It now turns out that the professor has another wife at Staunton, Va. War rants were issued for his arrest, but he escaped and has gone West.

By way of illustrating the ease with which petitions may be gotten up for any purpose, a lawyer of Longview, Texas, a few years ago, astonished the Court at that place by handing in a petion for the hanging of a respectable citizen of the town. The paper was signed by all the county officers and by fity business men, including two of the them. relations of the proposed victim.

It is said that a few anti-Administration soreheads in New York are trying to form an alliance with Tammany Hall to defeat the nomination of Gov ernor Hill, who, they say, is the candidate of the Administration. Several prominent Tammany leaders have announced their preference for Hill, and politicians say that the Administration will tang e itself up in New York State

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, of Bristol England, in whose house the sailor from Marseilles died of Asiatic cholera, have both been ill with choleraic symptoms but have recovered. Sanitary officers are daily patrolling that district. All the beds, bedding and furniture in the Cooper house have been removed and burned, and new articles substituted at the cost of the city. On Wednesday a fatal case, called by the local authorities "English cholera," oc curred near Chollerton-on-Tyne, about twenty-two miles northeast of Newcas-

If Mary Anderson isn't a much-mar tied woman, certainly there is no one to compete with her as the most engags ed young lady of modern times. It is not unlikely that the iceman to whom she is now reported irrevocably engaged is only the warm weather creation of some perspiring correspondent. At any rate that will be the general verdict. And even in this credulous day there will not be wanting men to insinuate that Miss Anderson helped the fickle rumor on for reasons which only an actress can comprehend.

Gen. Hancock is a refined gentleman as well as a gallant soldier. We have Gen. Jno. B. Gordon, of Georgia, at the Grant obsequies. Read this from a New York paper:

Gen. Gordon related an incident of his exeperience in New York which appeared to have touched him very deep. upon Gen. Hancock's staff. When he called to report for duty be was handed an order which directed staff officers to ing to their rank. Gen. Gordon was embarrassed when he read this. He existing order of things he had no rank.
