may be found on file at Geo. F. Rowell & Co's Newspaper Advertising Bureau (10 Spruce St.), where advertising contracts may be made for it.

A large gathering of ex-Confederate soldiers met at the Hoffman House Wed- nesday to do honor to the memory of Gen. Grant. Among them were Gen J. B. Gordon of Gen. Longstreet's corps; Gen. W. W. Loring, late Com- mander of the Khedive of Egypt's army; Brig.-Gen. R. D. Lilley of Gen. Jackson's brigade; Sergeant A. M. Davies of the Thirty-fourth Virginia Infantry; Col. W. L. Duffy of the Eighth Mississippi Cavalry; Major D. B. Bridgford, Provost Marshal of Lee's army at Richmond; Douglas Walker of the Hampton Legion; Major W. H. Quincy, Wilson Macdonald, the sculp- tor; Col. John A. McCauli, and W. Hancock Clark.

The following memorial and resolu- tions, drafted by Gen. Gordon, were unanimously adopted: His mortal passing away we deplore Duty, as he and we respectively saw it, found us once opposed in arms. Peace made us friends. In overcoming our power in battle he was great, and by his magnanimity in victory he won the fortress beyond the reach of bayonet thrust and cannon ball—the noblest triumph. His words of kindly remem- brance and peaceful parting, so befitting the great, generous spirit just upon its immortal flight, will be ever cherished in the holiest sanctuary of our memory. As it was "peace and good will" to us and ours, so be it "peace and good will" to thee and thine, great General, now and evermore!

For his country he lived, and he re- ceived the highest honors, both military and civil, that a country could bestow. His passing away (of necessity natural) while a national bereavement, will render more lustrous his grand achieve- ments as soldier and statesman and gratefully endear him to the hearts of his grateful countrymen.

North and South, sister sections of a common country, side by side at the grave of this great spirit of peace, be- speak the end of war, its animosities buried, its blessings perpetuated, of re- united country, of restored Union, stronger through the crucible it has passed, our land never again to be drenched in fraternal blood.

To such a man no death can come. He lives more to-day in the hearts of his countrymen than ever before. The immortality of true greatness is his.

Resolved, first, That with deepest anxiety and unabating solicitude we have watched from the beginning the progress and fatal termination of the painful disease which has closed the illustrious career of Ulysses S. Grant, and that we mingle our sincere and profound sorrow with that of the people of the entire Union.

Resolved, second, That, as Southern soldiers, we can never forget the deli- cate courtesy with which Gen. Grant opened negotiations with Gen. Lee, and the honorable terms accorded to the Southern army at Appomattox, and that in these we recognize the mag- nanimity of the great conqueror, and the noble characteristics and knightly in- stincts of a grand personal heroism.

Resolved, third, That we recall with grateful emotions the lofty bearing of Gen. Grant as exhibited in the decisive prompness with which, in the midst of personal, political, and sectional animosities engendered by the war, he interposed the influence of his high office and the broader shield and more commanding authority of his great character to prevent the arrest of Gen. Lee, the beloved and illustrious com- mander of the Southern armies.

Resolved, fourth, That to the family of Gen. Grant we tender our heartfelt sympathies in this their great bereave- ment and irreparable loss.

It was further resolved that copies of the memorial and resolutions be sent to the family of Gen. Grant, to the South- ern Historical Society at Richmond, and to all the Southern newspapers. After considerable discussion of a har- monious character as to the best means of displaying Southern respect and sympathy on the day of the funeral, it was resolved that Gen. Gordon, the Chairman of the meeting, be em- powered to appoint a representative and alternate from each of the Southern States to take part in the procession.

A special to the New York Times from Cincinnati tells the following story: One of the recent incidents in the President's experience with the deceiv- ers of his own party seems thus far to have escaped observation and report in Washington. It is an interesting one, as the correspondence given below will show. When the President made the appointment of Judge referred to— whose name cannot be mentioned—he did it upon recommendation. It was not a case that could be easily investi- gated, and, largely upon the alleged careful character of the signers, the President appointed the man about whom the letter below was prepared. It seems that the candidate would have been so bad, so thoroughly unfit, that everybody felt free to sign for him, and the result of adopting this way of think- ing was that an unfit man was appoint- ed and has received his commission.

DEAR SIR:—This community re- ceives the announcement of the appointment of — to the — judgeship with as- tonishment and regret, if not pain. And none were more astonished than those who had signed his petition. And I regret to say that my name is to be found upon it. I have refused several whom I knew to be unfit, but I signed this one thinking it would never be considered and not for one moment believing the appointment was possible. When first presented to me I put him off and hoped to escape, but he came again with it, and with others, I signed it thinking there was no chance for its reaching your consideration. I think not a man whose name is on it had the remotest idea that his appoint- ment was possible. Not one up to it would have appointed him had he the appointing power. He is not qualified morally or professionally. He is se- cretly a lawyer at all, while the place will require a good lawyer. I do not wish to say more than to put you upon inquiry. We are friends and do business with one an- other, and it is unpleasant to have to say this. But it is due your responsi- bility and from one who signed that petition and it was signed by many prominent men who hated to refuse, and hoped and thought it would result in nothing. I do not wish you to take any action upon my representation, but if you wish to know the real opinion of the signers of the petition, cause some of them to be addressed privately, and I think they will confess the objections to the appointment greater than I have intimated. The petition is signed by two of our Supreme judges (—) Let them both be privately addressed, if it is not too late, and I think you will learn the facts.

I do not wish to sneak behind a private letter, but at the same time I would prefer that my name be not given to — for obvious reasons, and I do not suppose it will be thought necessary to do so.

Yours respectfully,

The President replied as follows: EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, August 1, 1885. DEAR SIR: I have read your letter of the 24th ult. with amazement and indignation. There is but one mitiga- tion to the perjury which your letter dis- closes, and that is found in the fact that you confess your share in it. I don't know whether you are a Democrat or not; but if you are the crime which you confess is the more unpardonable. The idea that this Administration, pledged to give the people better govern- ment and better officers, and engaged in a hand to hand fight with the bad elements of both parties, should be betrayed by those who ought to be worthy of implicit trust, is atrocious; and such treason to the people and to the party ought to be punished by im- prisonment.

Your confession comes too late to be of immediate use to the public service, and I can only say that while this is not the first time I have been deceived and misled by lying and treacherous repre- sentations, you are the first one that has so frankly owned his grievous fault. If any comfort is to be extracted from this assurance you are welcome to it.

Yours truly, GROVER CLEVELAND.

A Pitiful Sigh.

What sadder sight can be imagined than that of a noble man, whom the world can ill-afford to spare, stricken down in the prime of a useful life by consumption. Thousands are yearly filling consumptives' graves who might be saved by the timely use of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a positive cure for consump- tion in its early stages. It is the best alterative and pectoral in the world. All druggists.

AUGUST ANTICS.

Great feat on the rollers: Those that require No 12 skates. Inasmuch as rowing develops the chest, an oarsman ought to be a row- bust man. A tear of charity dimmed her eye. When she saw how the room was kept, She put out her hand with a sad, sad sigh. Then fell on the broom and swept.

What this country needs most is a practical scientist who can invent an attachable steering apparatus for cy- cles. "The most unkindest cut of all" is frequently furnished you by your butcher with the assurance that it is sirloin. Timid buyer: "Is the horse shy or timid?" Ardent seller: "Not a bit of it. Why he sleeps all alone in his stable."

"If I cannot have the fat of the land I can take a little lean," said a tramp as he rested his shoulder against a lamp post. There is said to be an Indian in Col- orado that has not tasted liquor in ten years. It is not stated what cigar store he is ornamented. A little girl showing her little cousin, about four years old, a star, said: "That star you see up there is bigger than the world." "No, it isn't," said he. "Yes, it is." "Then why doesn't it keep the rain off?" No case of a person having been killed by lightning while asleep in bed is recorded, an English electrician asserts. This is an exceedingly important dis- covery. Whenever you hear it thunder now all you have to do is to go to bed immediately and fall asleep. This is indeed a boon. "I don't see any scars on you," said young Miss Greatheart to Mr. Never- drop Badman the other evening, after she had closely scrutinized him for awhile. "Scars," said Mr. Badman in surprise; "why should you see scars on me?" "Why, papa told us at dinner to-day that everybody cut you at Miss Thompson's rosebud party last night," answered Miss Greatheart.

Testimony of Mr. Goward of Lowell, Mass. "I always keep 'Favorite Remedy' in the house. I have had many letters of inquiry about my case, and I always recommend it as one of the best of medicines for Kidney and Liver troubles for I have used most all other medicines for similar complaints without benefit." Such an emphatic endorse- ment from such a source, ought to be convincing to all sufferers.

ECZEMA or SALT RHEUM

ANOTHER CLEAR AND POSITIVE RECOVERY. AN ELDERLY LADY'S LETTER.

People often express their wonder at the numerous cases of SALT RHEUM cured by Dr. WOOD'S GREAT PEPPERS REMEDY. Accounts of which are brought to their notice through the newspapers. Although no other known medicine has anything like the same success, it is not strange that "FAVORITE REMEDY" should accomplish these re- sults, and gladden the hearts of so many sufferers. The cause is that SALT RHEUM, one of the most loathsome of skin diseases, is in reality a disease of the blood; and this new and scientific preparation is adapted, beyond all others, to purify the blood and keep it so by relieving the Stomach, Liver, and Kidneys.

Among the numerous letters received by Dr. Kennedy testifying to notable SALT RHEUM cures, the following will be found of interest to our readers, who may accept our assurance of its perfect and truthfulness.

Worcester, Mass., March 23, 1884. Dr. J. Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y.: DEAR SIR:—I have been for three years a sufferer from SALT RHEUM. It followed upon an attack of Erysipelas, for which I was for a long time under medical treatment. It placed itself in the hands of the physicians who did it, I have no doubt, all that could be done. One thing is sure, however—I was none the better for all the treatment I received. I had no relief, and my disease made continual progress, until I began to fear I should never get rid of it. By means of one of those accidents that often occur in so much blessing, I had my attention called to your "FAVORITE REMEDY" which I was told would surely do me good. I used it, and within a much shorter time than I would have believed possible, I received permanent cure. I am now perfectly free from SALT RHEUM. What a comfort this is, and how it places your wonderful medicine in my opinion, you may guess at, but never know. I keep it now constantly in the house, as a family medicine. Yours truly,

Mrs. DINAH PHAIR, Mrs. Phair is a widow lady in advanced life, of impeccable character, sometime since, when on a visit in Kansas, she found a case of SALT RHEUM, could not get "FAVORITE REMEDY," sent to New York City for it, and cured the case.

For all diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kid- neys, Bladder and Digestive Organs. Dr. WOOD'S GREAT PEPPERS "FAVORITE REMEDY," Rondout, N. Y. July 23 d&w nrm

Quarantine Notice.

QUARANTINE FOR THE PORT OF WIL- MINGTON will be enforced from May 1st, to November 1st, as follows: Pilots will bring all vessels from Ports south of Cape Fear, from all Mediterranean Ports, and all vessels which have had any kind of sick- ness on board during the passage, or which have sickness on arrival, to the Quarantine anchorage; and will cause a signal to be set in the main rigging on the portside, as soon as possible after crossing the line of the Port. Special notice will be issued to the pilots, by the Quarantine Physician, to bring vessels from other ports to the Quarantine Station whenever it shall appear to the Quarantine Board that they are infected, or suspected of being so.

No vessel must leave the Quarantine anchorage or allow any person, steamer or tug boat, lighter, or boat of any kind to go alongside, unless by written authority from the Quarantine Physician; and every vessel must be anchored as far to the westward of the channel as is consistent with safety.

Regulations governing vessels while in Quarantine may be had on application at the office of the Quarantine Physician at Smithville. Applications for permits to visit vessels in Quarantine must be made to Dr. Thomas F. Wood, Jr. Dr. Geo. G. Thomas, and permits so of "false" will be endorsed by the Quarantine Physician, if in his opinion, it is proper and safe to allow communication with such vessels. A penalty of $30 for each and every offence will be enforced against any person who allow any of the Quarantine regulations of the Port.

1885. Harper's Bazar.

ILLUSTRATED. HARPER'S BAZAR is the only paper in the world that combines the choicest literature and the finest art illustrations with the latest fashions and methods of household adorn- ment. Its weekly issue, its elegant and ex- tensive of the newest Paris and New York styles, with its useful pattern-sheet supplements and cut patterns, by enabling ladies to be their own dressmakers, save many times the cost of subscription. Its papers on cooking, the management of servants, and housekeeping in its various details are eminently practical. Much attention is given to the interesting topic of social etiquette, and the numerous articles of needle work are acknowledged to be unequal- led. Its literary merit is of the highest ex- cellence, and the unique character of its hu- morous pictures has won for it the name of the American Punch.

1885. Harper's Magazine.

ILLUSTRATED. With the new volume, beginning in Decem- ber, HARPER'S MAGAZINE will conclude its thirty-fifth year. The oldest periodical of its type, it is yet, in each new volume, a new mag- azine, not simply because it presents fresh subjects and new pictures, but also, and chief- ly, because it steadily advances in the method of its magazine-making. As a result, the Magazine becomes more the faithful mirror of current life and movement. Leading features in the attractive programme for 1885 are: new serial novels by Constant Fenimore-Woodstock and W. D. Howells; a new novel entitled "At the Red Glove," descriptive illustrated papers by F. D. Millet, E. S. Wain Gifford, E. A. Abbey, H. Gibson, and others; "Goldsmith's 'The Stoops to Conquer,'" illustrated by Abbey; im- portant papers on Art, Science, etc.
