THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. THURSDAY, AUGUST 27, 1885. NO. 200

large wholesale druggist and retail jobbers said there was a growing scarcity of change and one-dollar bills. Detectives are on track of the counterfeiters. Many of the "bogus" silver coins that have appeared within a few days are skillfully executed.

We noticed quite a fine display of dog collars at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

This has been indeed a lovely day. There was no City Court this morning.

The Standard Dramatic Company will present the next attractions at the Opera House.

Farmers can save time and money by getting barbed wire for their fences, at JACOBI'S Hdw. Depot.

It is a consolation to know that if times are hard and money hard to be obtained, all sorts of provisions are very cheap.

The Oak City Blues, colored, Capt. Smith, of Raleigh, paraded and marched through several of our streets this forenoon and made quite a creditable display, considering their number, which was small.

FOR MEN AND BOYS—Pee Dee Plaids. Working shirts. "The poor man's friend", all sizes. A first class article. At 25 cents, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market st., J. ELSBACH, Prop.

The cool wave has struck this section, and we shall probably have no more insufferably hot nights this season. Last night was excellent for sleeping, and light fires were comfortable this morning.

The street brigade have had their hands full for the last two days in cleaning up the effects of Tuesday's storm, and it will take several days more before the streets will be cleared of all the trees and limbs which were blown down.

This is the time of year when sickness is apt to prevail and it behooves our people to take every precaution to prevent disease. Chills and fevers are easily caught, but they are not so easily gotten rid of, and it is well to remember that "an ounce of preventive is better than a pound of cure."

Messrs M. W. Divine and E. J. Thorpe were at the Hotel Brighton, near Charleston, on Sunday and Monday and are now regretting that they did not remain until Tuesday when they might have witnessed the great storm.

As will be seen by advertisement in another column, the steamer D. J. Black, Capt. R. P. Paddison, from and after to-day will make two trips per week, but will proceed as far as White Hall, on the Black river. She will leave here on Tuesdays and Fridays at 1 p. m.

A friend very properly suggests that praise and thanksgiving be given to Almighty God in all our churches next Sunday morning for His wonderful preservation of our city during the recent storm, which was so destructive in our sister city of Charleston, and for the good weather enjoyed by our citizens during the season.

Down River. The excursion party of the Howard Relief Steam Fire Engine Co. No. 1, was well attended. The Germania Concert Band accompanied them, and regaled our citizens with some very nice music before leaving. We were glad to see the Passport with so many on her decks, as an encouragement to our German fire laddies. They are excellent firemen and they know just how to make an excursion party enjoyable.

Her form was sylph-like, and her face was just a miracle of grace. That's why I thought it very strange. Folks talked with her at such long range. Ah! bad teeth! Her breath was tainted. With SOZODONT she wasn't acquainted.

The Only Remedy. Those who suffer from foul breath are open to the charge of carelessness. It is an offence that can be speedily abated, as a single bottle of the fragrant SOZODONT will unmistakably accomplish the work. No toilet table should be without it. It will preserve and keep the teeth white, and the breath pure and sweet.

Exports Foreign. Br. barque Arica, Searrell, cleared to-day for London, with 1,700 casks spirits turpentine and 1,150 barrels rosin, valued at $29,233, shipped by Messrs D. R. Murchison & Co., and Paterson, Downing & Co. Schr. Dione, Raynes, cleared for Fort de France, Martinique, with 183,000 feet of lumber, valued at $3,251, shipped by Messrs E. Kidder & Son, making a total of exports foreign amounting to $32,484.

Street Parade. McIntyre & Heath's Minstrels, 40 in number, arrived here from Goldsboro, where they performed last night, on the local freight train at a little after noon to-day. They paraded our street and were a nicely dressed and fine appearing body of men. They were accompanied by a band of music who were excellent performers. The newspapers wherever this troupe have appeared are unqualified in their praise of its performances. They will show to-night at the Opera House and will have a crowded house.

Literary. The North Carolina Medical Journal, for August has been received. The subjects treated in the present number are of unusual interest to the profession as well as to the great mass of humanity, and judging from a non-professional standpoint, the several subjects are discussed with much skill and after careful study and research. The present number is fully up to any of its predecessors, and is a valuable acquisition to the medical and surgical literature of the State. Dr. Thomas F. Wood, the editor, is careful and pains-taking in his work and the Journal is published at a subscription price of $3 per annum, or 30 cents per single copy.

The Benefactor. The Clyde line steamship Benefactor, Capt. Tribon, arrived at her wharf in this city at about 8 o'clock this morning looking just as if nothing had happened, and she had not just passed through a most fearful storm at sea. She reports that the gale struck the ship when off Cape Lookout on Tuesday afternoon and continued to increase in violence with the wind from the South and raining in torrents, until 7 o'clock p. m., when she was hove to about 12 miles South of Cape Lookout under steam on her starboard, or off shore, tack. She remained with her head to the wind all night, and until about 6 o'clock on Wednesday morning, when the fury of the gale began to abate and the wind hauled to Westward. She then resumed her course under steam and sail and made Frying Pan Lightship at 10 o'clock last night and arrived off the bar at 1 o'clock this morning. The gale was very severe, but the Benefactor rode it out with no further difficulty than was occasioned by having her decks constantly deluged with water. They had doubts that they should be able to find Frying Pan Lightship, as they feared that she would be blown from her position by the force of the gale, and were happily disappointed when they found her in her appropriate place, having rode at her moorings and successfully withstood the fearful attacks of the storm.

A Trip Through Pender. Leaving Wilmington last Saturday we took a few days' jaunt through the County of Pender, to catch a breath of fresh air and visit relatives in different portions of the county. In our travels we found the crops in a pretty fair condition, but money very scarce; in fact we found very few who had any at all. This, we suppose, is owing to the low price of turpentine, which is the only product at this season of the year that brings them in any money.

We visited Burgaw, the county seat, and called on the officials in the Court House and found them to be a clever set of entertaining and sociable gentlemen, but crying "hard times and no money."

The mail facilities throughout the county are not satisfactory to a majority of the reading public, as the daily mail from Rocky Point for Point Caswell, leaves the former place about three hours before the arrival of the train from Wilmington which causes the mail to lie at that place a day and night before it is in transit, and makes it three days old before they receive it, when they should get it on the same day it leaves this city. The distance is only 17 miles between the points and we think that in the time allowed by the Government between the two places the connection could be very easily made by having a relief of horses half way between Rocky Point and Point Caswell. This should be remedied by the Government, if possible.

The Harvest. The crops are generally good throughout the State, but in some localities they have suffered for want of rains in due season. In the vicinity of Goldsboro, for instance, they had had no rain for about four weeks until Tuesday last and at that time there was only a light shower. The crops are now nearly all too far advanced towards maturity to be benefited by rains, and in the section named it is thought that the shrinkage will be about one-fourth. In some other places there is the same complaint, but in nearly every section the crops are abundant and will yield a bountiful harvest.

Personal. Col. H. B. Skott was in the city to-day. Mr. J. D. Kelley, son of Mr. George Kelley, of this city, is here on a visit from Birmingham Ala. Mr. John Mauder will soon open a new marble yard at the Southwest intersection of Front and Mulberry streets.

Messrs McCaffrey and Lyston, the professional base ball players, left on this morning's train for their homes in Baltimore. Capt. J. C. Slocomb, after a furlough of two weeks, has returned to duty as passenger conductor on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad.

Capt. John L. Maffit and crew returned from below on the Passport Tuesday evening and report no sharks caught on this cruise; to badly scared by the storm.

Mr. L. R. Parson, of Mount Holly, N. J., and a graduate of the tuning department of the New England conservatory of music, arrived in the city last night. He intends to make Wilmington a permanent residence, and will devote his time to the tuning of pianos and organs. His qualifications for the business are of the highest order and he comes with the very best recommendations. See his professional card in another column.

Rev. B. R. Hall and family, who have been visiting our city for about two week past, left for their home at Shelby, N. C., last evening. Mr. Hall has many warm friends here amongst all the denominations, he having been pastor at one time for two years of the Fifth Street M. E. Church. These friends did not allow him much rest, besides preaching four sermons here during his visit and visiting the sick and old friends, he administered the rite of baptism to about twenty children.

The Southern bound freight traffic is now good, as many of the merchant's have bought their stocks of Fall and Winter goods and they are now being brought South upon every train. The business has just begun, but it is now large and in the course of a very short time will be of such magnitude as to require large trains to fill the demand for transportation.

Sunday School Convention. SECOND DAY. Convention met according to adjournment, Rev. J. G. Fry in the chair. Singing by the choir. Prayer by Rev. G. G. McGee.

There were seventy-two delegates. The entire Wilmington District has been represented and the reports show an increase over last year. Many reports were made of the workings and teachings, plans and objects of the Sunday School. Of these reports, many show marks of advancement in this great nursery of the church, and much of encouragement was said to cheer those self-denying Christians whose labors are with the children.

Rev. R. H. W. Leak, an agent of the Sunday School Union, was introduced to the convention. Rev. J. D. Cook and Sarah Curtis, from Raleigh, were introduced to the convention. The following subject was discussed: "Temperance Education."

No one who was present yesterday can doubt that new life and increased zeal for Sunday School work was instilled in all Christians in that vast audience. Adjourned to 9 o'clock to-day.

Pic Nic for Purchasers. Bargains in Clothing. Odds and ends and broken assortment of sizes will be sold without regard to cost. A chance for all in want of Clothing or Furnishing Goods. Our rule is not to carry over any goods from one season to another if low prices will sell them, therefore we cut prices accordingly. It is useless to quote prices. Come and see the goods and you will be astonished at the marvelous bargains we are giving our patrons. SHRIER, the Old Reliable Clothier, 114 Market st. Sign of the Golden Arm.

The Othello, New Emerald, Zeb Vance and New Excelsior Penn., are the leading cook stoves, both in quality and price. They can be seen at JACOBI'S Hdw. Depot.
