees.
 The wind got around to the Southward to-day for the first time since last Sunday.
 We had some fine showers last night, but they failed to make the atmosphere much cooler.
 This has been one of the hottest, closest, muggiest days we have experienced this season.
 The Washington excursionists are expected to arrive here at about 10 o'clock to-morrow forenoon.
 There are quite a number of flat loads of wood in the docks which is being offered at reasonable prices.
 The Register of Deeds issued two marriage licenses this week, one for a white and one for a colored couple.
 The fruit and vegetable traffic to the North on the railroads has materially decreased within the last two weeks.
 There were five interments in Pine Forest Cemetery this week, four of which were adults and one was a child drunk.
 Discussion is going on in Europe as to whether the King of Spain really intended to visit the cholera districts. It is said that he was suspiciously obedient to the opposition of his Cabinet, and that his Queen deems him weak for having given up the tour, on which she wished to accompany him.
 Gen. R. Brinkerhoff declares that we cannot blink the fearful fact that the tide of crime is rising. He would gladly admit it, and figure it away, if he could, but the statistics all concur that the flood of crime creeps upward year by year. "It must be checked or it will overwhelm us," he exclaims.
 All students in Russian universities are now compelled to wear, on ceremonious occasions, a uniform consisting of a blue cap, gray coat, and green trousers, all plentifully embellished with gold lace. The suit will be so costly that poor boys can hardly buy it, and the belief is that the requirement is intended to hinder the impoverished masses in educating their sons.
 Caroline Healy Dall, a veteran advocate of woman's suffrage, declares that she has seen for a long time "that the feeling of more highly educated people is less favorable to an extension of suffrage than it was twenty years ago," and that the consummation which she desires and anticipates "has been set back at least another generation by the indiscretions and shortsightedness which have accompanied this agitation." The obstacle to woman's suffrage is not man's selfishness, she thinks, but woman's reluctance.
 The University of Pennsylvania finds itself embarrassed with the Seybert bequest of $100,000 for an investigation of spiritualism. A committee was appointed to attend to the bequest. A friend of the donor charges that the members were too strongly prejudiced against spiritualism to give it a fair trial. He says that while in attendance upon the seances they were not in a proper frame of mind to discern the things of the spirit world. Their deep-seated hostility prevented any manifestations in their presence. It is intimated that litigation with the heirs of Seybert may follow.

A Hearty Welcome.
 The Newbern firemen received a grand ovation when they reached home last Thursday night. The fire department, with a band of music, turned out to bid them welcome, barrels of burning tar and rosin illuminated the streets, fire balloons were sent up and there was a general rejoicing all along the lines.
 It was a right royal welcome, and the streets resounded with cheers for the gallant men who had returned home bearing the laurels of victory with them.

Base Ball.
 The Seaside were unfortunate yesterday. Koochegay hurt his hand so that he could not catch, and Monroe was substituted. Soon after, the latter sprained his ankle and had to be conveyed home in a carriage. There was a good deal of dissatisfaction among the Raleigh nine, and it was altogether not a pleasant game for the players nor for the spectators. The Raleighs were declared the victors in a score of 6 to 3.
 They play again this afternoon, which will be the last regular game these clubs will play together this season.

Summer Resorts.
 Smithville and Wrightsville Sound are growing in popularity as watering place resorts. There are an unusual number of visitors at both of these places this year and a great many more are expected before the season expires.
 As they become more widely known and their beauties, comforts, luxuries and healthfulness are more fully appreciated, there is no doubt that they will be the favorite places of resort of thousands who now make yearly trips to the mountains and to the noted watering places of the North.

Personal.
 We are glad to state that the condition of Col. John D. Taylor has materially improved. He has rested much better and has suffered much less from pain during the last three days and the prospects now are hopeful for a speedy recovery.
 Mr. John Greer, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Newbern, came here with the firemen of that city, he being an active member of the company. He brought his two daughters with him and when the company left he remained with them until this morning, when they left for home. While in the city he met with many of his former friends and acquaintances who were pleased to meet and shake him by the hand.

New Uniforms.
 The uniforms for the Cornet Concert Club are now completed and in readiness for the club to wear at the encampment at Asheville next week. The suit for Drum Major H. T. Bauman consists of a dark blue cloth frock coat trimmed with a red shield and ornamented with gold braid. The epaulettes are very fine and of the regulation pattern. The trousers are of the same material as the coat, with a red stripe, trimmed with gold lace, down the legs. The helmet is also of blue cloth and the baton is a most superbly ornamented stick. The uniforms of the club are of dark blue cloth, the breasts of the coats ornamented with gold lace and a wide gold lace stripe adorns the legs of the trousers. The helmets are of blue cloth similar to the drum major's, but less elaborately ornamented. The belts are white and the music pouches are of white leather with the letters "C. C. C." upon them in nickel plated letters. The uniforms, taken throughout, are very tasty and the expense attending their manufacture amounts to nearly $1,000.
 We forgot to mention in the appropriate place that the drum major will wear a red plume while the band will wear white plumes mounted with blue.
 The uniforms were gotten up and the suits made by Mr. John Dyer, at his tailoring establishment in this city.
 There is but one linden tree in the city of Wilmington, and it is somewhat of a curiosity as well as a rarity. It stands at the Southeast corner of Third and Mulberry streets, and when it is in bloom it is very fragrant. The bees are busy among its blossoms all day long.

Must be Sold.
 In order to gain sufficient room to place our mammoth stock of fashionable clothing now in course of manufacture, we have made another sweeping reduction on Spring and Summer weight clothing—a reduction from 25 to 50 per cent, below their former price.
 Your chances have never been so great.
 SHRIER, the Old Reliable Clothier, 114 Market street. Sign of the Golden Arm.

Capt. John Harper's Friday excursions on the Passport are already very popular. There was a large party on board yesterday.

German barque Verein, Jahncke, cleared to-day for London with 1,600 casks spirits turpentine and 2,135 barrels rosin, valued at $30,150, shipped by Messrs. Alex Sprunt & Son.

Pender's Pensioners.
 A note from a friend at Bargaw-which has been delayed in reaching us, tells us that Pender county has sent up to the Auditor of the State 23 applications for pensions under the State law, 11 of which are for widows and 12 for soldiers. Many gallant souls went to the front from that part of New Hanover now known as Pender county and we are surprised that the list is not much larger than it is.
