The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Miss Annette, who was born an Irish girl, is the real name of the book-maker known as "The Dachs."

Philip D. Armour, of Chicago, who recently purchased a seat in the New York Stock Exchange for $24,000, declares the rumor that he intends to remove to the city. The purchase, however, was purely a matter of economy. In this State, a tobacco manufacturing town, shows remarkable development. Twenty years ago it was a small hamlet, with but 90 inhabitants, and the total valuation of property was only $10,000. A recent census shows a population of 6,370, and the assessed valuation of the property is given at $3,000,000.

Seventeen years ago the death penalty for murder in the first degree was abolished by Minnesota, and life imprisonment was substituted; but the gallows has just been reerected. Michigan tried the same experiment, and not long since a bill was passed by the lower House of the Legislature renewing the hanging policy, although it failed of adoption in the Senate. Maine did not hang for six years, and then went back to capital punishment.

Mary Anderson is rehearsing "As You Like It" with a full company at the Opera Comique, in London, prior to her performance of Rosalind at the Shakespeare Memorial Theatre in Stratford. Miss Anderson has never seen the character of Rosalind played, and she gives an original rendering of the part which promises to be the most striking character in her repertoire.
Mr. Willis is writing Miss Anderson a tragedy on Boudicca.

Among the things which thirty-five years ago went to make up the crime of high treason in Italy was the possession of a Bible, which was in the list of revolutionary and forbidden books, and for a man to own it was to subject him to prison, the galleys and even to death. Now Bible depots are established in every Italian city, and itinerant readers circulate the book freely. In a conspicuous store in the Corso, Rome, a whole window is filled with copies of the Italian version of the Scriptures.
The New Testament can be purchased for five cents and a separate Gospel for two.

Maxwell, the alleged murderer of Prel, appears to have a nimble tongue and a lively imagination. He has managed to give a dozen or more accounts of the death of Prel, no two of which harmonize to any great extent.
If Maxwell keeps on talking he will hang himself without the formality of a trial. If he has secured any counsel the best thing his legal adviser can do is to get him to shut his mouth, if such a thing is possible. An enlightened American public would like to be spared the necessity of reading so many of his professed explanations of how Prel came to die.

Brussels was on Tuesday last the scene of a remarkable procession gotten up to illustrate the various means of transportation used from the earliest historic epoch to modern times. It marked the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the first introduction of railways into Belgium. The affair was organized in connection with the railway convention now sitting in Brussels.
Models were shown of all the styles of carriage used in the history of railroads.
There were allegorical personages representing the various periods in the progress of improved methods of locomotion. The procession occupied six hours in traversing the city, and excited extreme interest among all classes of the population.

Fred Ashford, an Alabama burglar, was sentenced to hard labor for five years. He has served nearly that term, and also five years on his costs. He has nearly two years more before his debt, on account of his trial's expenses, are paid. He is paying at the rate of five cents per day. "If any device or plan more devilish in its conception or more wicked in its execution could be concocted by the ingenuity of 'man to oppress his fellow man,'" say the Prison Inspectors, "we would be glad to be advised of it. The idea of imprisoning a man in this age for seven years to pay a debt of something over $100 at five cents per day is abhorrent."

No rice birds in market yet.

Only one bale of cotton received at this port to day.

The moon will be full at 11 o'clock to-morrow night.

Ncr. barque Helgesen arrived in at quarantine yesterday afternoon.

Refreshing and copious showers greeted us at about noon to day.

Yesterday was one of the hottest days we have experienced this season.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer in this office registered 90 degrees.

"Boil and strain all your drinking water before using," is the advice of a prominent physician of this city.

New styles received Saturday. The finest line of woollens in the market, at the lowest prices at DYER'S.

A new lot of white Duck Caps. All sizes at 35c at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market st., J. ELSBACH, Prop.

Quite a number of railroad officials have gone to Goldsboro to day to attend the obsequies of Capt. J. C.
Borden.

Two boys were brought before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct and both were discharged with reprimands.

Ger. barque Friedrich Wilhelm IV, Ahrens, cleared to-day for Fleetwood, Eng., with 275 casks spirits turpentine and 3,300 barrels rosin, valued at $8-250, shipped by Messrs Alex. Sprunt & Son.

Remember the excursion on the Passport to-morrow, gotten up under the auspices of the ladies of Fifth Street M. E. Church. Their excursions are always popular and successful and this will be no exception to the rule.

The crops in the country along the line of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad South of Goldsboro never looked better. There was considerable damage done in the early Spring by heavy rains, but since then the seasons have been good and there is now every indication of an abundant harvest.

Cotton Needing Rain.

"We hope that the generous rains we have had to-day have been universal, as we have heard much complaint of the need of rain. It is said that the cotton has been damaged materially by the drought and that the injury is every day becoming more severe. A gentleman who came down the road from Richmond on Saturday says that there is a pressing need of rain everywhere along the line North of Goldsboro.

In Self Defense.

Capt. R. O. Grant, a conductor on the Carolina Central Railroad, got into a difficulty with an obstreperous colored man at Laurinburg on Saturday last, and was compelled in self defense to shoot his assailant, inflicting a slight flesh wound. An examination in the matter was held before a magistrate at Laurinburg and Capt. Grant was fully exonerated from blame. We have no particulars as to the cause or origin of the difficulty.

Concert Club.

The Cornet Concert Club will give another of their delightful excursions on the Passport on Wednesday next, at which time they will turn out as before in full uniform and will regale their guests with some of their most popular music. The harpers will furnish the music for dancing. A grand time may be confidently expected.

Ambitious Juveniles.

We learn that two of the best juvenile base ball clubs in the city are to try their mettle on the Seaside Grounds tomorrow afternoon. This is a new departure for the boys. They are young, muscular and ambitious of beating the record and would like to meet some of their elders in the diamond field. It is said that the winning club to-morrow afternoon will probably challenge the Seasides to a game.

Death of Capt. Borden.

We regret to announce that Capt.
James C. Borden died at the residence of his brother, Mr. E. B. Borden, at Goldsboro, at 25 minutes past 8 o'clock yesterday morning. The health of Capt.
Borden began to fail in February last, although he continued to perform his duties as conductor on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad until the following April, when his increasing infirmities compelled him to relinquish the road for awhile, with the hope that with perfect rest, freedom from responsibility and care and good nursing and medical attention he might recover. At times since then he has shown symptoms of some improvement in his condition, and a few days since he was removed to Goldsboro with the hope that the change of air might prove beneficial, and for a few days after his arrival in that city there was apparent improvement, but on Friday evening last he was stricken with paralysis, after which every prospect of his recovery was blighted and his hold upon life was only a question of a few fleeting hours. Those of his family who were not already present were at once summoned to his bedside and all were there in his dying moments except one son, who is in New Orleans.

Capt. Borden was born in Wayne county, in what is now within the corporate limits of Goldsboro, in June, 1829, and was consequently 56 years old at the time of his death. Just previous to, and during the late war, he was a mail route agent on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, a position he resigned to enlist in a company of cavalry under Captain, afterwards, Col.
Thomas Ruffin. After seeing considerable service he obtained his discharge from the army to take the position of Sheriff of Wayne county, to which he had been elected. Soon after the war, and immediately after the stockholders had regained control of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, he was appointed a passenger train conductor, a position he held up to the time of his death.

The deceased was a member of St.
John's Masonic Lodge; a member of the United Benevolent Society, of which Mr. Thomas R. Post is President, and Mr. D. H. Walsh is Vice President, and in which he was endowed to the amount of $5,000. He was also a member of the Conductors' and Engineers' Association, in which he was endowed for $2,000; and a member of the Knights of Honor, in which he was also endowed for $2,000.

Capt. Borden leaves a wife and eight children—four sons and four daughters —whose great affliction will be ameliorated by the consoling reflection that through life he had their warmest affection, and that when prostrated by disease and pain, from which only death could be a release, all that tender love and anxious solicitude could suggest was done by willing hands and affectionate hearts for his comfort. In all the relations of life, while firm and positive in his convictions of duty, he was gentle as a child. He was a careful and faithful official, and he will be sadly missed, not only by his immediate family, but by a large circle of acquaintances, who held him in the most profound esteem.

Death of Mr. Griffith.

Mr. William H. Griffith, of the police force, died at his residence, No. 519 Castle street, at about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, aged 38 years. He had been in feeble and failing health for several months with that terrible disease, consumption, but had been confined to his house and bed only a few weeks. The deceased had been a member of the police force nearly seven years, and was known all over the city for his cheerful and kindly disposition.
Everybody knew and esteemed him for the frank and cordial friendliness which was one of his most prominent characteristics. He leaves a wife and four children, and was a member in good standing of Orion Lodge No. 67, I. O. O. F., under whose direction and care the obsequies were conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon at his late residence, and thence his remains were conveyed to Oakdale Cemetery for interment.

Her form was sylph-like, and her face was just a miracle of grace.
That's why I thought it very strange Folks talked with her at such long range.
Aha! bad teeth! Her breath was tainted!
With SOZODONT she wasn't acquainted.

The Only Remedy.

Those who suffer from foul breath are open to the charge of carelessness.
It is an offense that can be speedily abated, as a single bottle of the fragrant SOZODONT will unmistakably accomplish the work. No toilet table should be without it. It will preserve and keep the teeth white, and the breath pure and sweet.

Moonlight and Music.

The next moonlight excursion of the season will be given on Wednesday night, the 26th inst., when the Passport will proceed down the river and return, being absent from the wharf about three hours. She will not stop at the "Rocks" as heretofore, which will give the young people a splendid chance for dancing under the inspiring music of the harpers. Capt. J. W. Harper and Mr. G. N. Harriess will have charge of the excursion.

The Minstrels.

McIntyre & Heath's Minstrels will open the amusement season in this city at the Opera House next Thursday night. They have a large company in which there are quite a number of the most brilliant lights in the profession.
They opened for the season in the Central Theatre in Philadelphia, and in speaking of their first performance, the Philadelphia Daily Times says: The New Central opened for the season last night with a packed house.
McIntyre & Heath's Minstrels, supported by a strong troupe of specialty performers, will occupy the stage during the week. The company is a good one throughout, and the negro sketches are particularly funny. The closing act,
"Way down South," made a hit.

Personal.

Capt. B. L. Perry, of the Parcell
House, is in Beaufort.

Mr. Geo. Z. French, of Rocky Point, is on a visit to relatives in Maine.

Mr. Charles J. Warner, agent of the Standard Dramatic Company, is in the city.

We regret to learn that Mr. B. H.
Scott is quite sick at Smithfield, Johnson county.

Dr. W. C. Green, of St. Louis, arrived here last Saturday with his little daughter on a short visit to relatives and friends in this city.

Mr. L. Vollers left on this morning's train for White Sulphur Springs, Va., where his wife and daughter have been stopping for the last three weeks.

The Othello, New Emerald, Zeb Vance and New Excelsior Penn., are the leading cook stoves, both in quality and price. They can be seen at JACOBI'S Hdw. Depot.

Officers Elected.

The Grand Lodge, Knights of Honor, which has just closed its session for 1885, at Winston, elected the following officers for the next two years: Grand Dictator, J. T. LeGrand; Grand Vice Dictator, E. M. Nadal; Grand Assistant Dictator, N. C. Dodson; Grand Chaplain, Rev. L. A. Bickle; Grand Reporter, P. C. Carlton; Grand Guide, N.
Jacobi; Grand Treasurer, S. E. Scofield; Grand Sentinel—Douthitt; Grand Guardian, — Crabtree (of Washington); Trustees, Messrs. J. C. Kennedy, Moye and Slocum; Representative to Supreme Lodge—to succeed J. D.
Taylor, Marsden Bellamy; alternate, Jordan Stone; to succeed S. S. Klutz, S.
J. Pemberton, alternate, J. M. Sprag-gins. Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy was recommended to Supreme Lodge for reappointment as State Medical Examiner.
