

THIS PAPER published every evening, Sundays excepted by JOSH T. JAMES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. SUBSCRIPTIONS POSTAGE PAID: One year $4.00, Six months, $2.00, Three months, $1.00; One month, 35 cents. The paper will be delivered by carriers free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week. Advertising rates low and liberal. Subscribers will report any and all fall-outs to receive their paper regularly.

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Mr. Bennett's yacht, Namouna, costs $200 a day.

Banquets given by court officials in China sometimes reach seventy-five courses.

New Orleans Protagon: The trouble with the "Down on Monopolies" convention is that the members ride to the meetings on railroad passes.

Mr. A. G. Sharpe, late chief of the United States postoffice inspectors, has been nominated by the Republicans for Mayor of Chattanooga, Tenn.

Rev. Mr. Garrett, of the Methodist Temperance Union, has issued a fervent political appeal to the people of England, concluding with these words: "Let party landmarks go! Vote straight for a sober country!"

There has been no lack of frost out in Illinois and other States in the North-western grain belt during the last few days, but the corn has escaped without damage. The grain is so far advanced now as to be safe in any event.

A special from London to the Philadelphia Press says that the Scottish Geographical Society is preparing a royal welcome for Lieutenant Greeley, the American arctic explorer, who is to lecture in Edinburgh next November.

Washington Star: There is a perfect love feast, around the fatted calf of reconciliation, between the orthodox Republicans of New York and the returned mugwumps. And the Democrats seem rather happy, too, over their loss.

There are plenty of signs that there will be a brilliant fashionable season in the American colony this Winter," says Edward King in his Paris letter. "Our Democratic friends are preparing to show what they can do in the line of display."

The late Emory Storrs left his wife absolutely penniless. He did not leave enough to pay his funeral expenses. The recipient of the largest fees paid to any Chicago lawyer, he did not leave his wife enough to pay for a day's lodging or to buy a day's bread.

The packers of mackerel for the winter market are alarmed. It has been found that this class of fish is remarkably scarce, estimates placing the deficiency at 40,000 barrels. At an average of 350 mackerel to the barrel, the shortage will be 14,000,000 fish.

Party lines in New York seem to be again strictly drawn and the New York Herald is disgruntled thereat, not, apparently, because the Mugwumps have gone back to their mire again, but because the Democrats did not follow them. Hill's nomination means war on the civil service humbug and a straight-out Democratic victory.

Detroit Free Press: In the next Congress an effort will be made to do away with the sunset guns now fired at all military posts in the country. It is a silly, senseless waste of powder, and results in a score or more of deaths each year. The sun knows its business and doesn't want any flipflop about it.

"Business," says the Chicago Times of Friday, "is lively in dry goods, groceries, boots and shoes, and other prominent branches, and the indications that the corn crop of the country will amount to 1,900,000,000 bushels, an increase of 195,000,000 bushels, or nearly 11 per cent. over last year, makes buyers and sellers feel more confidence in the future."

The following story is told of Mr. James R. Randall, editor of the Augusta Chronicle: He attended one day a colored church in the country, and had in his pocket a silver half-dollar, just the fare back to Augusta. At the conclusion of his sermon the minister ordered a collection for his benefit. "Of course," said he, "I respects every position to give something; but I've told dat Mr. Thomas, up de land yonder, had some turkeys stole Friday night. I don't want any man who had a han' in stealin' dem turkeys to put any money in de plate." When the plate reached Mr. Randall not a man had refused to contribute, and the preacher's eyes were on him. His half dollar accordingly went into the plate.

HOLMES & FILLIAY—New Grocery Store

We lose this month 65 minutes of daylight.

This month has five Thursdays, five Fridays and five Saturdays.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 1,037 bales.

This is "moving day," but it has not been as agreeable for that purpose as it might have been.

Go and buy a suit of clothes at DYER'S; that is the place to get a perfect fit and good goods.

We have had heavy rains here today but we think it will clear off tonight and to-morrow be cooler.

Rev. D. H. Tuttle will preach, by request, a sermon especially to men at Fifth Street M. E. Church to-night.

Turner's almanac got it right for today, so far as the rain is concerned, although there has been very little wind.

For the best unlaundried white shirt in the city, call at the Wilmington Shirt Factory; only 75c. J. ELSBACH, Prop., No. 27 Market st.

We are sorry to learn that the hog cholera is prevailing in some portions of Brunswick county, not far from the city.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer in this office registered 75 degrees, which is one degree below Summer heat.

Mrs. John Smith, recently of Burgaw, to-day opened the Rock Spring Hotel. The house has been renovated and refurnished and is now ready for the accommodation of guests.

One man charged with fast driving was brought before the Mayor this morning, but was discharged with a severe reprimand upon his promise to "run on schedule time in the future."

Steamboatmen report that the river was very low and falling rapidly yesterday. It is hoped that the rain of today will extend to the up country and swell the streams so that the Cape Fear may receive the benefit of it.

Indications.
For the South Atlantic States, local rains, Northeast winds, becoming variable, rising, preceded in Northern portion by falling barometer and slight changes in temperature.

Exports Foreign.
The exports foreign for the month ended September 30th, 1885, as taken from the books at the Custom House, foot up as follows:
Cotton, 2,408 bales, valued at $108,360; spirits turpentine, 360,559 gallons, valued at $116,483; rosin, 15,910 barrels, valued at $19,353; lumber, 245,000 feet, valued at $5,440, making a total amounting to $249,636.

Superior Court.
The entire morning session of court to-day was consumed in an action of ejectment in which Henry B. Walker was plaintiff and William Spencer was defendant. The case was given to the jury at about half past 1 o'clock this afternoon, when pending their finding of a verdict, the court took a recess until 3 p. m. Mr. J. D. Bellamy, Jr., appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. M. Bellamy appeared for the defence.

The Rice Crop.
From the best information we have been able to obtain by inquiries in several quarters, the rice crop on the Cape Fear will be very good this year, and it is being harvested in first rate order and prime condition. It now commands from $1 to $1.15 per bushel. The crop in Eastern North Carolina will be small as compared with that of last year and it will bring from 75 cents to 90 cents per bushel. This low price, as compared with the Cape Fear rice, is from the fact that the former is cultivated outside of tide water. The Carolina Rice Mills, in this city, expect to receive the first of this season's crop and commence milling in about 10 days.

You can save money by buying your heating and cooking stoves from JACOB'S Hdw. Depot. There you will find a large and fine assortment to select from.

Missionary Meeting.
The Wilmington Missionary Baptist Association will convene at the First Colored Baptist Church to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. A. M. Conway, Moderator. Rev. J. H. Dorsett will preach the introductory sermon at night.

A New Enterprise.
Messrs W. E. Worth & Co., the enterprising proprietors of the Ice Factory in this city, have leased stalls Nos. 14 and 16 in the New Market and will erect there a meat refrigerator, from which they will sell the article. They will deal in Western meats, which they will bring here in refrigerator cars and which they will keep pure by means of their cold room at the factory.

For the Pen.
Deputy Sheriff Emanuel Nichols started for the State Penitentiary, at Raleigh, this morning with the following prisoners who were convicted and sentenced at the recent term of the Criminal Court of New Hanover county:
Julius Jones, larceny, four years.
J. H. Johnson, larceny, six years.
John Nichols alias Robert Lilly, forgery, four years.
John Thomas, larceny, three years.

All the prisoners are colored and a descriptive list of each one was sent with them to be left with the penitentiary authorities. The descriptive list gives the physical condition of the prisoner upon leaving the jail so that the authorities may act understandingly in leasing and working convicts. The movement was inaugurated by the North Carolina State Board of Health on account of the considerable mortality which has prevailed among convict laborers, and is intended as a preventive of such fatality in the future. By this plan the prison authorities know whether the prisoners have any taint of disease when they are received or whether they are in robust health, and in leasing only those who are healthy and able to endure remarkable fatigue and exposure, it can easily be determined by the sick list and mortality rate whether the convict laborers are being treated as they should be or are poorly fed, overworked and improperly cared for. New Hanover county is the pioneer in this movement and it is to be hoped that every other county in the State will follow suit in the humane as well as profitable idea.

Immediate Delivery.
This system goes into effect to-day and the points relative to it are interesting and important.

The record book shows the number of the letter; whether registered; place from which received, as shown by postmark; address of letter; date and hour of receipt; name of messenger; hour of delivery and name of receptor, and remarks, if any.

The messenger books will indicate the number of the letter, the name of the party to whom it is addressed, the date of the receipt of the letter, the hour of its delivery to the messenger, and the time of its receipt by the party to whom the letter is addressed.

The following are the instructions to messengers:
All letters, when turned over to a messenger, must be delivered with the utmost dispatch.
Messengers must be orderly and well behaved in the office and while delivering messages.
No messenger will be retained in employment who is not prompt and faithful in the discharge of his duties, and who is not respectful to all persons with whom he has business.

Letters must in every case be delivered to the person addressed, or to some one specially authorized to receive his mail. In the absence of the addressee, or any one having such special authority from him, the letter may be delivered to any responsible member of the addressee's family or any partner or clerk of his, or to any responsible person employed in his office, or to the officer or agent of any firm, incorporated company or institution to which addressed.

The person to whom a letter is delivered should sign his name in the last column of the book, and enter the precise time of delivery in the column immediately preceding.

If there be any postage due, postage stamps to correspond with the amount must be collected by the messenger and turned over to the postoffice.

Messengers will not be allowed car fare or other expenses.
Parties who desire quick answers to their correspondence will facilitate the same by requiring their correspondents to make use of the "immediate delivery stamp" in mailing their replies.

Messrs Leopold Simon, Henry Brunhild and Leopold Brunhild have formed a copartnership under the style of L. Simon & Co., as wholesale dealers in liquors, tobacco and cigars. They are successors in Wilmington to the firm of H. Brunhild & Bro. and the new house is a branch of the Richmond house of H. Brunhild & Bro.

Harbor Master's Report.
The following is the number of vessels with the amount of their tonnage, as taken from the books of Capt. Joseph Price, Harbor Master, arriving at this port during the month ended September 30th, 1885:
American—6 steamers, 5,530 tons; 13 schooners, 4,172 tons, making a total of 19 vessels and 9,702 tons.
Foreign—2 steamers, 1,881 tons; 6 barques, 2,662 tons and 5 brigs, 1,546 tons, making a total foreign of 13 vessels and 6,089 tons and a grand total of 32 vessels aggregating 15,791 tons.

Three Stores Robbed.
From Mr. Ancrum Evans, of Brunswick county, who is in the city to-day, we learn of some extensive robberies which were perpetrated in that county on last Friday night. The store of Mr. W. W. Drew, 8 miles from the city, on the Georgetown road, that of Mr. D. R. Walker, on the same road, and 11 miles from the city, and that of Mr. George H. Cannon, also on the same road and 13 miles from the city, were broken into on that night and all of them robbed. In each place the money drawer was rifled, and from Mr. Cannon's store it is certain that goods were also taken, the others not having as yet missed any articles. The money secured amounted in all to not more than $30. There is no clue to the thieves, but it seems pretty certain that all of the work was done by one gang.

Concert and Ball.
The elegant hall in the new brick building on Front street, opposite the market, the property of Mr. H. Vollers, which has heretofore been known as Vollers' Hall, was duly christened last night and will in the future be known as Concordia Hall. The occasion was the Grand Ball and Concert of the Germania Cornet Band, and an elegant party, composed mainly of the gallant men and beautiful ladies of our German fellow citizens, were present to give grace to the festive hour. The band, under the direction of that accomplished musician, Prof. R. J. Herndon, discoursed excellent music and displayed a remarkable proficiency in musical science considering the brief time they have been in practice. The Italian harpers furnished the music for the dancers and merry feet tripped lightly to the inspiration of their delightful strains. Mayor Hall was present and at the solicitation of the party made a short but felicitously conceived speech, which was a most happy effort and was heartily applauded by those present. At midnight a sumptuous supper was spread in one of the anterooms to which ample justice was done, after which dancing was again resumed and kept up until a late hour, or, rather, until a reasonably early hour this morning. A pretty feature of the occasion was an elegant and beautifully designed floral lyre, donated by Mrs. H. Rehder, and raffled off for the benefit of the band. Mr. Willie Moise was the successful contestant for the prize.

Personal.
Col. H. B. Short returned on last night's train from New York after an absence of about ten days. He is in good health.
Col. Albert H. Worth, formerly the poplar steamboat commander on the Cape Fear, was in the city to-day, looking as hearty and genial as ever.
David S. Cowan, Esq., of Columbus county, the newly appointed special agent of the U. S. Treasury Department, was in the city to-day.
Miss Miriam Greenwald left on this morning's train for Richmond, Va., to visit her sister, Mrs. H. Brunhild, who now resides there.

We regret to state that our friend, Bro. J. H. Muse, of the Star, is yet quite sick with that miserable disorder the "yaller janders," and this weather is none to his advantage.

Prof. E. Van Laer returned to the city a few days since after an absence of several weeks. He has spent most of his time, while away, in New York where he has had a good time. We are glad to notice that he looks in much better health than we have seen him in a long time and he says that the trip has made him feel like a new man.

Prof. R. J. Herndon, who has been in this city several months engaged in teaching instrumental music, having filled his engagement, will leave tonight for his home in Yorkville, S. C. Prof. Herndon, while here, has made many warm friends who will part with him with regret. He is a thorough musician and has accomplished much in the difficult science for one so young. We wish him an abundant success in life.

Messrs Holmes & Fillyaw opened today in Mr. J. C. Stevenson's old stand, on Market street, near Second, with a handsome assortment of family groceries, all new and fresh from first hands.
