EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.
SUBSCRIPTIONS POSTAGE PAID:
One year $4.00. Six months, $2.00. Three months, $1.00; One month, 55 cents.
The paper will be delivered by carriers free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week.
Advertising rates low and liberal.
Subscribers will report any and all failures to receive their paper regularly.

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

State elections will be held this year as follows: Connecticut, November 4th; Iowa, Minnesota, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts, November 14th; Virginia, November 3d; Ohio, November 4th.

Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle: It is the general impression that Atlanta will go for prohibition. The contest, however, will be a heated one, and both sides will spend money liberally, having raised $100,000 each to spend on the election.

It has been stated that three of Tiffany's operatives have been made seriously ill while polishing some perfumed human eyes which Mr. W. E.
Curtis, a member of the South American commission, brought back from Peru and desired to have mounted in gold in the form of a necklace.

Washington Star, Rep.: It has been said that President Cleveland's letter to Commissioner Eaton is "worth millions to the District." It is worth even more to the country, and would be most valuable of all to the Democratic party if that party had the political sagacity to live up to its sentiments.

Dr. Talmage says that no man can be a Christian if his stomach is out of order. "Religion itself," he says, "will not keep a man cheerful if he has dyspepsia. A cup of coffee and an egg is no kind of equipment for a day's work.
I take three good meals and I eat more on Sunday than on any other day of the week."

The German steamer Werra, from Bremen, arrived in New York with one of the largest cargoes of gold coin on board that have come to this port for a long time. She had $1,250,000.
The coin was all in double eagles and was shipped through English bankers from Southampton, where the Werra touched.

The new Goethe Society, which is exciting much attention in Germany, has already obtained about six hundred members. The first publication which it will bring out will be the correspondence, extending over many years, between the Duchess Anna Amelia, of Saxe-Weimar, and the Frau Rath, the mother of Goethe.

New York has another case of mysterious disappearance that bids fair to rival the case of Editor Conant. Alexander F. Oakley, an artist, left home on Saturday, September 20, and has not yet been seen since, and his inability to meet some heavy debts was the cause of his disappearance. His wife is a daughter of ex-State Senator Sprague.

In the British Medical Journal, Dr.
Fothergill says that a patient dying of exhaustion is generally dying of starvation. "We give him beef tea, calfs-foot jelly, alcohol, seltzer and milk; that is, a small quantity of sugar of milk and some fat. But the jelly is the poorest sort of food, and beef tea a mere stimulant. The popular belief that beef tea contains 'the very strength of the meat' is a terrible error; it has no food value."

Minnesota has just hanged a man under its re-establishment of the death penalty. Seven years ago a law was passed to leave to the jury the decision whether the convicted murderer should be killed or imprisoned for life. The jurors invariably chose the living punishment, irrespective of the atrocity of the crime. Then the plan of letting the court designate was tried with the same result.

Yankee accent and inflection have come into fashion among the London aristocrats. It is a freak that may and may not last. An acquaintance of Lord Dunraven attributes to him the Americanized talk of his particular set, and the Marquis of Lorne and Earl Dufferin, aided by their wives, are supposed to have taken back from Canada the American manner of utterance.
These examples could not fail to be imitated in London, and the novelty seems to have proved captivating.

Small Dose Cure.
During the past fifty years the proprietary of Brandreth's Pills have received thousands of voluntary testimonials of the wonderful cures effected by these pills. They not only cure rheumatism, catarrhs, piles, diarrhoea, liver complaint and all fevers, but greatly prolong the human life. One or two at night, on an empty stomach, for a week or two is sufficient. dead & w.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX.

WILMINGTON, N. C. FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1885.

NO. 230

A great sensation has been excited in the Scottish highlands, and especially among the crofters, by the announcement that the extensive forests of Affric and Knockfin, on the estate of The Chisholm, have been leased to Mr.
Winans, the American, whose proceedings recently brought upon his head the severe reprehension of the Court of Session. He intends to add them to the vast extent of land which he occupies as a deer forest in Kintail, Strathglass, and Strathfarar.

Gen. Edward F. Jones, of Binghamton, was nominated on Tuesday by the New York State Executive Committee to fill the vacancy made by Roswell P.
Flower. Gen. Jones will be elected, we feel assured, and he will fill the position of Lieutenant Governor honorably, fairly and with credit to himself and his party. His nomination was unanimous. He was a gallant soldier of the late war, having been in the first regiment which left Massachusetts for Virginia. He is a very popular gentleman and the news of his nomination was received with much enthusiasm.

The New York Sun is to-day the truest and staunchest Democratic paper published in New York City. Commenting on Gen. Jones' nomination for Lieutenant-Governor it says:

The Democratic State Committee has selected Gen. Edward F. Jones of Binghamton as the candidate for the party for the office of Lieutenant-Governor.
This is a very fortunate selection, and it will greatly strengthen the admirable ticket headed by Gov. Hill.
Gen. Jones is one of those rare men who, having served their country with all their power in her hour of need, have not since tried to live upon their military laurels, but have resumed their places among the people, and devoted their energies to becoming useful citizens. The man chosen for the second place on the Democratic ticket was the commander of the gallant Sixth Massachusetts Regiment when it forced its way through the hostile streets of Baltimore in response to President Lincoln's call. Gen. Jones led the first regiment that reached the capital after the call of volunteers. He afterwards raised another regiment and led it to the front. In recognition of his services he was made a Brigadier-General.

When the war was over Gen. Jones modestly set about earning a living as a civilian, and became one of the leading manufacturers in Binghamton. He is noted among his neighbors for his business ability, his generous disposition, and his public spirit.
This is the kind of soldier who can add strength to a ticket, and we congratulate the State Committee upon the happy conclusion of its deliberations.
Now to work with a will for victory!

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 718 bales.

Nor. barque Odd, sailed from Cadiz, Sept. 25th, for this port.

Schr. Uranus, Haskell, cleared from Philadelphia, Sept. 30th, for this port.

Swed. barque Liana, Andersen, sailed from Cuxhaven Sept. 27th for this port.

There were quite heavy rains yesterday between this city and Goldsboro, but beyond that point the rainfall was slight.

Just received a lot of wood and galvanized iron Well Buckets, which we are offering low. JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

The first meeting of the season of the members of the Historical and Scientific Society will be held at Tienken's Hall this evening.

For the best unlaundried white shirt in the city, call at the Wilmington Shirt Factory; only 75c. J. ELSBACH, Prop., No. 27 Market st.

It will pay you to see the suits made to order by DYER, before you get a ready made suit. You can get a satisfactory fit, in the latest styles.

The public schools will begin their Fall sessions on Monday next and the pupils will do well to get their books and slates ready for another year of good, hard study.

Mr. Jno. R. Melton advertises in this issue some extra fine Duplin and Sampson stall feed beef which will be on his stalls at the new market to-morrow.

The repairs which have been going on at the Fourth street bridge during the last week have been nearly completed and that thoroughfare is now being used for travel.

Messrs. John F. Garrell & Son have just received a large lot of fine Western beef, the first of which will be offered to their customers to-morrow, at the Fourth Street Market.

Two of the white women from the corner of Fourth and Castle streets, were brought before the Mayor this morning, charged with being drunk and disorderly, and were fined $5 each.

The Eastern Association, Baptist, will convene at Mt. Olive, Wayne county, on Tuesday, the 6th inst. Arrangements have been made by which those attending, the Association will be charged only three cents per mile each way for their tickets.

The pavement at the foot of Market street is simply execrable. It can hardly be called a pavement, for it is but little better than piles of rocks thrown indiscriminately down, over which animals and vehicles may clamber as best they can.

Some of the farmers are complaining of short crops, but there is no mistaking the fact that a large amount of cotton has been raised in North Carolina this year. The receipts thus far have been unusually large and it continues to be brought here in large quantities.

Memorial services will be held at Temple Israel at 5 o'clock next Sunday afternoon in honor of the late Sir Moses Montefiore, the Hebrew philanthropist and many times a millionaire, who lived to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of his birth.

On the night of Friday, the 9th inst., Rev. Dr. Mendelssohn will commence a series of lectures at Temple Israel, which will be continued until the Feast of Pentecost. The lectures will be delivered on Friday night of each week and the exercises will begin at 8 o'clock.

Oak Grove.

Capt. F. M. James kindly furnishes the number of interments in Oak Grove Cemetery during the month ended September 30th, which is as follows:

Whites, four, colored, five, making a total of nine. Of this number five were adults and four were children.

Change of Hour.

It has been suggested by quite a number that, as the long evenings are now approaching, the hours for holding divine service at night be changed from 8 o'clock to half past 7 o'clock p. m. This change will be convenient for many and we learn that it will certainly be made at once in some of the churches.

The New System.

The immediate delivery system was inaugurated here yesterday. Master Frank K. Myers is the Messenger from this office who has been appointed by Col. Brink. He is a bright lad and the grass does not grow under his feet when he is out with a letter. Four of these special delivery letters passed through this office here yesterday, three of which were from the city and one for abroad, and we are informed that three of the four were in the hands of the parties to whom they were directed within five minutes of the time of reception at the Postoffice. The delivery of the fourth was accomplished in about ten minutes.

The special delivery stamps are on sale here and can be had in any quantity.

Yesterday's Gale.

Although the wind did not blow with great force in this city yesterday, it amounted to a heavy gale at Smithville and did considerable damage. The maximum velocity of wind there was 37 miles an hour. The pilot boats Uriah Timmons and Gracie dragged their anchors and were blown ashore, and all the shipping, both at the quarantine station and in the harbor, had two anchors out, through which they succeeded in riding out the gale in safety.
The pilot boat Gracie was towed off by the steam tug Italian, while the Uriah Timmons was still ashore at last accounts from Smithville. The gale was so severe that the Louise came back to the city last night in order to escape its violence.

You can save money by buying your heating and cooking stoves from JACOB'S Hdw. Depot. There you will find a large and fine assortment to select from.

The Orton House.

We have upon a previous occasion given an extended account of this new hotel and have gone somewhat into minute detail of its interior arrangements for the accommodation and comfort of its guests, so that now little can be said in that respect. Within the last week Mr. Thomas C. Craft, with his corps of assistants, has been engaged in putting down the carpets and arranging the furniture, all of which were ordered from the leading dealers in New York, and the house is now fast becoming a marvel of luxurious elegance. The ladies' parlor, which is on the second floor front, is one of the most beautifully furnished and decorated rooms we have ever seen. The carpet is elegant in design and costly in texture. Rich paintings and expensive mirrors adorn the walls, heavy lace curtains are at the windows, the chairs and sofas are rich in style, a magnificent chandel-lier is suspended from the ceiling, while an excellent piano, of Haynes Bros. make, is there for the amusement of the musically inclined. All of the halls and rooms throughout the hotel are carpeted, and the bedding and furniture of each room are rich, elaborate and expressly adapted to the use of those who desire ease and comfort, combined with luxury. In a walk through the premises to-day we were impressed with the idea that every need and wish of the weary traveller had been anticipated and fully provided for, so complete were all the arrangements. It is an honor to the city and will be a monument to the forethought, energy and sagacity of the mind which conceived and the pluck which carried forward to completion such a laudable undertaking.

Superior Court.

In the case of Henry B. Walker vs.
Wm. Spencer, which was on trial yesterday at the hour of taking a recess, the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff. The case W. P. Oldham vs. E. A. Wright, executor of W. A.
Wright, was tried at the afternoon session. Russell & Ricard for plaintiff and McRae & Strange for the defendant. Judgment against defendant for $10.

C. B. Wright vs. J. C. Ingram. Mc-Rae & Strange for plaintiff, Russell & Ricard for defendant. Judgment for plaintiff for $254.40.

Cary Ellis vs. Sophia Ellis, action for divorce. Granted. F. H. Darby for plaintiff. No counsel for defendant.

Personal.

Mr. A. D. McGowan, one of the prominent merchants and farmers of Kenansville township, Duplin county, was in the city to-day.

Messrs E. H. Madigan, C. L. Mc-Clurg and W. M. Dale, of Cole's Circus, arrived in the city last night and registered at the Purcell House.

Dr. W. E. Storm, who has been absent from the city for about two weeks, visiting relatives in the State of New York, is expected to return home tomorrow night.

Mrs. Kate C. Wines, who has made quite an extended visit to New York, in which she has combined business and pleasure, returned to the city on last night's train.

Gen. W. G. Lewis, of Goldsboro, Civil Engineer for the Board of Education in the survey of swamp lands of the State, is in the city to-day and registered at the Purcell House.

If you need a Fluting Machine you can be supplied with one at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.
