Mr. Reach is now playing an engagement as the crushed tragedian.

Philadelphia Times: The Kentucky election has given Field Marshal Halleck another wild-eyed desire for war.

There were nearly 50,000 men in line in the Grant funeral pageant in New York on Saturday and about 500,000 lookers on.

The regular biennial meeting of the subsidiary high court of the Ancient Order of Foresters in the United States, assembled in Detroit, Michigan, to-morrow.

Arrangements have been made for a contest between the oarsmen, Hanlan and Lee, to take place on Jamaica Bay on Saturday, the 15th instant, for a purse of $1,000.

Jones, having been convicted of a rather too free use of his tongue, will now be allowed to reflect that silence is golden. He still holds the Indianapolis postoffice, however.

Among the eulogies delivered on Gen. Grant on Saturday was one at Lowell by Benj. F. Butler and another at Augusta, Me., by James G. Blaine. Unfortunate selections.

The Democrats cycloned the Republicans at the Portsmouth, N. H., municipal election, carrying every ward and electing every city officer. Mayor-elect Eberedge has 601 majority.

The Puritan's victory in the sailing races for the Golet cups has so raised her in the estimation of sailors that she is being spoken of as the boat to beat the Genesta in the race for the Queen's cup.

One ninth of the Egyptian loan is to be used for a really good purpose, that of building irrigation works for the benefit of the fellahs engaged in agriculture. If properly expended that part may easily be made to pay its interest in increased products of the land.

Physicians in the Sandwich Islands have come to the conclusion that the only way to stop the alarming spread of leprosy is to begin vaccinating with leprosy microbes. They think the operation will be a success, but have found no one yet willing to submit to it.

John S. Wise, the Readjuster candidate for Governor of Virginia, went to New York city after his nomination to pave the way for raising funds to carry the election. He declared that with $50,000 Virginia could be fixed as sure Republican as Pennsylvania or any Northern State.

Among the Court presents of Princess Beatrice all the royalties gave jewels, save the Crown Princess of Germany, her sister, who presented two silver candlesticks, and the Prince of Wales only an oil painting of Windsor Castle. These paltry gifts are regarded as an additional slight to the marriage.

Bishop Turner, a prominent colored Georgian, urges the young men of his race to seek homes in the Government lands of the West instead of clinging to the Eastern cities and engaging in occupations too often servile. Says the Bishop: "You might take the brightest young man in Georgia and let him come out of Harvard or Yale with a diploma as large as a bed-sheet, but after he has blacked boots for three months at a hotel his manhood is gone for life."

The London Echo draws attention to the difference between the peerage and the aristocracy, a difference suggested by the recent creation of peers. It points to several untitled magnates who are essentially members of the aristocracy, and remarks, on the other hand, that such a man as Lord Cairns, although a member of the peerage, is not a member of the aristocracy, a distinction often lost sight of. One or two of the new peers are even quite unknown to persons moving in what is called "high life."

The Democratic State central committee of Virginia will make their headquarters at Alexandria this campaign, as they did in the campaign at which a Democratic Legislature was elected in place of a Readjuster-Republican coalition Legislature and at the last Presidential campaign. The central committee will be called together at an early day to map out the campaign of 1885 and provide the means of its prosecution.

Farmers can save time and money by getting barbed wire for their fences, at JACOBI'S Hdq. Depot.

We hear of several families who are to start for the mountains this week. Better stay at home and keep cool.

Blue, white, grey, brown and olive flannel shirts, are sold by DYER. The visitors to the mountains will take notice.

Seventy-five cents only for the best white unlaundried shirt in the city, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market st., J. ELSBACH, Prop.

The pupils and teachers of Brooklyn Sunday School will meet at Brooklyn Hall at 8 o'clock to-morrow night for the purpose of practicing some new music.

Two very bad white boys drove a cow into the river yesterday near the Carolina Central Railroad, and she was obliged to swim to Market dock before she could be gotten out.

One sailor tramp and one man charged with disorderly conduct were the only cases for the Mayor's consideration this morning. The former was held until a vessel could be found for him and the other was discharged.

The highest tide which the "oldest inhabitants" remember to have seen on the Sound or at Smithville was that of yesterday. Not a blade of grass could be seen at Wrightsville, and the water rose over several of the gangways.

It is said that the Seaside Club will be converted into a "professional nine" next season, and will join the Southern League. It will be composed of three batteries, and only one of the home boys is to be retained, and he will hold first base for the revised edition.

Dropped Dead

Reuben Bryant, colored, dropped dead this morning at the corner of Campbell and Sixth streets. He had been in poor health for some time, but was not considered in a critical condition. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause of his death. He was about 55 years of age, and leaves a wife, who is a confirmed invalid, but no children.

Kill Him.

One of the savage dogs which made such a fearful assault upon Mr. W. L. Dukes, on the north side of the railroad a few weeks ago, but which was not killed at the time, got upon the war path again yesterday. W. J. Kellogg, colored, the owner of the dog, also owned a calf, and this the brute pitched into and dragged into the street and mangled badly before he could be gotten off. In fact he did not let go his hold upon the calf until he was knocked senseless with clubs.

The Seaside in Raleigh.

The Seaside Base Ball Club play the Raleigh Club, at Raleigh, to-day and to-morrow. In speaking of them, the News and Observer says:

The Wilmington club has visited Raleigh but once this season, and everybody will remember the fine game played with the home team. As fielders they have no superiors in the State, and they are quiet, gentlemanly players. They have secured McCaffrey as pitcher, a star of the Cincinnati club, and Litzgen, a catcher of much note. These, together with Monroe, late of the Chattanooga club, and a fine catcher, Kurtz, Kocchogey and Harris, form a team hard to handle. The Raleigh club will put its best men in the field. McElroy will certainly go in the box for Raleigh. Fitz will catch him. Bennett, House, Cain, Kennedy, &c., will compose the team. This array of baseball talent has never before been on the ball field in Raleigh and surely should draw large crowds. The above games will be played Monday and Tuesday afternoons at 5 o'clock.

Now is the season for painting your houses. Go to JACOBI'S Hardware Depot and buy your paints, if you want to save money.

A Bold Burglary.

Mr. A. Weill, of this city, residing at the corner of Chestnut and Fourth streets, was on Saturday night the victim of a bold burglary. Mr. Weill had in his possession on Saturday the sum of $160. This amount of money was in one large pocket book and in another there was a smaller sum, amounting to $13. On retiring to rest on Saturday night Mr. Weill placed both pocket books under his pillow and soon fell asleep. He slept soundly, more soundly than usual, he thinks, and at 3 o'clock he awoke, shivering and chilled. There seemed to be a strange oppressiveness upon him and he arose and going into a room occupied by his daughter he found open a window which had been closed before Miss Weill went to sleep. Mr. Weill awoke several of his children and it was an unusually difficult matter to do so and hence there are some grounds for believing that chloroform was administered by the burglar. Mr. Weill then returned hurriedly to his room and on looking for his money found that the large pocket book, with its contents, had entirely disappeared, and the smaller one remaining in its place, as though it had been overlooked. Further investigation disclosed the fact that a small tin box in which Mr. Weill kept some valuable papers had been forced open and the papers overhauled, but as there were no valuables in the box nothing was missing therefrom. A bureau drawer in Miss Weill's room had also been forced open and the contents scattered, in a vain search for more money.

There is no clue to the robber, and there is much mystery as to his mode of entrance. If he got in the window, as it is almost certain that he did, then he must have climbed the trellis work on the back piazza. Possibly he might have managed in some way to conceal himself in the house overnight.

The loss is a serious one to Mr. Weill and we can only hope that the scoundrel may yet be detected and the money recovered.

Personal

Mr. Robert J. Taylor, of Wilson, N. C., is in the city on a brief visit to his brother, Mr. J. W. Taylor.

Mr. Joe Merritt left on this morning's North bound train for a visit to friends in Duplin and Sampson counties, and intends to be absent about two weeks.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard has returned from Wadesboro, and he preached at the First Baptist Church here yesterday.

A letter received from Capt. W. M. Parker this morning states that he is still at Hartford, Conn., and is fast regaining health and strength.

Mr. J. T. Bland, of Burgaw, Pender county, was in the city on professional business this morning. He reports that the crops in his section are looking finely, but are beginning to need rain. Mr. Ben. Kendall, of Wadesboro, has been appointed a mail route agent on the Carolina Central Railroad. He takes the place vacated by Mr. Rollins, and will enter upon the discharge of his duties this week.

Mr. C. C. Corbin, who recently resigned his position in the Signal Office, has succeeded Mrs. Lee in the boarding house on Market street, opposite this office, the change taking place to-day.

Mr. J. D. Nutt, the druggist, who went to Asheville with the Wilmington Light Infantry, and who has been sick ever since the return of the Company, has recovered and is now regularly at business again.

Lincolnton Press: Capt. W. A. Cumming and family, after a short sojourn at Blowing Rock, returned here last week. Capt. C. finds that the atmosphere and water of Lincolnton are of more benefit to his health than that of any other place he has visited.

Jury of Inquest.

On Thursday afternoon last a son of Mr. George W. Hughes and a son of Fred Bennett, colored, aged about 13 years respectively, got into a quarrel on the North side of the railroad and the latter threw a rock which hit young Hughes. Upon this Hughes struck the colored boy and hit him in the stomach. On Friday morning Hughes was arrested and taken before Justice G. P. Rourke, charged with an assault and battery upon Bennett, when he submitted the case and was discharged upon the payment of a small fine and the costs. Yesterday the Bennett boy died under circumstances such as made it necessary for a coroner's inquest to be held to investigate the cause of death. Coroner Jacobs, this morning, summoned a jury and held an inquest in the grand jury room in the Court House, where the witnesses were subpoenaed to appear, and where they were examined by Solicitor B. R. Moore. Dr. F. W. Potter, City Physician, testified that he made a post mortem examination of the deceased and found no laceration or bruises of the intestines, but that he found a fatty degeneration of the heart, which from a slight cause might result in death. Witnesses were examined but their testimony was not important as bearing upon the cause of death. The verdict of the jury was that "the deceased came to his death from causes unknown."

The following composed the jury of inquest: John Holloway, foreman; M. L. Morton, Washington McNeill, Geo. Peiman, P. P. Lockhart and P. Carr.

Will not Attend.

We regret to know that Capt. S. W. Nobles will not be in attendance at the Fruit Fair at Greensboro, with his fine display of grapes. The fact is his grapes are all off and marketed, the greater portion of them having been shipped to New York, where he received 25 cents per pound for them.

As this section of the State is at least from two to three weeks in advance of the middle and Western portions of the State we think it would be advisable for fruit growers to organize an Eastern fruit fair. Under the present organization the fruit fairs will always be held about the middle of August for the reason that the nurserymen in the middle and Western portions of the State have no fruit until about that time, while fruit growers in this section have been selling their products for nearly a month and their best varieties are all consumed before the Western crops begin to ripen.

It Beats All.

How trade does keep at Shrier's is the remark often made by visitors and frequently overheard. It is indeed a matter of great surprise while nearly every (we may say every) clothing house is complaining of dull business. This encourages us to do still better. Depend upon us always. Depend upon us always for the best of everything at the lowest price. Remember, it will pay you to trade with the Old Reliable. SHRIER, the Old Reliable Clothier, 114 Market st. Sign of the Golden Arm.

We noticed quite a fine display of dog collars at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.
