There was a match game of base bal yesterday between the Hanovers and the Pot Liquors, which resulted in victory for the former in a score of 10 to 9. The captain of the Pot Liquors was very confident of a victory and was so chagrined at his defeat that he mournfully wished he had gone down the river on the Rechabite excursion.

Devil Fish.

Mr. Charles W. Craig caught yester day in his seine, while fishing about mile from the "Rocks," a devil fish that was of an unusual size. The tai was five feet long which would make the entire length of the fish about seven feet. The weight of the fish was about 100 pounds. These curious fish are not often caught in these waters, and it is seldom indeed that one is caught of such unusual weight and size.

Excursionists.

Quite a large party of excursionists from Shelby, Lincolnton, Rutherfordton and other points on the Carolina Central Railroad arrived in the city on in complete unitorm, and the manage. this morning's train. They registered ment are making every effort to have it at the different hotels for breakfast, after which many of them went down the river on the Passport to inhale the invigorating breezes of the ocean and to enjoy the pleasures of a ride upon the waters of the Cape Fear.

From South Carolina.

Another party of ladies and gentlepoints on the W. C. & A. R. R, arrived in the city this morning and after breaktast proceeded down the river to Smithville and the Forts. Our South Carolina brothers and sisters seem to have a correct appreciation of the mouth of the Cape Fear as a Summer resort, and every succeeding season increases the number from that State to Smithville. It needs but a few years with proper advertising to make this Summer resorts on the entire Atlantic coast.

An Improvement Needed. We have received a copy of the Smithville Pilot, published weekly by Capt. S. S. Drew, and in it we noticed an editorial article which contains sug gestions that are wise and should be heeded, relative to the construction of sidewalks on the principal streets of the town. It gives the real estate valuation For the South Atlantic States, light of Smithville at $100,000 and suggests that a tax of 25 cents on the $100 be levied for the purpose. This would give $250 and we think this amount would go far towards the object desir-There was a match game of base ball ed, especially if clay and crushed oyster shells should be the material used. He is not always sure, however, when he buys a half dozen that they will get to the house. A day or two since he saw some fine ones in the market and bought six of them, the seller agreeing to deliver them, and calling a colored man for that purpose. Mr. Heide knew the colored man by sight, and after seeing him leave with the chickens, went about his ordinary busi. ness, not thinking any more about the matter until he went home at night. He asked his wife about the chickens. when she told him that the colored man came there with six chickens, but left only five, claiming that the other, which was the best of the lot, was for another man. The New Postal Card.

The present style of postal card which has been in use for ten years, about the first of next month, will contain a vignette of Jefferson. The sentence "Nothing but the address can be placed on this side," which has always been offensive to fastidious ears, will give way to "Nothing but the address to be on this side." The ink is changed from black to brown. The monogram U. S. will give way to the words "United States" on a scroll surmounting a line of thirteen stars, and beneath which "Postal Card" is engraved. The vignette of Jefferson is surrounded by a wreath of ivy and laurel, underneath which is "Oue Cent," with the figure 1 dividing the words. The words on the old stamp, "U. S. Postage," are omitted. The quality of the postal card paper is said to be improved, the texture and finish being, it is claimed, superior to the old stock, while the color is lighter and of a cream tint. The likeness of Jeffer son is a full face and is said to be very good, though the engraver omitted the usual shadow in the eyes, which gives the founder of the Democracy a pair of
