Gov. Hoody talks like one who expects to win.
Hellbottle is a new liquid explosive of the dynamite sort.
Worth, the Parisian, says that he loses $40,000 a year through bad debts.
Colonel McClure's new synonym for bloody-shirtism is Delirium Sherman.
Delicately tinted seaweed is the September garniture a la mode for sea shore hats.
Col. J. B. Walton, the well-known commander of the Washington Artillery, died at New Orleans on the 8th, aged 72 years.
Census returns from various parts of Massachusetts show a considerable reduction in population as compared with the census of 1875.
Philadelphia Record: Despite all the sound and fury of Messrs. John Sherman and Foraker, none of Mr. Hayes' bees has as yet laid an egg with "War" inscribed on the shell. Mr. Hayes is evidently out of politics.
Boston Post: Not a penny has been sent to Chairman Cooper, of Pennsylvania, by the pension clerks who received his begging circular. The time has gone for bulldozing the clerks, a fact which the managers of the G. O. P. must sadly realize.
William D. Howells has been engaged to write exclusively for Harper's Magazine hereafter, the consideration being $10,000 a year, it is said, and his story, which is soon to begin in the Century, will therefore be his last contribution to that publication.
Five out of the twenty-one Presidents of the United States were of Scotch Irish lineage—Jackson, Polk, Buchanan, Johnson and Arthur; two of Scotch—Grant and Hayes; one of Welsh—Jefferson, and one of Dutch—Van Buren, the remaining twelve being of English descent.
The Washington correspondent of the Boston Journal says: "It is conceded in diplomatic circles here that the Bismarck-Cuba agitation has assumed rather alarming proportions. At both the German and Spanish Legations it is admitted that the developments are watched with great interest."
Nobody in Washington appears to believe the story that Postmaster-General Vilas is to return from the Cabinet to become minister to Austria. It is very confidently stated by Gen. Vilas' friends that he could not be induced to leave the United States; that his ambitions and interests all lie in his career in the United States, and that he is too young and aspiring a politician to be disposed of for four years in such a manner.
A patent has been issued to two men in Philadelphia for an apparatus to run sewing machines. The inventors have succeeded in constructing an apparatus which it is said, does away with the fatiguing treadle. The motive power is ordinary clock springs, arranged so as to run the motor with any speed desired, by simply bearing the foot on the rest. A few moments' winding up suffices to store enough power in the motors to run a sewing machine all day.
The Chicago police and firemen are to have a gold medal prepared for presentation in cases of unusual bravery. This is the idea of Judge Lambert Tree, minister to Belgium, who has contributed $700 for the purpose. Of this $100 will be spent for a die, and the interest of the remainder is to be used for a yearly medal, to be given to the policeman or fireman who shall have performed the most distinguished act of bravery in saving life or property during the year.
The Wisconsin Grand Lodge of Good Templars, recently in session in Madison, adopted a resolution in which it holds that "no Good Templar should take any part either in calling for an election under the provisions of the new license law or voting on the price of license in the event an election is held. Our order is opposed to all license, high or low. We sympathize with every movement made in good faith to put an end to the liquor traffic. In this State the order has looked upon the Prohibition party as such a movement, and does not hesitate to say god-speed."

The Opera House.

Of the play which is to be presented to the amusement-loving people of Wilmington to-morrow night by the Robt. L. Downing company, the Brooklyn Daily Eagle says:
"The charm of 'Tally Ho' is the genuine humanity it discloses. From the moment Hank Monk enters upon the scene the auditors are in thorough sympathy with the bluff, hearty, generous and whole-souled specimen of California manhood represented by Mr. Downing."
City Court.
There were five cases for the Mayor's consideration this morning, but only two of them disposed of as the others obtained a continuance.
John Davis, a colored youth, charged with disorderly conduct at the Carolina Central depot, was fined $5, with the alternative of 10 days in the city prison. He went below.
Sam Patrick, also colored, was charged with being thoroughly drunk and helplessly down, for which he was required to pay a fine of $5 or go below for 10 days. He also went below and the matinee was ended for the day.
Yesterday's Fire.
The alarm of fire was sounded at about half past 11 o'clock yesterday forenoon, while a large proportion of our citizens were at church. The alarm was caused by the burning of a small one story frame building, occupied by colored people, on the causeway about 300 yards from the ferry on the West side of the river. As the fire was located outside of the city and consequently outside of the fire limits the engines nor Hook & Ladder trucks were taken across. The hooks and ladders and axes, however, were carried over by members of the Hook & Ladder Co. and were made very useful in preventing the spread of the flames to contiguous property. A good many of the members of the fire department went over and did all that could be done under the circumstances. The fire caught on the roof, from the chimney, and had gotten under such headway when first discovered that it was impossible to save the building from total destruction. The property belonged to Mr. John D. Bellamy, Jr., and was not insured. Loss estimated at $150.
The Special Delivery.
As Wilmington is one of the cities in which the new special delivery of ten cents letters is to be established, our people will be interested to know that the messengers' books, record books and forms of oath required of the employees are now being sent out to the special delivery offices so that the system may go into operation on October 1. A notice has been sent to the postmasters at the offices, requesting them to send to the department for approval lists of the names of messengers called for in the circular of the Postmaster-General. So far less than twenty postmasters have complied with the request. A large number of placards exhibiting the names of the cities and towns where the special delivery service will be operated have been sent out to presidential postmasters for distribution among business men. The post offices throughout the country are being supplied with the special delivery stamps at the rate of 1,000 offices each day. The law requires that letters bearing the special stamp shall be delivered up to midnight, and postmasters in towns where the offices close early in the night are anxious to know if they must keep open their offices until midnight. If so they believe that an allowance for the employment of night clerks is indispensable. Other postmasters, who now close their offices on Sunday, are in a similar position. The status of the messengers is also unsettled, and it is questionable whether or not they must be appointed through the machinery of the civil service commission.
Trade at the Old Reliable
where you always find just what you want and everything of the best make, and always for less money than you are asked for the same quality of goods elsewhere. You can depend on honest goods and square dealing at SHRIER'S all the year round. Before you purchase, visit SHRIER'S and convince yourself of the most astonishing value in Boy's and Children's Suits ever offered in this city. Pay no attention to prices advertised but compare goods, that being the only true way to find out the house which gives the most and best value for the least money, and you will be fully convinced and to your entire satisfaction that it pays to trade with SHRIER, the Old Reliable Clothier, 114 Market st., sign of the Golden Arm.

Indications.

For the South Atlantic States fair weather, preceded by occasional local showers, variable winds and nearly stationary temperature.
Cape Fear Academy.
We have before us a catalogue of this admirable school, of which Capt. Washington Catlett is Principal and Prof. J. R. Monroe Assistant. Despite the general commercial depression last year was a prosperous one, there having been 81 pupils, and we are glad to learn that the outlook for this Fall is still more encouraging.
The Itace.
The Puritan and Genesta are determined to see which is the better sloop of the two and started upon their international race—for the third time—this morning, crossing the line on the outward trip at 34 minutes after 10 o'clock. The Puritan soon took the lead and rounded buoy 5 on the Southwest spit at 20 minutes after 1 o'clock this afternoon, followed by the Genesta 4 minutes later. The Puritan passed Scotland lights on the return at 33 minutes and 20 seconds past 2 o'clock and the Genesta followed at 37 minutes and 30 seconds past 2 o'clock, or 4 minutes and 10 seconds later, thus giving the race to the Boston sloop.
Improvements.
Mr. Sol. Bear contemplates making some very decided improvements upon his property on Princess street, just East of the old National Bank building, now occupied by Mr. W. T. Johnson, and has begun work with that object in view. That building and the wood work which connects it with the bank building will be removed and two brick structures—one with 13 feet front and the other with 12 feet front, and both with 14 feet pitch—will be erected on the site. The new buildings will be fitted up as stores, will be supplied with large plate glass windows in front and will be otherwise made very attractive.
Personal.
Daniel L. Shaw, Esq., of Pender county, was in the city to-day.
Mr. B. F. Hall, of the firm of Hall & Pearsall, has returned from his Summer trip to Asheville and the mountains of Western North Carolina.
Miss Hattie Platt has been elected organist of the Brooklyn Hall Sunday School, in place of Miss Gedie E. Taylor, who is attending school at Thomasville, N. C.
Miss E. Karrer returned to the city on Saturday night after an extended absence in the Northern markets where she purchased largely for the Fall and Winter trade.
Mr. C. W. Yates returned last Saturday night from his Northern trip. During his absence he visited Boston for the first time and found it a lively village, but hardly equal to New York.
Mr. John F. Garrell has recently returned from the mountains where he has been in the interests of his business. He has opened a large stand in the Fourth street Market and will keep there, under the firm style of J. F. Garrell & Son, the best meats which can be had. Attention is invited to advertisement in this issue.
Our friend, Mr. Asa A. Brown, after several years of railroad life in Mexico and Texas, has made arrangements by which it becomes probable that he will settle down in this city for life. He has associated himself in business with the new firm of R. E. Lloyd & Co., on North Water street, where he would be glad to see his many friends at any time. We bespeak for him an abundant success Asa merchant.
