STATE NEWS.

Goldsboro Argus: The fish shipping season has now fully opened at Morehead and large quantities of the finny tribe, ice-packed, pass through this city every day by express, en route for the North and West.

Raleigh Visitor: The "State of Buncombe" has pretty well absorbed the officers of the State of North Carolina. At this time she has on her soil the following: Senator Vance, Senator Ransom, Representative Johnston, Gov. Scales, Attorney General Davidson, Treasurer Baile, Chief Justice South Associate Justice Merrimon and Major Finger.

Charlotte Observer: Meeklenburg's first bale of new cotton was sold in Pineville yesterday. It was raised by James Blakeney, of Providence township, weighed 500 pounds, and was bought by S. Youngs, Son & Co., at 10.70.

The Hickory Grove camp meeting is becoming a famous institution in this section of the country, and bids fair to soon eclipse the Rock Springs meeting. Hickory Grove is eight miles from the city, and is furnished with a large arbor, with partly enclosed sides and with a shingle roof.

Newbern Journal: Mrs. Filis Devanport, col., sends us a basket of beans which are from her second crop this year. —Capt. Appleton Oaksmith had a stroke of apoplexy at his residence in this city on Saturday night.

When Miss Kaichen Felt Lucky S. M. Simpson, the distribution cigar store man, on July 13th, met the Denver agent of the Louisiana State Lottery, and bought fifteen tickets for him, and sent ten of them to Leadville, to a customer who asked to buy them, that night by mail, took five of them home, gave two to Miss Kaichen, his sister-in-law, who had told him she felt lucky and to purchase for her two tickets for two dollars in the Louisiana State Lottery, and retained three himself.

has been favored with some warm weather lately, read the record of the last six days, as furnished by T. C. Harris, signal observer, at the department of agriculture: 19th, 96 degrees; 20th, 95 degrees; 21st, 95; 22d, 93; 23d, 95; 24th, 97; averaging 95.6 degrees. The total rainfall for the month up to yesterday was only half an inch.

The "Jamestown weed," or as corruptly termed, the "jimson weed," is a not at all attractive bit of vegetation, either to sight or smell. It is common here, and perhaps, all over the country. But it is not the real "Jamestown weed."

Auditor Roberts has examined thus far all the remaining applications for soldiers' pensions, some 1,200, and about 2,900 of widows' applications. There remain of the latter about 1,100 yet to be examined. Of all the applications thus far examined considerably over half are held for further proof.

It is quite silky and grows abundantly, the pods or bolls being in shape similar to those of ordinary cotton, but in size smaller, say one-fourth as large. The trees are thirty-five or forty feet in height and a foot in diameter, and stand in a swamp in Tyrrell county. The land belongs to Messrs Simmons & Biggs and Mr. Andrew Bateman.

1885. Harper's Weekly. ILLUSTRATED. HARPER'S WEEKLY has now, for twenty years, maintained its position as the leading illustrated weekly newspaper in America. With a constant increase of literary and artistic resources, it is able to offer for the ensuing year attractions unequalled by any previous volume, embracing a capital illustrated serial story by W. E. Norris; illustrated articles with special reference to the West and South, including the World's Exposition at New Orleans, entertaining short stories, mostly illustrated, and important papers by high authorities on the chief topics of the day.

Every one who desires a trustworthy political guide, an entertaining and instructive family journal, entirely free from objectionable features in either their prose or illustrations should subscribe to HARPER'S WEEKLY.

MERCHANTS, BANKERS AND MANUFACTURERS SHOULD READ BRADSTREET'S A WEEKLY JOURNAL OF TRADE, FINANCE AND PUBLIC ECONOMY. Sixteen Pages every Saturday. Oftentimes Twenty Pages. Sometimes Twenty-Four Pages. FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.

The foremost purpose of BRADSTREET'S is to be of practical service to business men. Its special trade and industrial reports; its weekly epitomes of bankruptcies throughout the United States and Canada, and the summaries of assets and liabilities, are alone worth the subscription price; its synopses of recent legal decisions are exceedingly valuable. As commercial transactions, in the wider sense, are coming to be more and more conducted on a statistical basis, the information contained in BRADSTREET'S is of the first importance both to producers and middlemen.

The Trade and Agricultural Situation throughout the United States and Canada is reported by Telegraph to BRADSTREET'S up to the hour of publication.
