THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, JULY 20, 1885. NO. 167.

The great French chemist, Chevreul, hopes to celebrate the hundredth anniversary of his birthday in August. He is a total abstainer from all spirituous liquors, and is in full possession of all his senses, frequently lecturing to the students of the Jardin des Plantes, in Paris.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer in this office registered 88 degrees.
Blue, white, grey, brown and olive flannel shirts, are sold by DYER. The visitors to the mountains will take notice.
The excursionists returned from Washington, D. C., yesterday morning, arriving here at about a quarter past 10 o'clock.

Seventy-five cents only for the best white unlaundried shirt in the city, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market st., J. ELSBACH, Prop. tf

Don't call it hot. Wilmington is an ice house compared with some other points. For instance, in New York, on Friday last, at 3:30 p. m., it was 99 in the shade.

There will be a congregational meeting of the First Presbyterian Church to-night to consider whether the time has yet arrived for inviting a pastor, and if so, whom they will invite.

The Young People's Association of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will give a Lawn Party in the parsonage grounds next Friday night, and the management will spare no pains in trying to make it an enjoyable affair.

Call at JACOB'S Hardware Depot and examine his fine assortment of fishing poles and lines.

Knights of Honor.
Carolina Lodge No. 434. Regular meeting this evening at 8 o'clock. Full attendance is desired as business of importance will be transacted. It

Indications.
For the South Atlantic States, generally fair weather, except in the extreme Southern portion, where there will be light local rains, variable winds and stationary temperature.

Base Ball.
There will be a match game of base ball at the Seaside grounds to-morrow afternoon, between the Eureka and Enterprise nines, at which an admission of 10 cents will be charged to gentlemen. Ladies will be admitted free.

Time Changed.
The time fixed for holding the sessions of the Industrial School at Brooklyn is at 4 o'clock on Wednesday afternoons and not on Tuesdays and Fridays, as we were at first informed. The school will open promptly at the hour named, and close at 6 o'clock p. m.

Personal.
Mr. M. W. Hart, of the Tar River Talker, was in the city yesterday and registered at the Commercial Hotel.

Capt. N. F. Parker, A. Q. M., Second Brigade, left for Asheville this morning to make preparations for the arrival, encampment and accommodation of the troops of the command.

The Boys Abroad.
From a letter received from one of the excursionists to Washington, D. C., we learn that at the time of the fire which destroyed the Post building, several members of W. S. F. E. Co., No. 1, were present and did effective work towards extinguishing the flames. Several of the young men called upon the President and he expressed himself as pleased to meet young men from North Carolina who had cast their maiden votes for him. The weather was intensely hot, the thermometer indicating 100 in the shade.

Now is the season for painting your houses. Go to JACOB'S Hardware Depot and buy your paints, if you want to save money.

A Short Holiday.

The Editor of this paper spent nearly all of last week at the seashore, at the Rocks and Smithville, and we desire to record here a few of our experiences and the impressions which forced themselves on our minds. The first of these latter was the wonder and surprise that the magnificence and extent of our seacoast and the advantages which it offers to pleasure seekers in the Summer are not more thoroughly appreciated than seems to be the case now.

Our first stay was at Smithville, and there we enjoyed the hospitalities of the Hotel Brunswick. As we paid our way there, every cent of it, there is no ground for doubting our sincerity in saying that it is one of the best kept hotels we have ever found anywhere, North or South, in all of our varied experience. The rooms are cool, airy and pleasant, the beds clean and comfortable, the fare excellent, in good variety and carefully prepared, and the service is as good, we think, as it is possible to be anywhere. We have never seen a better drilled corps of servants. Dr. Curtis, the proprietor of the hotel, personally supervises the business and his Manager, Mr. Anderson, a hotelist of much experience, is surely the right man in the right place and seems, really, to sometimes anticipate the wants of the guests before they are expressed. Mr. Chas. Lowenberg caters very acceptably to the wants of the guests and Mr. J. W. Farrish presides in the wine department.

From Smithville we went to the Rocks, that paradise of fishermen. The closing of New Inlet has made this one of the most famous places on the North Carolina Coast and its advantages as a resort are becoming rapidly known everywhere. The inlet has closed so that there are only a few feet of water thereon at high tide and the bay thus formed is the most beautiful sailing ground we have ever seen. We doubt if it has its superior on the Atlantic coast. There is fine fishing for all, both at the rocks which separate the sea from the river and at the ledge of rocks which lie but a few fathoms under water and are from two to four miles off shore.

Mrs. Mayo is the presiding spirit at the Rocks, and the elegant table which she spreads is well-known of all who have taken a meal there. She is ably assisted by Capt. R. M. Houston, of this city, and Capt. Tom Barclay is always at hand with his little yacht, the Annie, to take parties for a sail on the beautiful bay, or on a fishing expedition to the blue water beyond it. We must not neglect to mention that the sleeping quarters are very comfortable, consisting of small, detached cottages, generally with two rooms to each, and so situated as to catch the wind in full, no matter from what quarter it may blow.

It is a matter of surprise to us that so many Wilmingtonians should go far off from home, during the sultry season, in pursuit of pleasure and recreation while all of the elements for a full enjoyment are at their very doors.

For the Encampment.

The following is the roster of the officers and enlisted men of the Wilmington Light Infantry who will leave to-morrow morning for the encampment:

Capt.—J. C. Morrison.
Second Lieut.—F. L. Meares.
Sergeants—W. R. Morrison, R. L. Allen, W. N. Harriss, W. H. Robbins.
Corporals—G. P. Howey, L. P. Thomas.

Privates—L. A. Blue, W. S. Black, W. L. Beery, B. W. Beery, R. G. Borden, J. L. Cantwell, J. J. Clemmons, J. H. Clark, J. J. Dray, H. Gerken, Thomas Gause, R. Gurganus, J. J. Hedrick, Jr., Lee Holmes, B. F. Keith, W. R. Kingsbury, H. H. McIlhenny, E. A. Northrop, J. D. Nutt, W. E. Perdew, E. Philpaw, John Tienken, J. F. Shoter, W. Shaw, C. W. Stanford, M. S. Taylor, W. A. Willson, H. H. Watters, J. L. Yopp.

Drummers—H. Schulken, James Brickley.
Markers—J. Lumsden, C. Myers.
Reserve Corps—Lieut. T. C. James.
Veteran Corps—Capt. W. M. Swann.

The company will leave on the regular morning train on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad. At Warsaw they will be joined by their former comrades, the Sampson Light Infantry, of Clinton, Sampson county. At Goldsboro a special military train will be made up and upon this the troops will proceed to their destination at Asheville.

The company will go from this city with just about half of its membership. There may be some changes before the company leaves here, as some may be added to the force, but the above list comprises the names of all who have already decided to go.

At the Capital.

Under the head of "What I Saw in Washington," a gentleman of this city, one of those who took the recent ride to Washington on the excursion train, and who returned to the city yesterday, furnishes us with the following account of his impressions:

After 19 hours' ride we landed in Washington. We were met at Quantico by Jack Savage, a Wilmington boy, who is telegraph operator and ticket agent of the Penn. R. R., at Alexandria, Va. Visited the Capitol building. Col. Canaday was in this city, so we did not see him. The buildings are magnificent, and fitted up in style so fine that it dazzled the eyes of us Tar Heels. Beautiful grounds and parks all over the city, and plenty of room; streets like a floor and every one uses bicycles; every other house a saloon; the street cars run 16 hours out of 24; cabs and hacks in abundance. Called on Mr. Peterson, formerly operator here, and saw Gen. Rutherford, who has a law office in same building. Wednesday, called on Gen. Bob Vance in Interior building. Saw a great many N. C. people. Visited Capt. J. B. Hussey, of Greensboro, and was shown around; introduced to Mr. Higgins, Appointment Clerk, and a great many more (too numerous to mention); met Maj. Woodford, formerly City Marshal here several years ago; is under Hussey. The Treasury Department is a magnificent structure. The departments are full of colored people, a great many from here. Mention Senator Ransom's name and you are all "O. K." He is a power in that city and so is Vance. Visited the Monument, the Smithsonian Institute and the National Museum; worth seeing. About 300 office seekers; visited Pension office and new building; very fine. Visited Government printing offices; a great office; good many asked about printers here and editors also; visited Corcoran Art Gallery; too utterly utter for me; saw Grover; well. Met a Mr. Reed of N. C., who carried home seven commissions for his people—a pleasant gentleman and ready to help a Tar Heel; he knows the REVIEW. All asked about Col. Waddell and wished he was still a member; he has a big name in Washington. Well, Mr. Editor, Washington is a great place. Every one is ready to take advantage of a stranger, but the officials, who are very courteous to every one. I mean the store keepers and boarding places. Went to Alexandria on Saturday morning and found Young Savage had fallen from the train, breaking his right thigh and being otherwise pretty well bruised; met Charley Strangman, Porter's nephew and partner, who sends regards to C. C. C. and all friends; saw a brewing made of Alexandrian hops and barley—"Vienna Cabinet Beer"; asked about our boys and says he loves old Wilmington. The thermometer was 105 in the shade; went into the vaults and found it 40 there. It was pleasant. They have 12 vaults and $250,000 worth of beer on hand; make two brewings a day; have two ice making machines, one 40, the other 35 horse power; make 250 barrels a day; four stories above and three below ground, and covers two squares; have 40 regular employees besides 40 laborers and clerks; boilers are 200 horse power; run night and day; have coopers, carpenters and blacksmiths; have a depot in Washington that is immense; own 35 refrigerator cars and are busy all the time; they use 500 lbs. of malt and 500 bushels of hops per day; the employees drink beer in lieu of water, kegs being kept on tap for them all the time. At Ashland we found Mr. Henry Brunhill and family spending the Summer. It is worth a visit to Washington to see the sights and North Carolina people are ready to extend courtesy to any one from this State, no matter how humble. Gen'l Ransom is always on hand, looking to the interests of North Carolina; so is Gen. Vance and Capt. Hussey. I heard it rumored at the Post-office building that Mr. Parsley would be Postmaster. Yours,

TAR HEEL.

Criminal Court.
The Criminal Court of New Hanover county convened at the Court House in this city at 10 o'clock this forenoon, Judge O. P. Meares presiding and Solicitor B. R. Moore appearing in behalf of the State. The morning hours were devoted to empanneling the grand jury and delivering the customary charge to the same, after which the Court took a recess until 3 o'clock this afternoon. The following comprise the grand jury for the term:

W. R. French, foreman; J. F. Sellers, J. E. Lanier, John T. Keen, John E. St. George, B. L. Gorton, Emanuel Schaff, R. L. Hutchins, A. L. Brown, R. M. Fowler, C. W. Bradley and Edward F. Craig.

Must be Sold.

In order to gain sufficient room to place our mammoth stock of fashionable clothing now in course of manufacture, we have made another sweeping reduction on Spring and Summer weight clothing—a reduction from 25 to 50 percent, below their former price. Your chances have never been so great.

SHIRTS, the Old Reliable Clothier, 114 Market street. Sign of the Golden Arm.

We noticed quite a fine display of dog collars at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.
