VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1885.

A panic prevails in that portion of Clay county, W. Va., lying along Syca more Creek, arising from the frightful which has broken out among the few inhabitants of that locality. So far about fifty persons have been attacked, of whom a score have already died. The local physicians seem powerless Lite insurance policies now in force to afford relief. The Weekly Progress

Opera House.

There was a large audience at the Opera House last night to witness the performance of Bartley Campbell's celebrated play, entitled "My Partner," by the Standard Dramatic Company, and all present were highly pleased with the efforts of the actors. The leading parts, and especially Mary Brandon, by Alice Irving, Joe Saunders, by A M. Hamilton, and Wing Lee, by S. B. McElreth, were very well impersonated and had the house in full sympathy with them from the start We have seen much poorer acting when the prices of admission were four times as large, and we are glad that our citizens have been furnished with a means of amusement at prices within the reach of all, and hope that the day of extortortionate prices has passed.

She has been for some time on the marine railway for such repairs as were necessary under the water line, but was launched yesterday, and now lies at the wharf at the ship-yard. That she is a staunch and well built yessei is shown by the fact that with all the buffeting of the waves while upon the beach not one of her knees nor any of her planking or timbers were started, and all of these Dr. F.
