The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Mr. Randall's health is reported to be slightly failing again.

A daughter of Joaquin Miller will make her debut in the drama this Winter.

Some young women in Pueblo, Mex., have started a paper called The M-therin-Law.

The Rev. Thomas Thomas, of Arkansas, is 114 years old. He still "exhorts" on special occasions.

The English have accepted the Puritan without doubt. The Court Journal calls her a full-blood, high-bred racer.

So many Martini-Henry cartridges jumped during the late Egyptian war that it has been decided to adopt a better form of ammunition.

The young woman member of the senior class of Yale Law School, the pioneer of her sex in that institution, is described as of "dignified appearance."

The youngest Mayor in the United States, Mayor Aaron, of Van Buren, Ark., 21 years of age, recently quarreled about a woman with a man named Taylor, and shot him to death.

A book recently published in Paris is "The Sad Influence of the Pianoforte Upon Musical Art," and the aim is to disestablish the sovereignty of that instrument in the homes of the land.

The inventor of a process for refining sugar by electricity at an expense of 40 cents a ton has appeared, and asks $12,000,000 for the patent. It is said that the process is to be tested in England.

Washington Star: The Ohio River Commission, now holding a session at Pittsburg, state that they think $60,- 000,000 will put the river into very fair shape. This, for a tributary, is pretty liberal—at least, so it may strike Congress.

A joint debate has been agreed upon between Judge Foraker and Governor Hoadly, the candidates for Governor respectively of the Republican and Democratic parties. There will be two debates—Toledo, October 8; Cincinnati, October 9.

The Plymouth, Pa., relief committee have prepared and issued a tabulated statement, showing that during the recent epidemic there were 1,143 cases, of which 107 proved fatal. The expense entailed by the epidemic was $59,100 and loss in labor $60,020. The total loss to the town is estimated at $90,- 655.

Some experiments in London recently showed that the native English fishes are unable to survive in water heated much, if any, in excess of 80 degrees Fahr., yet in the low country of India and Burmah streams are filled with fish, where the water becomes from ten to fifteen degrees hotter than this every noontide.

Judge Ferguson, in a speech at Cork several days ago, said that never before in the history of Ireland had such a reckless disregard of life and property been known. If immediate steps were not taken for the suppression of crime a more stringent coercion act than had ever been passed would be necessary to restore order.

Japan is in a fair way to have great trouble with epidemic diseases. From January to July there were 4,472 cases of small-pox, with 1,191 deaths, and recent reports say that at Nagasaki, between Aug. 26 and Sept. 1, there were 300 cases of Asiatic cholera. Of typhoid fever 7,984 cases are reported for the first half of the year.

Chronic Sciatica Cured.
ASHLAND, MASS., January 23, 1885.
For the last two years I have hobbled around on crutches. During that time I was afflicted with sciatic rheumatism. I not only suffered terrible pain night and day, but was utterly helpless. After using every possible effort to get well, and exhausting the best medical advice, I was induced to try four Allcock's Porous Plaster. These I wore on my side, hip-bone and thigh.
In one week I was almost entirely free from pain, and strength returned to my palsied limb. I continued using these Plasters with the most surprising results for three months, when I became perfectly cured, and abandoned the use of crutches. Persons desiring further information can address me.

than one thousand in excess of the vote polled in the last Presidential election.

terbury organized their work."

A son of the Duke of Westminster is not the only English aristocrat who owns hansom cars that are used by the public daily in London. His horses are of fine stock, and the cabs contain the latest improvements—a lamp to brella, a looking glass, and many other conveniences.

The centennial convention of the that there was a slight frost visible yesterday morning but none this morning.

For the best unlaundried white shirt in the city, call at the Wilmington Shirt Factory; only 75c. J. ELISBACH, Prop.,

There are five British steamers in this port loading with cotton for Europe which aggregate 5,629 tons; and there are more coming.

Yesterday was the busiest cotton day of the season thus far. More than 2,000 bales were received, and it made things lively on Water street.

Three or four sober, industrious young men are wanted by the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Co., at No.
119 Princess street. See adv. in another column.

Among those who were licensed yesterday in the Supreme Court to practise law we notice the names of Mr. Joel Hines, of Pender county, Mr.
C. P. Locke, of New Hanover, and Mr. Richard S. White, of Bladen.

The passage way for vehicles across Fourth street bridge, which was undergoing some necessary repairs last week, having been put in order, workmen are now engaged in repairing the foot path of the same bridge. They will probably be completed in a day or two.

For Raleigh.
The new building covered with the patent corrugated metallic shingles, of which we made mention in Monday's issue, was taken from the mill-yard of the agent, Mr. A. Y. Wilson, to-day and conveyed on a flat to the Carolina Central Railroad, where it will be shipped by rail to Raleigh for exhibition at the State Fair.

Indications.
For the South Atlantic States, generally fair weather, winds generally Easterly, slight rise in tempera-ure and lower barometer.

Mr. Cris. Hubert has refitted and renovated the premises No. 15 South Water street and has reopened there the old Cape Fear Pilot House. He has a cozy place and nice goods and will be pleased to see there all of his friends.

Mrs. Kate C. Wines' millinery opening will take place to-morrow at her store on North Second street, near the Postoffice. She will display a beautiful line of goods, selected by herself in New York, and the ladies are invited to call and inspect the beautiful things displayed there.

The ladies are reminded of the fact that the Fall and Winter opening of millinery and fancy goods at Miss E.
Karrer's new store, on South Front street, will take place to-night and tomorrow. She has lots of new and beautiful things which must be seen to be appreciated.

For Larceny.
Henry Marshal, colored, was arrested to-day for stealing two dollars and a half from the till of the money drawer of David Shriver, on Market street, and was bound over to the next term of the Criminal Court by Justice E. D. Hall, who investigated the matter, in the sum $100, in default of which he was committed.

The best ready mixed paint can be had at JACOBI'S Hdw. Depot. He has it in all size cans, from half pints up.

Journalistic.
We have received the initial number of the Daily Dispatch, published at Montgomery, Alabama, by Mr. Alex.
T. London, of this city, and Mr. John L. Cowan, of Pittsboro, N. C. It is a bright, newsy paper, ably edited and neatly gotten up, and we gladly place it on our list of exchanges with the wish that the publishers may meet with an abundant success in their newspaperial enterprise. They are young men in the journalistic field, but they both have vim and pluck and will make their mark in their new field of labor.

Personal.
Mr. T. E. Mills, business agent of "Zo Zo, the Magic Queen" Co., is in the city to-day.

Mr. Joseph H. Denck, of Columbia, S. C., is in the city on a short professional visit.

Mr. John R. Melton is again at his post to-day after nearly two weeks of confinement to the house.

Mr. I. Shrier returned from his trip to New York on last night's train and was busy to-day opening a beautiful line of goods.

We are glad to learn there is a decided improvement in the condition of Mr. J.
H. Muse, of the Star, and really hope that he may be able to be about in a few days.

Rev. D. C. Kelly left on yesterday morning's train for Mt. Olive, Wayne county, to be in attendance upon the meeting of the Eastern Baptist Association at that place.

Mr. Reuben Jones, formerly of this city but more recently of Fayetteville, has returned to Wilmington and has opened a boarding house corner of Chestnut and Seventh streets.

Detective Work.
Some three or four months ago a valuable double case gold watch was stolen, at mid day, from the window of Mr. M. E. Brentelli's jewelry store, No. 16, North Second street. The thief was a young and active colored man who had been noticed loitering around the premises and he was soon and pursued, as he was making off with the property, but he succeeded in eluding his pursuers and effected his escape. The case was put in the hands of Detective Carr, and he soon succeeded in tracing the watch to parties in this city, thence to Charleston and return to this city, and hence to New York and its return to this city a few days ago, where he succeeded in securing the property and delivered it to the proper owner, who had long since given it up as lost. Mr. Carr deserves much credit for his patient perseverance and for the skill with which he kept track of the missing watch and for the success which finally crowned his efforts. The watch is the property of Mr. Geo. P. Lamb.

You will find a full assortment of paint, horse and scrub Brushes, made by the best factories, at JACOBI'S Hdw.
Depot. His low prices please all.

Grand Opening.
Mr. C. C. Corbin has inaugurated an enterprise here that should receive a liberal encouragement and support at the hands of our people, as is set forth in advertisement in this issue. There will be a grand opening of the oyster season at his parlors, commencing at 6 o'clock this evening, and they will be open every night, except Sunday night, until midnight. The barmen will be in attendance to-night and there will also be some fine music on Mr. Corbin's Sohmer Grand piano, said to be one of the best instruments in the city.

Have you seen the fine assortment of Stoves at JACOBI'S Hdw. Depot? You can save money by buying there.

The Cause of It.
The Hickory Carolinian, of a recent date, wants to know why it is that Northern apples are shipped to this city and sold at from $2 to $3.50 per bushel, when our own State can furnish equally as good fruit at a much less price?

We have taken considerable pains to thoroughly investigate this matter, and have satisfied ourselves that apples from Western North Carolina can be put on our market just as cheaply as can Northern apples. The freight tariff on apples, potatoes, onions and other vegetables at all points between Statesville and Asheville, on the Western North Carolina Railroad, to this city, is 35 cents per 100 pounds. Apples will average about 165 pounds to the barrel, which would make the freight about 60 cents on each barrel. The freight from New York by steamer is 30 cents per barrel. The apples shipped from that city are produced mainly in the Genesee and Mohawk valleys, whence they are brought to New York by canal boat or rail at a cost—including the necessary extra handling—which, added to the steamer's charges, would fully equal the expense attending apples shipped from the Western portion of this State.

The freight thus being very nearly equal, other causes must be looked to for the solution of the problem, to which we think we have found the key. The trouble lies in the fact that the apple growers in the Western portion of the State do not exercise the same care in selecting and putting up fruit as do the people of the North, in consequence of which they arrive here in an unsalable condition. That is the opinion of one who has dealt largely in fruit in the last four or five years. Apples brought from Western North Carolina are not carefully selected, and many of them are put up in unsuitable packages and in a careless, slovenly manner, so that they arrive here with many of them rotten, uninviting and consequently unsalable. Our Western friends should look carefully to these important matters if they would succeed against their Northern competitors. The fruit is equally as good, but it is not handled and selected as carefully.

She stepped down from the steamer's deck,
And trod the Coney Island sand;
Her glittering teeth showed not a speck, Her breath was like the zephyrs bland.
These fine effects were caused, we know,
By SOZODONT'S twice daily flow.

Ladies who use SOZODONT have only to open their lips to prove its excellence.
Their white, gleaming, spotless teeth, and fragrant breath will tell the story.
There is more demand for this wholesome and unexceptionable preparation than for any other dentifrice in the market. One day its use will be universal.
