The Daily Review has the largest home file circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Gold worth $38,800,000 was dug from Uncle Sam's rich soil in 1884.

Yacht is from the Dutch verb jaqten, meaning to pursue swiftly.

The guard house is now empty, the last inmate having been discharged this morning.

The $10,000,000 of silver coin put on board a man-of-war at New Orleans carried the ship down two and one-half feet.

A Logan county, Kentucky, woman sleeps two and three days at a time without awakening, evidently training for a race with John Sherman.

Returns from 981 township correspondents in Ohio show the corn crop is in very flattering condition, and will be the largest crop in the history of the State.

A gold dollar is a tiny coin, but a man of ingenuity and fine fingers at Waterbury has just built a railway locomotive so small as to stand upon the dollar's disc.

Mr. Abbey, in addition to his enterprise with Mary Anderson, who is to open in New York on October 12th, will bring over Madame Gerster and a concert company during the coming season. Galassi will be one of the singers.

Gen. Roger A. Pryor, who at one time held a seat in Congress as a Representative from Virginia, said recently that "he stood by the memorable formula, 'To the victors belong the spoils,'" and declared that "the reform that he wanted was to put Republicans out of office and to put Democrats in office."

The young ladies of New Rochelle, N. Y., tired of being compared to the dancing vine that derives support and countenance from alleged masculine oaks, and probably more tired of waiting for the masculine escorts who never come, have organized themselves in a "We Can Go-It-Alone Club," and they do go it alone.

Cholera failed to strike a single one of the 4,000 women employed in the national tobacco factory at Valencia, Spain, though the disease raged violently in that city, and the Medical World recalls that tobacco workers were also noticed to enjoy exemption from attack during an epidemic at Amsterdam.

Baltimore News: The arrests of several youths, sons of wealthy and reputable Ohio gentlemen, on charges of burglary, will probably cause an inquiry as to the influences which led the boys to the commission of crime. If the matter is well sifted, pernicious literature of the Jack Sheppard type will doubtless be found to blame for their misdeeds.

The Puritan will be sold to-morrow.
She was built hastily, as an experiment, to meet a crisis, and her owners have won glory enough. Besides, she is too large to be run for pleasure as a sloop. She is not fitted or furnished luxuriously. She was built solely to keep the America's cup on this side of the Atlantic. Her mission has been successful, the gentlemen who contributed to her building are fully satisfied, and they have no further use for her.

The painters, sculptors and engravers of Dresden and Dusseldorf have decided by a great majority to discard the inelegant costume which characterizes the civilization of the present century, and to return to the picturesque garments that the German artists wore in the seventeenth century. It is about the same costume that Rubens wore—black velvet breeches, marine blue stocking, a velvet vest trimmed with black silk and a large felt hat—a costume that the late Count Lalance, of Brussels, persistently wore.

In the Revised Bible, published at Oxford, only three printers' errors have yet been discovered in all the editions. In the pearl 16mo edition there is an error in Ezekiel, xviii, 26, where an "e" is left out of righteous, and the word is printed "righteous."

In the parallel 8vo edition there two mistakes. In Psalms, vii, 13, "shaltis" appears instead of "shaltis," and in Amos, v, 24, in the margin, "overflowing" should be "everflowing." The usual guinea will be paid to any person discovering a printer's error in the book and pointing it out to the controller of the press before any other discoverer.

The Board of Audit and Finance met yesterday afternoon and audited and approved several bills. The petition of W. McEvans, to lease some of the city's land near the Fourth street market, which was approved by the committee on markets, was non-concurred in by the Board. No other business of importance was transacted.

Probably Stolen.
One of the street hands this morning found a large piece of brass under one of the street crossings, which was evidently a bearing for shafting, either for some steamboat or other heavy machinery. It was at the City Hall this morning where those who have missed such property could have an opportunity of examining it. It's size would indicate that it was intended for shafting of about six inches in diameter, and it is somewhat worn with use.

Big Corn.
At the store of Mr. G. W. Penny, on Market street, we saw to-day some samples of corn which were remarkably fine. It was flint corn and one of the ears contained 30 well developed rows of kernels. It was raised by Mr.
Moses McKethan, on his place in Brunswick county.

The relatives of Father Brazil, who died in Des Moines, Iowa, are contest-ing his will, which leaves a quarter of a million dollars to the Catholic Church and $5,000 to his relatives.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1885. NO. 721

Bound Over.
Mr. W. F. Lessman, who was arrested a few days since on a charge of robbing the mails, was brought before U. S.
Commissioner T. M. Gardner this morning for a hearing. The defendant waived an examination and gave bail in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at the next term of the U. S. District Court. U. S. District Attorney W. S.
O'B. Robinson appeared in the interests of the government.

The sixty-first session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, is now being held at Baltimore, Md. Mr. C. M. Busbee, of Raleigh, is the representative of the Grand Encampment of North Carolina, and Messrs J. F. Payne, of Monroe, and J. Woodard, of Wilson, are the representatives of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina. The statement that the sessions are held now only once in two years is incorrect, as they are held annually. There is a movement on foot to have the meetings held biennial-ly, but it has not become a rule yet.

Box-Stub.
First Assistant Postmaster-General, A. E. Stevenson has issued an order that hereafter postmasters furnished with box-rent stub-books will retain the stubs of the said books in their respective offices for five years, subject to examination by inspectors or other authorized persons, after which the stubs may be disposed of as waste paper. Box-rent stub-books with printed instructions to conform with this order will be furnished to date from January 1, 1886, and the stubs of the books already furnished for the quarter commencing October 1, 1885, will be filed by postmasters in their respective offices, in compliance with this order, notwithstanding the printed orders to the contrary.

Chicken Stealing.
Mr. James Best, who lives at No.
307 North Fifth street, between Mul-bury and Walnut, arose at about half past 5 o'clock this morning, preparatory to going to work, and stepped out into his back yard when he saw a colored man at work upon his hen coop trying to force it open with an axe. The would be thief, seeing that he was discovered and thinking possibly that it was rather too late in the day for successful hen roost robbing, beat a hasty retreat, but not until he had thrown the axe with which he was working at Mr. Best as a gentle reminder that the interruption was untimely and not relished; but fortunately without doing any damage. It was Mr. Best's axe and he ought to feel grateful that the thief did not take it with him in his flight.

The Special Delivery.
Pursuant to the order of the Post master General, bearing date of August 11, 1885, in reference to the introduction of a special delivery system, the following rules are issued by General Superintendent Jamison for the guidance of postmasters and postal clerks in preparing for dispatch letters bearing the special delivery stamp:
1. When dispatched in direct or express pouch, from one postoffice to another postoffice, or from a railway postoffice to a postoffice, a separate package should be made when there are five or more letters. When there are less than five letters they should be placed together upon the outside of a letter package so as to be readily discovered by the person opening the pouch.
2. When dispatched from the postoffice to a railway postoffice, or from one railway postoffice to another, a separate package should be made when there are five or more of these letters addressed to the same postoffice; when there are less than five letters they should be placed upon the outside of a direct package, or immediately under the label slip of a route or State package.
3. Postmasters and railway postal clerks will report to their Division Superintendent all failures to comply with the above rules.

Perfectly Satisfied.
Is the way patrons express themselves after trading these many years at SHIRER'S. The public have found out it is best to deal at the Old Reliable's, where goods can be had at fair prices.
As a consequence, each season many new names are added to the list of our regular patrons. You may rest assured of getting the most and best value in clothing for men, boys and children for the least money at SHIRER'S. As usual our prices will be from 15 to 33 per cent lower than other dealers will furnish similar goods for. SHIRER, the Old Reliable Clothier, 114 Market st., sign of the Golden Arm.

Religious Items.
The Sunday Schools of Wilmington Presbytery met in Convention at Wallace (Duplin Roads) this morning.
The delegates from this city are Mr. C.
H. Robinson, from the First Presbyterian Church, and Mr. J. D. Mallard and Miss B. R. Price, all of whom have gone, from the Second Presbyterian Church. The Convention will adjourn to-morrow night.

Wilmington Presbytery will meet at Burgaw, Pender county, on Thursday, the 24th inst. The delegates from this city are Mr. John McLaurin, from the First Presbyterian Church, with Mr.
B. G. Worth as alternate, and Mr.
Robert McDougald from the Second Presbyterian Church.

Personal.
Mr. Williams T. Banerman, clerk of the Superior Court of Pender county, was in the city to-day.

We regret that Mr. J. H. Muse, of the Star, is not yet able to be about.
The weather is quite unfavorable for him.

Mr. Charles Murphy, formerly Superintendent of streets, has been quite sick with chills and fevers for a few days, but was able to be out again this morning.

U. S. District Attorney W. S. O'B.
Robinson was in the city to-day on official business.

Collector C. H. Robinson is absent from the city in attendance upon the Sunday School Convention of Wilmington Presbytery which will be held at Wallace (Duplin Roads) to-day and to-morrow.

Criminal Court.
The Criminal Court of New Hanover county, Judge O. P. Meares presiding and Solicitor B. R. Moore appearing for the State, convened at the Courthouse in this city yesterday morning.
The morning hour was chiefly devoted to selecting a grand jury and in delivering the usual charge to the same.

The following compose the grand jury for the term:
J. G. Swann, foreman; H. H.
Bloom, B. S. Hoskins, John H. Lewis, Fred Clark, John Sidbury, Jesse W.
Lewis, D. B. Futrell, C. P. Raspberry, D. N. Chadwick, J. O. Ormsby and Edward W. Sanders.

The following have been the proceedings since the commencement of the term:
State vs. John Jones and Elie Howard, affray. The defendants waived bill of indictment and submitted.— Judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. Moses Bryant, larceny.
Defendant waived bill of indictment and submitted, and judgment was suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. W. R. Kenan, misdemeanor.
Not guilty and defendant discharged.
This case was one of nine which were brought against several of the merchandise brokers doing business in the city who were charged with drumming without a necessary license. The case did not go to the jury, but was decided by the Court. In the opinion of the Court the law upon which the action was based is unconstitutional, inasmuch as it discriminates between drummers from other States doing business here and those who are residents here.

A drummer from another State is required by the law to pay a State tax. A resident drummer is also required to pay the same drummer's tax, but section 25, of chapter 175, of the laws of 1885, gives a rebate to the resident drummer of the amount of his purchase tax for the same time, which is discriminative against the non-resident drummer and makes the law unconstitutional. The Supreme Court of the United States has decided that no State can impose a tax upon a non-resident drummer which it does not impose upon the drummers of its own State. In consequence of this decision, which will affect the entire State, a "not pros with leave" was entered in in the other cases similar in character.

State vs. W. H. Howe, misdemeanor. Defendant submits and judgment on payment of costs.

State vs. John Brogan, larceny. Defendant called and failed and judgment nisi against John Brogan and fifty dollars.

State vs. Thomas W. Gordon, burglary. Set for trial at 9 o'clock a. m. on Friday, September 25th.

State vs. Julius Jones and James Collins, larceny. On trial.

Indications.
For the South Atlantic States fair weather, except preceded in the Eastern portion by cloudy weather and rain, continued cool Northeast winds, backing to Northwest, and higher barometer.
