THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. TUESDAY, JULY 21, 1885. NO. 168

PLEASE NOTICE. We will be glad to receive communication from our friends on any and all subjects, general interest but the name of the writer must always be attached to the Editor. Communications must be written on one side of the paper. Personalities must be avoided. And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial column.

Prof. C. P. Langley, who has just returned from Europe, says that his recent researches show that the sun's light is not white, but is really blue.

The Queen of Italy writes theatrical critiques, which she does not sign, for the Gazette di Parma. One of her colleagues recently detected, as he thought, the critic in a flagrant plagiarism and indicated the work from whence the article had been copied. The Queen retorted by proving that she herself was the authoress of the work, which had been published two years before, when the controversy suddenly ceased.

There was no City Court this morning.

This has been a fearfully hot day for news gathering.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 3 bales.

The farmers generally report that the crops are doing remarkably well.

Peaches sell here now for from 50 to 75 cents per peck, and apples from 15 to 40 cents per peck.

Call at JACOB'S Hardware Depot and examine his fine assortment of fishing poles and lines.

The watermelon season is here in good earnest, but the fruit does not appear so bright and inviting as in previous years.

We noticed quite a fine display of dog collars at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

Blue, white, grey, brown and olive flannel shirts, are sold by DYER. The visitors to the mountains will take notice.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer in this office registered 89 degrees with the wind from the Southwest.

PERSONAL.

Capt. C. C. Morse of Smithville, is in the city today.

Mr. J. T. Bland, of Pender county, is in the city today in attendance on the Criminal Court now in session here.

Mr. John R. Paddison, of Point Caswell, was in the city today and reports the crops as growing finely in the Point Caswell section.

FOR FRIDAY.

The ladies of the Front street M. E. Church will on Friday next give an other of the series of these delightful excursions so liberally patronized heretofore and so thoroughly enjoyed by all who have participated in them. It will be on the Passport, to the Rocks, Smithville and the Forts. A regular dinner, besides refreshments, will be served on board.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.

There will be a moonlight excursion to the "Rocks," on the steamer Passport next Tuesday night. It will be gotten up under the auspices of Capt. J. W. Harper and Mr. George N. Harris, and there will be a plenty of music for those who may wish to dance. The excursionists will have the free use of the bath house while there and the boat will remain long enough for those who wish to obtain a good sheephead supper. The management will do all in their power for the pleasure of the excursionists, and a good time may be safely expected.

LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE.

Lippincott's for August is specially adapted for summer reading. The only "solid" papers in this number are one on "The Scottish Crofters," and the second of two, "The Pioneers of the Southwest." "Our Ville," is a very amusing sketch of French provincial life. "Fishing in Elk River," carries us to the wild mountain region of West Virginia, and "A Forest Beauty," is a description of the tulip-tree, the giant of the Western woods, with its surroundings and associations. The fiction, as is usual at this season, fills a large space. "On this Side," which is now approaching the conclusion, includes, among other amusing scenes, some contrasted specimens of English and American love-making. The short stories are uncommonly good. The poetry, "Gossip," and literary notices are all deserving of attention.

Now is the season for painting your houses. Go to JACOB'S Hardware Depot and buy your paints, if you want to save money.

PASTOR INVITED.

At a meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, held last night, it was voted to invite Rev. W. W. Moore, D. D., to become its pastor at a salary of $3,000 per annum and the rent of the parsonage free of cost. Rev. Dr. Moore preached twice in that church last Sunday, and his sermons gave great satisfaction to all who had the good fortune to hear them.

CHANGE OF BASE.

Capt. John L. Boatwright has leased the large double store on South Front street so long occupied by Mr. George Myers as a grocery, and will remove there about the first of September with an increased stock of goods. In the meantime a new floor is being put in, with new fixtures, and the entire interior will be renovated and improved.

LECTURE ON SIBERIA.

Herr M. Bachrach is here on a visit to this city, and will deliver a lecture in Wilmington, the time of which will be announced hereafter. Herr Bachrach fought under Garibaldi from 1858-'59, and also took part in the Polish revolution of 1863-'64, for which he was sent to Siberia and confined for six years in that dismal prison land. The lecture, says the Norfolk Virginian, has been delivered in Washington and Baltimore, where it attracted deserved attention. Herr Bachrach lectures in the German tongue.

CRIMINAL COURT.

The following have been the proceedings before this tribunal since our last report:

State vs H. A. Sebach, two cases, selling liquor on Sunday. Judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs Thomas Whitfield, larceny. Judgment of the Court affirmed by the Supreme Court and the defendant sentenced to 6 years in the State penitentiary.

State vs Ulysses Richardson, assault and battery. Guilty and sentenced to 12 months in the county house of correction.

State vs Gen. Lee Jones, larceny and burglary. Guilty and sentenced to 2 years in the State penitentiary.

State vs J. M. Sheldon, assault and battery. Defendant submitted. Judgment not yet pronounced.

In addition to the foregoing there were quite a number of cases of misdemeanor continued, several cases were dismissed and quite a number of set-fas were disposed of in the usual manner.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.

At about half past 10 o'clock this morning, Minnie, the 10 years old daughter of York Elkins, colored, who lives on Second street, between Marshall and Mearns, while attempting to build a fire by the aid of kerosene was fatally burned by the ignition of the oil. There was no one in the house at the time except a little child who was in a baby carriage, and it is not known exactly how the accident occurred, but that it was occasioned by kerosene is pretty certain from the fact that the can was found near the stove with the bottom burst out. The first that was known of the accident was the sound of an explosion heard by the neighbors and immediately after the child ran out of doors completely enveloped in flames with the clothing burned entirely from the lower portion of her body. All the neighbors ran to her rescue, but before the flames could be extinguished she was burned horribly in many parts of her limbs and body. Medical attendance was summoned at once and every effort was made to alleviate the agony of the little sufferer. The child was alive an hour after the accident but her recovery was hopeless. Unfortunately the father and mother were both absent at the time, the former at his work and the latter out shopping. She was near the corner of Princess and Front streets when the terrible news was brought to her, and her screams caused a good deal of excitement for a few moments, until the cause was explained.

There could have been but a small quantity of oil in the can, as nothing else was burned save the front part of the baby carriage in which an infant child was seated.

MUST BE SOLD.

In order to gain sufficient room to place our mammoth stock of fashionable clothing now in course of manufacture, we have made another sweeping reduction on Spring and Summer weight clothing—a reduction from 25 to 50 percent, below their former price. Your chances have never been so great.

OFF FOR ASHEVILLE.

As a preliminary to leaving the city for the encampment at Asheville, the Wilmington Light Infantry, with the Cornet Concert Club, turned out last evening for parade and inspection in front of the City Hall. At about 6 o'clock the Cornet Concert Club, preceded and directed by Drum Major H. T. Bauman, marched from their band room, keeping step to the tap of the drum, to the City Hall, where they halted in column to await the arrival of the Light Infantry from their armory in the basement of the building. The club were for the first time in public, in their splendid new uniforms and presented a fine appearance. The City Hall steps, as well as the sidewalks, piazzas and windows in the vicinity were crowded with a throng of fair ladies and gallant gentlemen who were assembled to witness the imposing pageant. In a short time the Infantry filed out of their armory and into Princess street, where they formed column and marched past the City Hall to Chestnut, and then counter-marched and wheeled into line on Third street facing the Hall. Here the dress parade was held, followed by the inspection of the company by Col. W. C. Jones, Second Regiment N. C. S. G. During the inspection the Cornet Concert Club played several beautiful pieces of music in excellent style, and it was a question whether the city should feel the most pride in the excellence of the band or in the soldierly qualities of the Infantry. Of the latter too much cannot well be said in praise. The movements were executed with the precision of veterans and every man seemed imbued with the idea that he was a citizen soldier of whom his city should feel justly proud. We must confess that we are not so well pleased with the tactics (Upton's) of the present day as we were with the "Hardee's" tactics of our soldier life but the movements last night were excellent and soldierly. The new uniforms of the band and the changes in those of the Infantry were deservedly matters of much favorable comment from the bystanders.

At the hour appointed this morning the company was again formed in heavy marching order and, preceded by the Cornet Concert Club, in fatigue dress, marched to the Front street depot, attended by the usual quota of "sidewalk" members. Col. Jones with Adjutant, Willard and the non-commissioned staff accompanied them. There were 72 men in uniform, 43 of whom belonged to the Infantry. Rev. Dr. Carmichael, the Chaplain of the regiment, in his regulation uniform, accompanied the troops. They arrived at the depot in due season and were soon fairly seated in the cars that had been provided for them, when they very quickly unsung knapacks and made themselves as comfortable as possible for the long and tedious ride which was before them. Promptly on time the bell sounded and the long train, under the charge of Capt. J. C. Stoenb, as conductor, amid the shouts of the soldiers and the answering cheers of the bystanders moved slowly out of the depot and the boys were fairly off for the seat of war, on the borders of the French Broad river.

At Warsaw the troops were to be joined by the Sampson Light Infantry, of Clinton, Sampson county, and with this addition to their force they were to proceed to Goldsboro, where they were to arrive at a little after noon. Here they were to remain until about 5 o'clock this afternoon, when they were to take a regular military train for their destination. Here also they were to be joined by the Greenville Guards, Washington Light Infantry, Pasquotank Rifles, Edgecombe Guards and Goldsboro Rifles, making a total of seven companies.
