The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Pat's spare moments are being devoted to the writing of her memoirs.

Three of the original seven men appointed, with one commissioned officer, to guard Garfield's grave have gone crazy.

The Salvation Army is threatened with prosecution in Boston for profanity because it gives "three cheers for Jesus."

Gambling in Chicago is at last suppressed. So say the Mayor and the Chief of Police. So it appears, because the authorities in earnest, and are giving up their leases, selling their furniture, and quitting the city.

Archdeacon Farrar times his first visit to America very fortunately. His biography of Christ might have failed to make him popular, but his eulogy of Gen. Grant and American Democracy in Westminster Abbey secures him big houses for as many lectures as he chooses to give.

Oakville, Canada, brings forward the champion man man, in a resident to whose dying wish the doctor prescribed wine. Wine could not easily be had and the doctor furnished some from his private stores. When he sent in his bill the sorrowing widower laid an information against him for selling liquor in a prohibition county contrary to the local law.

The name of the correspondent who represented the Associated Press at Mount McGregor during the last days of Gen. Grant, and who so vividly described the death and journey down the mountain, is F. W. Mack. He had represented the Associated Press in New York during Gen. Grant's last days in that city and was allowed free access to the house.

It is stated at the postoffice department that the system of special letter delivery will not go into operation before October 1. It is found that it takes a long while to get the preliminary work done in connection with its introduction. Clerks are preparing lists of the towns designated by the law, based upon the returns of the last census. Upon examination, it is found that there are 620 cities and towns in the United States containing a population of the required number.

President Cleveland and Dr. Ward have been in camp since Monday, August 17, at Willis's Pond, N. Y., nine miles from the Prospect House. The President is enjoying good health as far as can be learned through friends, and takes much pleasure in the open-air sports, having been fishing and hunting with the rest of the party. The rumors that he was ill seem to have been started because Dr. Sawyer, an old friend of Dr. Ward, was called by a telegram to join the party.

Several hundred members of the Zechman family in Pennsylvania are excited over the information that a fortune of $20,000,000 is awaiting them in Switzerland. They are now advertising for the recovery of the missing family Bible, which alone is needed to establish the claim of evidence to secure the fortune. The family say that the last man who had it was Fred Moyer, who when last heard of resided near Williamsport, but he cannot now be found.

The Salvation Army of London has issued an appeal for $100,000 to rescue fallen women and to send them to the United States and Canada where they can have opportunities to reform and live respectably. The appeal is meeting with great success. Mr. Samuel Morley, M. P., for Bristol, has subscribed $10,000. Three other gentlemen have given $500 each, and $35,000 was raised in one day. At the meeting of the National Conference for the Protection of Young Girls, held in St. James' Hall on Friday, there were 300 women present.

He-form was slyph-like, and her face was just a miracle of grace. That's why I thought it very strange. Folks talked with her at such long range. Ah! her teeth! Her breath was tainted. With SOZODONT she wasn't acquainted.

The Only Remedy. Those who suffer from foul breath are open to the charge of carelessness. It is an offence that can be speedily abated, as a single bottle of the fragrant SOZODONT will unmistakably accomplish the work. No toilet table should be without it. It will preserve and keep the teeth white, and the breath pure and sweet.

WANTED—Ladies and Gentlemen

OPERA HOUSE—Standard Dramatic Co

There was no City Court this morning.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 7 bales.

We noticed quite a fine display of dog collars at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

The Standard Dramatic Company will occupy the Opera House all of next week.

The cool wave still continues and the weather has been threatening rain nearly all day.

It is excellent weather for ripening scuppernong grapes, of which there promises to be a bountiful harvest.

JOHN DYER has just received a lot of fine suitings for Fall and Winter. They are now on exhibition.

The season for excursion parties is rapidly drawing to a close, and there will be but a few more this season.

Messrs. F. S. Coburn and E. H. Fonville have purchased Lloyd's meadow, in Onslow county, and intend to put it under cultivation. They will raise rice and will erect a rice mill.

Rev. E. S. Alderman will preach at Moore's Creek Church on the third Sunday in September, at 11 o'clock, and at Point Caswell at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of the same day.

The excursion of the Cornet Concert Club, which was postponed on account of the bad weather, will take place some time during the coming week. The precise day will be decided at a meeting of the club to be held to night.

FOR MEN AND BOYS—Pee Dee Plaids. Working shirts. "The poor man's friend," all sizes. A first class article at 25 cents, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 27 Market St., J. ELSBACH, Prop.

Indications. For the South Atlantic States, light local rains, followed by fair weather, Easterly winds, becoming variable, and slight rise in temperature.

Flag Drill. The flag drill by the young ladies will be at the armory of the Wilmington Light Infantry to-night. It is expected that 25 young ladies will be in attendance. The uniform committee will also meet at the same time and place and report upon the style of uniform which they have concluded to adopt.

At the Rocks. The writer was at the Rocks yesterday. It is very pleasant there now and September will probably prove a very popular month at that point. The fishing in that month is generally the most interesting of the entire season. We visited Fort Fisher for the second time this Summer, and on this occasion we were fortunate to find a number of interesting souvenirs of the terrible fights which took place there, unearthed by the recent storm.

Yesterday's Excursion. The excursion given by the members of Howard Relief Steam Fire Engine Co. No. 1, on the Passport yesterday, was well attended, notwithstanding the cool weather, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The Germania Cornet Band—who are, by the way, a remarkably fine looking body of men in their neat uniforms—discoursed some very sweet music and the harpers furnished that which was needed by the dancers. It was a very pleasant affair and we hope it will not be the last the company will give this season.

Pic Nic for Purchasers. Bargains in Clothing. Odds and ends and broken assortment of sizes will be sold without regard to cost. A chance for all in want of Clothing or Furnishing Goods. Our rule is not to carry over any goods from one season to another if low prices will sell them, therefore we cut prices accordingly. It is useless to quote prices. Come and see the goods and you will be astonished at the marvelous bargains we are giving our patrons. SHRIER, the Old Reliable, 114 Market St. Sign of the Golden Arm.

Farmers can save time and money by getting barbed wire for their fences, at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

Fifth Street M. E. Church.

The improvements and additions which have been in progress for several weeks in the Fifth Street M. E. Church, are now rapidly approaching completion and are so far advanced that a description of the changes may be given. The enlargement consists of the addition of eighteen feet in length to the front or West end of the building. By this addition to its length a commodious vestibule has been arranged, while formerly the front door opened directly into the body of the church. This has also given room for a spacious gallery over the vestibule for the accommodation of the organ and choir. The old seats in the body of the church have been removed and their places supplied with new settees, made of native North Carolina pine. The altar and pulpit have also been removed and replaced by a much more convenient arrangement and one which is more pleasing to the eye. The side galleries have also been removed, which will cause no inconvenience to worshippers, as the increased seating capacity on the first floor will be amply sufficient. By this change, also, the interior of the house will be made much lighter in day time and for night service there are two chandeliers with 21 burners each. The windows are large and gothic in style. These will be supplied with panes of imitation stained glass, to soften the light. All of the interior wood work is of North Carolina pine, oiled and varnished, and it has a rich as well as solid appearance, such as can be given by no other material.

The study is immediately in rear of the pulpit and is connected with the pastor's residence by a plank walk which amounts to a prolongation of the piazza of the dwelling.

A historical chart of the church is being prepared which, when completed, will be placed in a conspicuous place in the vestibule. This will give a synoptical history of the church, its several pastors, the terms of their ministrations, the increase in membership and other matters of interest connected with the church.

The outside of the building has been repainted of a light lead color, presenting a pleasant appearance to the eye. We are glad to notice these improvements and to know that the church is in a prosperous condition and that all its members and worshippers are profoundly pleased with their pastor, Rev. D. H. Tuttle.

The Minstrels. We were not present at the entertainment last night, and such are the conflicting opinions of those who did attend that we are somewhat in doubt as to the merits of the performance. That it was novel and in some respects excellent there can be no doubt. All agree on that point. Some of the singing was pronounced good and some was thought to be very poor. The house was one of the largest ever seen in this city, and the general opinion seems to be that there was enough fun for the money. It is claimed that the performance was seriously cut, which will condemn the best company in the world with a Wilmington audience. Our people pay their money to see a show or play as it is advertised, and have a just right to demand that the performers shall fulfil their part of the agreement. The excuse that the performance was necessarily cut in order to make train connection for other engagements is not a valid plea, unless it is made beforehand so that our people may know just how much they may expect.

The Vets. on a Shoot. Capt. Albert Worth won the handsome prize tendered by Mr. R. E. Heide, of this city, to the Veteran Corps of the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, of which he is a member. The Observer says:

The handsome prize offered to the Fayetteville Independent Co., by Mr. R. E. Heide, of Wilmington, put new life into the old folks, and they turned out in full force. 35 in number, and marched as nimbly to the tap of the drum as regulars, and the score made by them proved that at long range their eyesight was still good, and their target, with many bulls eyes, reminded them of former days. All seemed to enjoy the day, and were willing to compete with the juniors not only in shooting, but in the enjoyment of many of the refreshments that clustered around the spring beneath a shady pine. C. I. Albert H. Worth, always a crack shot, scored 21, and gained the elegant silver pitcher and goblet, but close to him were others with scores of 18 and 19.

Personal.

Mr. W. H. Neal, of Laurinburg, is in the city to-day.

Capt V. V. Richardson, of Columbus, is registered at the Parcell House.

We regret to state that Capt. H. C. Brock, Chief of Police, is quite sick and confined to his house.

Mr. Williams T. Bannerman, Clerk of Pender County Superior Court, is in the city to-day with his wife.

Miss Gedie Taylor, daughter of Mr. J. W. Taylor, has left the city for Thomasville, N. C., where she will attend school to finish her education.

Rev. F. T. Wooten, a student of Wake Forest College, is in the city on a brief visit and will conduct the services at Brooklyn Hall to-night, and will preach there at 8 o'clock next Sunday night.

The Drama.

We are glad to be able to state that the Standard Dramatic Company, who played an engagement here last Spring, and who made many friends among the theatre-goers in this city, have engaged to play here again for a short season. They will open on Monday night next in Zingara and this will be followed by other pleasant pieces. The box sheet will be open to-morrow morning at Heinberger's and the low price of admission established by them will be maintained. Since leaving us they have played in Charlotte, Raleigh, Newbern and other places, and to good houses everywhere. Let them have a substantial welcome on their return to Wilmington.

Merely a Goak.

A good one is told on a young M. D. of our acquaintance. He was at Masonboro Sound a few nights since on a visit to a gentleman resident there, and in company with a number of others, ladies and gentlemen, was walking on the gangway to the bath house, when suddenly a board which was loose gave way with him and he fell into the water. Had he waded out the danger would have been slight, as the water was not more than 12 inches deep, but when he struck the bottom he got slightly wet. The next thing was of course some dry clothes, and he essayed a suit of his host's. How well they fitted can be imagined from the fact that the M. D. is quite a portly man and his host just the reverse—all legs, in fact. Since then the gentleman has had to stand the fire of a great many jokes, all more or less to the point. Here is ours: Let him take his salt bath next trip in homeopathic doses, and not all at one time.

In Earnest.

It would seem that the efforts making to continue the Carolina Central R. R. on to the Cranberry works are earnest and decided and we hope that it may yet be done. The Shelby Aurora says:

The Cranberry Co. are working for their route. Gen. Hoke says he will come here after the election and push this enterprise. He and Maj. Winder, armed with maps and surveys, went last week on a tour of inspection to Cranberry, and Maj. Winder pronounced the mountain route better than he anticipated. They mean business. It is said that the owner of the Seaboard Air Line, Mr. Robinson, of Baltimore, favors the advance to Cranberry and Tennessee for iron, coal and through freights. We think his route to Cranberry will be built before the Boston Construction Co. reach Tennessee.

Burke county has put her shoulder to the wheel; one of her citizens has subscribed $100,000 of which $5,000 cash has been paid to the Treasurer, and next month Burke county will order an election on a railroad tax.
