

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. THURSDAY, AUGUST 13, 1885. NO. 188

THIS PAPER published every evening, Sundays excepted by JOHN T. JAMES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. SUBSCRIPTIONS POSTAGE PAID: One year $4.00. Six months, $2.00. Three months, $1.00. One month, 25 cents. The paper will be delivered by carriers free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week. Advertising rates low and liberal. Advertisers will report any and all failures to receive their paper regularly.

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

The New York Democratic State Committee will meet in Saratoga on the 15th inst. to determine the time and place of the State Convention.

Hansen and Lee, the oarsmen, have taken up their headquarters on Rockaway Beach and will begin their training for the Boston J. V. Maibaugh Saturday.

A grant of 7,000 francs, being the first instalment, has been made by the French Government for the restoration of the walls (cromarts) of Avignon.

Base ball is now played in Siberia, the game having been introduced by the military authorities as a recreative reward for meritorious convicts off duty.

Lord Rosebery has given up racing, and his horses in training have been sold by Messrs. Tattersall. He has let his house and stables at Newmarket to Lord Darham.

Copying letters in the Treasury at Washington is now done by caligraph on separate sheets of paper for binding in volumes. The new process saves time and money.

Mr. A. A. Haw, of Upper Sandusky, Ohio, claims to have the original of Gen. R. E. Lee's last order to his army, which was issued at Appomattox C. H. on April 18, 1865.

The Sis-I-Kwa, a Japanese medical monthly publication, says that Western medicine is gaining a permanent hold in Japan, and within a few years the old style of native practice will cease.

A group representing Princess Beatrice in bridal dress and Prince Henry of Battenberg in the uniform of the German Cuirassiers is latest addition to the Mme. Tussaud's famous waxwork gallery in London.

At Danbury, Conn., Friday, Richard Barriester, age twenty-five years, an Englishman, while firing a Grant salute, had both hands lacerated by the premature discharge of a cannon, and will probably lose his eyesight.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says the Governors of five of the Northern States of Mexico have been in council at La Jeroza, and it is understood the question has been discussed that if the English debt is forced on the people the Eastern and Northern States may secede in a body.

Representative Connell, of the Georgia Legislature, occasioned a sensation last week by introducing a bill putting an annual tax of $250 upon bachelors over 30 years of age, to create a fund for the education of fatherless children. The Legislature has already taxed the dogs of the State.

The soldiers' monument at Atlanta is to have statues of Grant, Lee, Johnson and Sherman around the base of the column. Near the top will be two soldiers, the blue and the gray, clasping hands and above the globe that crowns the summit will be the Goddess of Liberty. The structure will be 180 feet in height and will cost $100,000.

It was hardly to be expected that the hanging of Guitierrez rid the world of the only crank who hoped to make himself immortal by killing a President. A new specimen of this style of crank has been arrested at Kansas City, Missouri. His name is William Kearney and he was armed with a revolver and seventy-five cartridges. What his fancied grievance against President Cleveland is has not yet been made public.

There has been steady increase in the number of convicts in England for smuggling during the last ten years. Ten years since—that is in 1876—the total number was 1,114, whereas in the financial year just ended it amounted to 1,950. The authorities, however, do not attribute these facts to the increase in the practice of smuggling, but ascribe them chiefly to improvements in the system of guarding the coast.

The sanitary Society of Lambeth, London, has been analyzing samples of ice-cream, and reported finding nothing seriously injurious in it, adding: "It is, however, desirable that the inspectors should keep their eyes open, because a dirty and corroded zinc pail might give off a dangerous quantity of metallic matter. The mere fact of the hasty consumption of ice on a hot day and an empty stomach would in itself frequently cause unpleasant results even if no noxious article were present."

It will be remembered that at the late Consistory held by Pope Leo XIII two cardinals were reserved in pectore. His Holiness has long been anxious to bestow another cardinalate on the United States, but the claims of rival cities were so pressing that he found it a most difficult question to settle. Baltimore, as the oldest Episcopal see of the country, has been in the front for years, but now it is known on high authority that Boston is to carry off the prize. At the next Consistory, to be held in December, the Most Rev. John J. Williams, the Archbishop of Boston, will receive the red hat.

The Othello, New Emerald, Zeb Vance and New Excelsior Penn., are the leading cock-stories, both in quality and price. They can be seen at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. F. C. MILLER—Tar Heel Liniment. C. W. YATES—A Word to Merchants. HEINSBERGER—Miss Cleveland's Book. MUNDS BROTHERS—Buffalo Lithia Water.

Some very fine peaches and grapes were in our market to-day.

The New York and Chicago market reports show a decline in prices.

Hogs, dogs and cattle roam the streets at pleasure during these warm nights.

It is getting nearly time for our merchants to go North to secure their stocks of Fall and Winter goods.

Had it not been for the brisk South-west breeze which has prevailed, to-day would have been insufferably hot.

There was no City Court this morning, and a season of deep quiet pervaded the atmosphere of the City Hall.

We find the finest stock of suitings ever shown in this city, at DYER'S. They are elegant in design and quality.

Nor. barque Mozart, and Br. brig San Juan, arrived in below to day and are at anchor at the quarantine station off Smithville.

There will be a grand excursion to this city from Rockingham and other points on the Carolina Central Railroad on the 19th inst.

Now is the season for painting your houses. Go to JACOB'S Hardware Depot and buy your paints, if you want to save money.

Gent's Wamsutta Jennis Drawers, equal to linen, all sizes, at 60 cents, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market st., J. ELSBACH, Prop.

The annual conference of the Second Adventists of North Carolina assembled at the Second Advent Church, on Sixth street, between Church and Castle, to day.

Last night was a scorcher. We have heard several say that it was the hottest night of the season, and it was too warm this morning for us to dispute the assertion.

It is stated that Col. es circus will pitch its tent at Raleigh sometime in September. At last accounts it was showing in Pennsylvania, but was working South. Wonder if it will give Wilmington the go by?

The Pharmaceutical Association of North Carolina met in annual session at Greensboro yesterday. Rev. J. Henry Smith, of the Presbyterian Church, opened the meeting with prayer, and Col. J. N. Staples delivered the annual address. The session will continue until Saturday next.

All indications point to better times in the immediate future. The crops are promising of an abundant harvest, and with these the farmers will have something to sell and consequently will have the wherewithal to buy, so that the outlook for a brisk Fall trade is good.

For the South Atlantic States, generally fair weather, Southwesterly winds and stationary temperature.

Too Hot!

The Durham Reporter says that the thermometer stands at 99 degrees in the shade in that town. We shall not visit Durham during our vacation! It is almost unbearably hot here in Wilmington with the thermometer ranging from 88 to 93 degrees, but when it reaches seven degrees higher than our highest point we shall try and "cut out" and go to the Sound or Smithville or some other cooler place on the seashore.

We noticed quite a fine display of dog collars at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

A Beautiful Sight. There was a "Children's Fancy Dress Ball" at the Pavilion of Hotel Brunswick, at Smithville, on last Wednesday evening, and it was an occasion long to be pleasantly remembered by the youthful and beautiful participants as well as by those of more mature years, who had the pleasure of witnessing the interesting and entertaining scene. Some of the citizens of that good old town had seen an account in the papers of a fancy dress ball recently given at Long Branch, at which one hundred children appeared in costume, and were struck with the idea that something of the kind, on a smaller and more unassuming scale, might be gotten up at Smithville, and went to work in good earnest to carry the thought into execution. The result far exceeded their most sanguine expectations, for they succeeded in getting up one of the finest entertainments ever witnessed in the South, and one which would have done credit to any Northern city will all the appliances of wealth, leisure and boasted culture. At Long Branch where tribute was paid to the occasion by the children of all the great Northern cities, they succeeded in having one hundred in costume, while at Smithville, with hardly any assistance from the outside world, fifty beautiful children participated in the entertainment, all of whom were dressed in elegant and appropriate costumes. And here we find ourselves in about the same dilemma as was the boy at a bountiful spread table who cried because he could not eat of all the viands. We have not space nor time to describe all the elegant costumes and a few must suffice, although we would gladly mention all, as all were eminently worthy.

Miss Julia Daggett, appeared as one of the Peak Sisters from Alaska; Master Johnnie Daggett, as Tommy Tucker, and Miss Rhea Daggett, as a Gipsy Girl. These three are the children of our friends Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Daggett, and all were dressed with becoming taste. Miss Sadie Kenan represented another of the Peak Sisters—Miss Nellie Battle, as Undine, was appropriately dressed in green and white tulle with a trimming of seashells. Miss Janie Meares and Miss Fannie Battle represented fairies and were bewitchingly beautiful. Master Cortlandt Cartis was a vision of a beautiful boy as Little Boy Blue, and Master Clarence Cartis represented a page of the olden time in a costume of scarlet and white. Little Miss Mary Prioleau, as Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary; Master Robbie Rouark, as Tom Thumb, and Master Frank Pinner, as a miniature gentleman of the olden time, were all voted as especially good. Misses Carrie and Viola Weeks and Leila Thompson, were three radiantly beautiful morning stars. Miss Emma Davis was good as Mother Goose, and Master William Cotton made a first rate Uncle Sam. Miss Emma Greenbaum represented a princess at play, in a charming Kate Greenaway dress. Miss Augusta Crapon, as an old grandmother, and Master Clarence Crapon, as a sailor boy, were both charming.

But space will not permit us to prolong the description. Suffice it to say that all were tastefully, becomingly and appropriately costumed for the several characters they represented, and all entered into the spirit of the occasion with the will and earnestness of fresh and buoyant youth. There were bright young eyes sparkling with delight; fair young cheeks radiant with happy smiles, and pure young hearts pulsating with rapture at the pleasures of the occasion. It was a tableau of exquisite beauty and one of which all who participated, as well as those who witnessed the bewitching spectacle, had just reason to be proud.

It is Impossible

For any concern that pays for their goods to undersell SHRIER, for the two following reasons: 1st. SHRIER pays spot cash for every dollar's worth of goods purchased. 2d. Our light expenses and economical arrangements enable us to sell goods at the very smallest profit possible, and our percentage of profit is frequently much less than it costs other clothiers to pay for their enormous daily expenses. In other words SHRIER'S expenses average about one-third or less. This being the case, our doing a big business lowers the percentage. We will cheerfully refund your money if goods are not found satisfactory and will gladly send goods to your homes for comparison with goods from other stores. It pays to trade at the Old Reliable's all the year around. Convince yourself of the fact. SHRIER, the Old Reliable Clothier, 114 Market st. Sign of the Golden Arm.

Our Self. We have been told confidentially that male mosquitoes did not bite and it was only the females who went around nights serenading and biting, but we are inclined to think that the statement is a vile slander gotten up on the gentler sex by some crusty old bachelor. We have had the opinion that the entire mosquito family indulged in the fun and we are of the same opinion still.

Personal

Dr. W. H. Green, of this city, is in attendance upon the meeting of the N. C. Pharmaceutical Association now in session at Greensboro.

Judge O. P. Meares is having a busy time at Mecklenburg Criminal Court and is conducting the business of the term with dispatch.

Mr. J. M. Axley, agent of the Franklin Square Library Company, is in the city today working to establish a library here. Messrs. Alfred Williams & Co., of Raleigh are the general agents of the company for the State. Mr. Axley gave us the favor of a call this forenoon.

The Produce Exchange, since the New York, Chicago and Liverpool markets have been daily bulletined there, has become quite a popular place of resort.

John Henry pleaded with Anella, And all his passion tried to tell her, He said, "John H., your words you waste, Your teeth betray a want of taste, Your breath offends me, so I say, Use SOZODONT or stay away."

To Neutralize Offensiveness In many forms we use disinfecting agents. Impure breath, caused by bad teeth, tobacco, spirits or catarrh, is neutralized by SOZODONT. 'Tis a healthful beautifier, and a great luxury as a deodorant. The repulsive breath is by its use rendered as fragrant as a rose, and coldness by friends or lovers will be no longer noticed.
