In our report of the prisoners brought here from Rocky Point yesterday, we should have stated that they were in charge of Mr. R. I. Darbam, deputy sheriff, instead of Mr. R. I. Armstrong, as we made it appear.

For the Country.

Messrs J. L. Yopp and Joe Schloss, two of the best bicyclists in this city, propose to take a trip in the country on their wheels within a day or two-They will take the county road and go as far as Rocky Point, in Pender county, and return the same night. It will be an entirely novel sight to many of the people whose houses they will pass, and it would not surprise us were they when he first entered West Point, looked upon by some of the colored folk on their route as the "Old Scratch

A Curious Egg.

Mr. J. T. Westbrook, of Harrison's Creek, Pender county, has a hen which laid an egg a few days since of an traordinary kind. It was very large and when it was broken was found to contain the white of an egg and envel oped by this was a full-sized egg with a perfectly formed hard shell upon it. Mr. Westbrook had supposed from its unusual size that the outer shell contained a double-yelked egg, which is often seen, but was very much surprised to find the inside as we have des-

The Weather.

The weather was certainly in "tantrums" for awhile to-day. At one time this afternoon the wind was due East and clouds of dust were blown down Market street towards the river. In less than a minute from that time the wind was due West and the clouds of dust were blown up Market street from the river. In about five minutes after this the rain began to fall and the dust was soon laid. The thermometer fell three degrees in a very few minutes. The rain was much needed and the cool atmosphere, after the extreme sultriness and oppressiveness of the morning hours, was indeed refreshing.

Painful Accident. As Mrs. Parker Quince and her sister, Miss Sallie Burgwyn, were walk. ing on the East side of Seventh street, between Market and Dock, at about noon to-day, the former, who was on the outside of the sidewalk, unfortunately slipped and fell, breaking her hip. The walk had quite a sharp decline towards the gutter and the grass had grown up so that it was rather obscure and Mrs. Quince did not see exactly where she was stepping. She was carried home and her family physician, Dr. E. A. Anderson, was immediately summoned and rendered such surgical as-
