INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. MUNDY BROTHERS—Notice F. C. MILLER—Tar Heel Liniment HEINSBERGER—Pianos and Organs C. W. YATES—A Word to Merchants

Last night was miserably hot. There was no City Court this morning.

Peaches were selling in this market this morning for 25 cents per peck. The regular family excursion on the Passport was well attended.

There is a postal card in the Postoffice here signed Robert Brown, with no address.

Give the REVIEW Job Office a trial. We guarantee good work, prompt delivery and low prices.

Quite a number of new tenement houses are in course of construction in different portions of the city.

The match game of base ball this afternoon is for a benefit to Mr. Harry Kurtz, the pitcher of the Seaside.

Give a call at DYER's and select the suit of clothes that you are to wear the coming season. A beautiful line is shown.

A new lot of white Duck Caps. All sizes at 35c at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market st., J. ELSBACH, Prop.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer in this office registered 90 degrees, with the wind from the Southwest.

Advertise your houses for rent or to sell in the DAILY REVIEW. We offer you the largest circulation and the lowest rates.

There were 57 excursionists from Rockingham arrived here yesterday morning, and 47 of this number went down the river on the Passport.

The moonlight excursion last night was better patronized than any of its predecessors. We are glad to know that it was a financial success.

An epidemic of girl babies is now prevalent in this city. We have heard of six or seven severe cases in the last few days, and the returns are not all in yet.

The steamer D. Murchison, which arrived yesterday, is still at her wharf, undergoing some slight repairs. It is not of much use to start up the river while the water is so low.

The merchants are beginning to receive their stocks of Fall and Winter goods, of which, from present indications, they have bought quite liberally in anticipation of a large trade.

McIntyre & Heath's minstrels have made arrangements for a special train from here to Charlotte on the night of the 27th inst., so that the entire programme at the Opera House will be carried out without any cutting.

There are very few Southern bound passengers on the railroads now, but the trains bound North are well filled with merchants who are on their way to New York and other large markets to purchase goods.

We have received a copy of the catalogued premium list of the Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Society for 1885. The exhibition will take place near Weld on from the 9th to the 12th of November next, inclusive.

Indications For the South Atlantic States, fair weather, except in the Southern portion, local rains, Southerly winds and stationary temperature.

Signs Fall. We hear of a party who went fishing yesterday and were quite successful, which was nothing unusual with them, but it didn't rain, which was something very unusual. It has been so common for them to be caught in a rain when they go on a fishing excursion...

All Prejudice. Men will have singular prejudices. To illustrate: We were talking with a gentleman this morning, when incidentally he mentioned that, owing to heat and mosquitoes, he slept but little last night. We, in reply, stated that the heat was indeed oppressive, but that we were not troubled with mosquitoes, when he retorted that he "wouldn't live at a place where they couldn't afford mosquitoes!"

"VIF." In reply to the enquiries of scores of curious friends we will simply state that we do not know what "Vif" is, but we have been given to understand by the agents that it is one of the Grecian lost arts, and a sufficient supply has been discovered to last a short while only, but what it is for we do not know.

Personal Mr. Robt. H. Cowan, of the Wadesboro Times, is in the city to-day and paid us a very pleasant visit this forenoon.

We were glad to receive a call this morning from our good friend, Mr. R. E. Loe, of Laurinburg, who has been at the Rocks sporting with the "sad sea waves" for a day or two.

Mr. W. G. Whitehead, the figure man, who reports the changes and fluctuations in the Chicago and New York markets, at Mr. John R. Turrentine's, has returned from a brief vacation which he has passed at Smithville, and is now at his post again.

Mrs. P. Christ will leave on the steamer Gulf Stream to-morrow for a visit to her relatives in Brooklyn, N. Y., and other places in that vicinity. She has not been to see them in seven years, and proposes to be gone upon the present visit about four weeks.

The Lady With the Rubies. This is the title of a new novel from the German of E. Marlitt, which has just been translated by Mrs. A. J. Wister. Those who have read with so much of delight and pleasure previous translations by Mrs. Wister of this writer's works will gladly hail the appearance of this "Gold Elsie," "The Old Manselle's Secret," and the "The Little Moor and Princess" are among the series and they have been widely read.

The papers are giving cures for the poisoning of the skin caused by poison oak. It is wonderful that so few persons are poisoned by this abundant plant.
