THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1885. NO. 211

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

In Genoa the policemen wear silk hats and carry silver-headed walking sticks.

The first Hindoo lady who ever went into trade has opened a book store in Bombay.

The Gordon fund, now swollen to $120,000, is to be used to found a boys' home in London.

The Anthropological Congress, which is soon to be held at Rome, will have a feature in a collection of 700 skulls of criminals, numbered and classified.

Popular advertisements in Montreal are now worded: "Our premises are thoroughly disinfected every day from basement to top floor." "Arrangements are being made for all employees, not already done, to be vaccinated to-morrow."

"Genesta," the name of the crack English yacht, is the botanical (Latin) name for the broom plant. The latter was the symbol of the line of English monarchs which began with Henry II and ended at Bosworth with Richard III, planta genesta—Plantagenet.

A live toad and a petrified snake were found together in a vein of blue limestone at West Union, W. Va., Saturday. The snake was hanging by the toad's leg, and appearances indicated that it was trying to swallow the toad when they were buried.

The Pall Mall Gazette describes Talmage as "the great American Boanerges, the eloquent and popular pulpit, whose thunder is heard through-out the States; whose fiery anathemas and fearless denunciations rouse the good citizens of Brooklyn twice every Sunday."

French railways annually kill one passenger in every 2,000,000 carried; English railways one in every 21,500,000. French railways annually wound one passenger in every 500,000 carried; English, one in 750,000; Belgian, one in 1,650,000, and Prussian, one in 4,000,000.

S. S. Renfro, ex-sheriff of Sumter county, Ala., in the Court at Livingston last week, was convicted of horse-stealing and sentenced to the penitentiary for five years. During the days of reconstruction he ruled his county as its chief Republican organizer and law officer.

Statistics show that the wheat trade of California, Oregon and Washington Territory with Europe gives employment annually to more than 400 sailing vessels, going around Cape Horn. The average passage for each vessel is about 16,000 miles, in an average time of a little over four months.

Dakota, Nebraska, New Mexico and Florida have taken advantage of the provision made for the payment by the United States of one-half of the cost of taking a census in such States and Territories as might take a decennial census, upon condition that the returns be filed with the secretary of the interior on or before September 1.

There is a good demand for help, and especially for young girls, in Montana. Cooks, chambermaids and waiter girls are in particular demand; they readily command from $15 to $21.50 per week, with board. Female cooks are scarce at $50 to $60 per month. Chambermaids readily secure $40 per month and waiter girls from $35 to $50—of course including board.

A novel method of committing suicide was that employed by a Brooklyn peddler the other day. He walked into a stone yard, and picking up a big stone, threw it into the air and let it fall plump upon the top of his bare head. The stone made a deep wound, but he nevertheless kept up the practice and had succeeded in dangerously injuring himself with the stones when interrupted by officers. His wounds were found not to be fatal.

A German writes to an English paper that celery is a specific for rheumatism. In order to be effectual, however, it must be cooked. His method is to make a soup of the stalks and roots. Generally celery is eaten raw, which prevents its therapeutic qualities being known. Another method of using it is to have the celery cut into bits, boiled in water until soft, and the water drunk by the patient. It can be served warm, with toasted bread. This, it is said, will subdue the worst cases of rheumatism.

There are still public lands open to settlement in nineteen States and eight Territories. The prices vary from $1.25 to $2.50 per acre.

The outlook in regard to Spain and Germany is more peaceful. Emperor William seems to be determined on a pacific adjustment and has telegraphed to this effect to King Alfonso. But Spain seems to be on the verge of a revolution.

Gen. D. H. Hill will deliver the annual address before the Virginia division of the Confederate Association of the Army of Northern Virginia, at Richmond, on the 23d of next month. His subject will be "The Confederate Soldier in the Ranks."

A terrible cyclone is reported from Ohio. Washington Court House, a town of 4,000 inhabitants, was almost completely demolished, and it is probable that more than a score of lives have been lost. Hardly a residence in the town escaped, fully 4,000 buildings having been destroyed.

The Durham Reporter may possibly have a libel suit on its hands, but we doubt it. The Reporter has been charging that one A. T. Robertson, who has been in Durham and is now in the West, is a fraud; that he purchases real estate and gives worthless checks on the Durham bank in payment for the same. The Charlotte Observer says that Robertson is on his way to Durham with his counsel and will bring suit for criminal libel against the Reporter. We doubt if he ever gets to Durham.

We noticed quite a fine display of dog collars at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

No oysters in market yet. Too hot.

The New York papers failed to reach here last night.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 164 bales.

There is a good deal of sickness in the city just now, fevers being the predominant disease.

Make your selections for the winter. The styles shown by DYER are the finest ever brought to this city.

There was no City Court this morning, and much of a dullness pervaded the atmosphere of the City Hall.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer in this office registered 88 degrees, with the wind from the North-west.

To-day being the Hebrew New Year, was observed as a holiday and the stores of all the Jews in the city were closed.

The river is yet distressingly low and the steamers have a difficult and tedious time in getting through from Fayetteville to this port.

For the best unlaundried white shirt in the city, call at the Wilmington Shirt Factory; only 75c. J. ELSBACH, Prop., No. 27 Market st.

This is the seventy-second anniversary of Perry's victory over the British fleet on Lake Erie, that battle having been fought on the 10th of September, 1813.

Farmers can save time and money by getting barbed wire for their fences, at JACOBI'S Hdw. Depot.

A match game of baseball was played yesterday afternoon between the Comets and Brickbats, which resulted in a victory for the latter in a score of one to nothing.

Farmers in the country are busy picking out cotton, and all the boys and girls who have been without employment now find as much as they can attend to in the cotton fields.

Nor. brig San Juan, Bache, cleared to-day for Montevideo, for orders, with 200 casks spirits turpentine, 486 barrels rosin and 13,576 feet lumber, valued at $8,085.99, shipped by Messrs. E. Kidder & Son.

New Wood Yard.

Messrs. R. E. Lloyd & Co., commission merchants and dealers in general merchandise and country produce, at 130 North Water street, have established a large wood yard at the foot of the new market and near Messrs. W. E. Davis & Son. They cut their own wood, lighter it here themselves and deliver it on their own drays and carts. Special attention is invited to their advertisement, as it appears elsewhere in this issue.

Too Often.

Rachel Johnson, colored, who lived on Sixth street, North of the railroad, don't live there now. She was taken sick a few days since and a physician prescribed a powder and a pill, to be taken every four hours. She exceeded her instructions and took a pill every hour until she had swallowed 17 of them, in consequence of which she died. We know the absolute necessity of drug stores, but firmly believe that any attempt to establish an apothecary shop in the human system will result in certain disaster.

Personal.

Mr. B. W. Kleibacker, business manager of the "Tally Ho" Co., is in the city and registered at the Parcell House.

Mr. J. M. Axley, who has been in the city for the past three weeks engaged in establishing a branch of the Franklin Square Library, left on this morning's train for Raleigh. Thence he will go direct to Knoxville, Tenn.

Our good friend, Capt. D. T. Ward, of the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line, was in the city to-day, having just returned from a short visit to Smithville, where he has been spending a part of his vacation. He leaves this evening on his return to Raleigh.

In Self Defence.

We learn that a party of gentlemen at Smithville went out on a deer-driving expedition yesterday. Among the hunters was one who has a great fondness for the sport and has followed it with spirit from boyhood until now, when he has reached nearly to middle life, but had never succeeded in killing a deer until yesterday, when the animal—a fine buck—came rushing so near him that he was obliged to kill it to keep from being run over and perhaps badly injured. At any rate the deer was slain—it weighed 103 pounds dressed—and the gentleman escaped uninjured, which was a result so entirely unlooked for and unexpected that the friends of the latter feared for the consequences and a party of them concluded that it would be well to remain with him over night, and went to his residence for that purpose, but to their surprise, as well as joy, they found him so entirely calm and self possessed that their services were not needed and they return to their several homes.

A Counterfeit.

One night during the engagement of the Standard Dramatic Company at the Opera House, a young gentleman of this city attired himself in some of his sister's clothing and, escorted by an elder brother, went to witness the performance. The make-up was so neat and attractive, the disguise was so complete and the impersonation of a young lady was so perfect that no one mistook the fact, and a drummer who happened to be in the city and present was so completely smitten with the charms of the supposed young lady that he sought and obtained an introduction in due form, and thinking he had a "mash," he sat beside her (him) the remainder of the evening talking the tenderest sort of sentiment intermixed with no small amount of "gush." He never discovered the counterfeit, and when he left the young lady (gentleman) he was fully impressed with the idea that he was in a fair way of making a complete conquest of the heart of one of the sweetest young ladies in the city. We wonder how he will feel if he should ever discover the trick.

"I want some SOZODONT," said he. "Just out," the cunning druggist said. "But here's some powder known to be As good." The patron turned and fled. Asking, "Do you suppose I don't know nothing equals SOZODONT?"

Plain Talk.

There is a preservative principle in SOZODONT that effectually preserves the teeth from decay. Chemists pronounce it wholesome. Rich and poor endorse it. No lady ever tried it without approving its cleansing and purifying properties. It outshells all other dentifrices. Ask for SOZODONT, and take no substitute.

The Othello, New Emerald, Zeb Vance and New Excelsior Penn., are the leading cook stoves, both in quality and price. They can be seen at JACOBI'S Hdw. Depot.

In large sections of Duplin and Wayne Counties there has been a protracted dry spell without any rain for several weeks, until a few days ago. This has materially injured the crops and it is estimated that cotton and corn will fall short at least one-fourth.

The next entertainment at the Opera House will be on Tuesday night, the 15th inst., when Joaquin Miller's famous play of Tally Ho will be presented, with Mr. Robert I. Downing in the leading character of Hank Monk, the stage driver of the Sierras.

Special Reduction.

Mr. H. Cronenberg, proprietor of the well-known photograph gallery next East of this office, advertises in this issue a special reduction in price, to hold good for thirty days from this date. As the offer is limited all those in need of good work in his line should take advantage of it at once.

Challenge Accepted.

The "Pony Four" of the Wilmington Light Infantry, consisting of Third Sergeant W. N. Harris, and privates J. J. Henrick, Jr., H. Gerken and W. Willson, have had a challenge posted in the Company's Armory for some time for any other four in the command to compete with them in a trial of skill, to consist of the manual of arms, marchings and target practice at 200 yards distance. The challenge has now been accepted by a four composed of First Sergeant W. R. Morrison, Second Sergeant Geo. Harris, Jr., Fourth Sergeant B. W. Dunham and Corporal G. P. Howey. It is not definitely determined when the trial will take place, but when it does there will be some skillful military work and the contest will be most hotly and obstinately contested.

Distressing News.

Mr. E. H. Keathly received the unwelcome and entirely unexpected intelligence this morning that his son, aged about 14 years, was seriously and alarmingly sick at the residence of his grandmother in Duplin county. It seems that the lad was spending the vacation at his grandmother's, and a few days since had the misfortune to cut his foot with an axe, inflicting an ugly, but not necessarily a dangerous wound. Erysipelas supervened, which threw the young lad into a fever and he is now in a critical condition. Mr. Keathly, together with his wife and family, started on this morning's train to go to the afflicted one and in all human probability they are at his bedside ere now.
