INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
HINSHERGER—In Stock
C W YATES—School Books
F C MILLER—Sweet Gum and Ma'lein
J W WOODSIDE—Stmr Louise—Notice
There was no City Court this morning.
The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 1,371 bales.
Beautiful weather has followed the immense rainfall of yesterday.
Fifteen new styles of the ever popular "Melville" Hats have just arrived at DYER'S.
After the performance to-night take your lady to Corbin's Dining Parlors for oysters.
Remember the Zo Zo matinee tomorrow afternoon, and give the children a treat.
There is an unmailable postal card in the postoffice signed C. B. M. and with no address.
On and after Thursday next, the 15th inst., the steamer Louise will leave for Smithville at 2:30 p. m.
We have a large lot of glass for Hot-houses which we are offering low. JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.
Mr. S. W. Corbett, who has been quite sick for two months past, is again, we are pleased to see, able to appear abroad.
The streets were badly washed by the rains of yesterday and some of the crossings this morning were in bad condition.
From all we have been able to learn there was but very little damage done to the rice crop and fields by yesterday's storm.
The most economical coal scuttles known are the galvanized iron ones. They never rust. You will find them at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.
The business boom seems to have reached us. One enterprising clothier on Market street says that he sold an immense amount of goods last Saturday.
The Spanish Schooner Natividad, which has been undergoing repairs for several weeks at the Marine railway, was successfully launched to-day.
The Orton House was opened for the reception of guests to-day, although not yet in complete running order. All the arrangements will be perfected in a few days, probably by Monday next.
Steamboatmen report that a two foot rise in the Cape Fear overtook them at Elizabethtown, so that they could come along without delay or difficulty. There will probably be quite a freshet after the rain of yesterday.
The best ready mixed paint can be had at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot. He has it in all size cans, from half pints up.
Messrs. Cronly & Morris will offer for sale to-morrow, at 12 o'clock, at the Court House door, that very desirable piece of property on the South side of Market street, between Second and Third, fully described in the advertising columns of this issue.
The Wilmington Light Infantry held quite a spirited meeting at their Armory last night at which one new member was added to the roll. The literary society connected with the company is proving beneficial and is growing in interest with the members.
There was not much wind here yesterday, but there were heavy gales all around us. On the line of the Carolina Central Railroad the storm was quite destructive. Trees and telegraph poles were blown across the track, causing considerable delay to the trains, although but little damage was done.
Notified.
Messrs. B. G. Worth, Jas. H. Chadbourne, B. F. Hall, Roger Moore and W. L. DeRosset, who were appointed by the Mayor as commissioners to treat with the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad relative to the terms upon which that road will be extended to this city, were officially notified yesterday of their appointment.
What makes the breath so fragrant pure?
What makes the rosy gums endure?
What makes the teeth so peevishly white?
What makes the mouth a dear delight?
'Tis SOZODONT, that precious boon
Which none can use too late, too soon.
It is Never Too Late.
To cleanse the teeth, and render the breath odoriferous with Fragrant SOZODONT, but it is best to use this wonderful Vegetable Elixir before the teeth begin to fail, and the breath to lose its freshness.
"SPALDING'S" celebrated Glue, useful and true.

The Magic Queen.

"Zo Zo, the Magic Queen," which was played for the first time at the Opera House last night, is the grandest spectacular drama ever presented to a Wilmington audience. The scenery is gorgeous beyond the power of our pen to adequately describe. The play is a sailor's story and is full and running over with laughable improbabilities. There is nothing in the plot to offend the most fastidiously refined taste.—We had heard much of the mirthfulness of the play and the splendor of its scenic effects, but we are free to confess that all the reports were feeble when compared by the actual presence to the eye and ear. The acting was excellent and the vocal efforts good. Miss Grace Woodbury, as Zo Zo, was every inch a queen and ruled her subjects with right regal power. Miss Florence J. Bingley, as Hollyhock, "the laughing prude" was superb, and when she appeared between the third and fourth acts and favored the audience with her songs and exquisite performance on the musical glasses, she took the house by storm. Miss Tomma Hanlon, as Ilhod-odendron, was an excellent actress and her dancing was the real poetry of motion. Miss Marie Dantes, as Dahlia, was the "innocent girl" to perfection, and Mr. George H. Adams, as Washington Knowall, kept the entire audience convulsed with laughter. We might name many others whose acting was deserving of special mention, but want of space forbids. We must not forget to mention, however, the military display of the Queen's Guards, which was one of the most pleasing and attractive features of the performance. The grand transformation scene of the fourth act, which concluded the performance, was beautiful and gorgeous. On account of the inclemency of the weather the house was not as well filled as it otherwise would have been, but it will undoubtedly be crowded to its utmost capacity to-night. Let it be understood that in this performance propriety and modesty go hand in hand and beauty and grace crown the scene. The company will give a matinee to-morrow afternoon at the usual hour for the accommodation of children and others who cannot well attend at night.

A New Club.

A new social club has recently been formed in the city which is named Harmony Circle and is composed of some of our most prominent Hebrew fellow citizens, and the following officers have been elected to serve for the ensuing year:
President—Samuel Bear, Jr.
Vice President—Leopold Brunhild.
Secretary—H. H. Kasprovicz.
Treasurer—L. Blumenthal.
Committee on Amusements—S. H. Fishblate, Isaac Bear, J. I. Macks.
Concordia Hall has been secured for their accommodation and they propose to fit it up in a style that shall not be excelled by any club room in the South.

Fatally Burned.

An old colored woman named Howard, living on Princess street, between Eleventh and Twelfth, was sitting by the hearth this morning smoking her pipe, when her clothing was ignited by the fire in the fireplace. She was alone at the time but her screams soon caused her neighbors to rush to her rescue. George Lucas, colored, was the first to reach the scene and when he entered the room he was so blinded by smoke that he could see nothing. She, in groping around the room in her agony, fell against the door and closed it, but it was soon burst open and she was dragged out and water thrown upon her until the fire was extinguished.—She was fearfully burned and her injuries must necessarily prove fatal, although she was alive at a late hour this afternoon. She was between 75 and 80 years of age.

Personal.

Mr. Joseph Frank, general manager of the Zo Zo Company, gave us the pleasure of a visit this morning, and we found him a very clever and agreeable gentleman.
We regret to learn that Mr. Charles E. Willson, manager of the Opera House, is quite sick with fevers.
Mr. J. H. Mehrckens, formerly of this city, but residing in Kinston, Le noir county, arrived here on last night's train.
The front gate kiss have given place to the seaside osculation, it makes a very pretty trimming for small talk.

Prosperous.

The Independent Order of Rachebites in this city is in a flourishing condition there being nearly 100 members in the two Tents. The attendance is good and a deep seated and earnest interest in the cause of sobriety is manifested among them. The life insurance feature which has recently been started in the order is growing in popularity and is being made productive of beneficial results.

Lookout for Fires.

The advent of cold weather every Fall is, for some reason, attended by an increase of fires. Housekeepers, janitors and others should now see that all heating apparatus is in good order, so that when the fires have to be lighted they may not endanger property. It is a mistake to suppose that the house fires which were so common when the fires were put out in May are equally so after having weathered the Summer. The dampness to which they are exposed in Summer has done its oxidizing work upon them, though they have not been heated artificially. An indispensable condition of safety against Autumn fires caused by the proverbial "defective flue," especially in cheaply built houses, is to overhaul the heating apparatus as carefully as possible at the beginning of every Fall.

Beware of Parties.

that hold out tempting baits. Honest goods and low prices are the only inducements necessary. If more is required the patron must pay for the extras pro rata, as hundreds of our patrons have, and who can truly testify that such are facts. We have saved our customers many dollars when they have taken the time and trouble to compare our goods and prices with scheming competitors. This is the only true and reliable test. We will cheerfully send goods to your residence, letting you be the judge. We have a standing offer to donate $100 to any charitable institution in this city, if $100 worth of goods selected from our large stock, viz: clothing for men, boys and children, gents' furnishing goods, and hats and caps, are not found to be 15 per cent. less than the identical goods, of as good value, can be had elsewhere; in many cases we would be safe in saying 25 per cent.
It is very gratifying to us to know that our trade has increased, which goes to show that notwithstanding the different schemes and new competition we have to contend with the masses will not be gulled, preferring rather to trade where goods can be had for the least money, and whoever offers other inducements with their goods, you will find that the purchaser is taxed either directly or indirectly to support these schemes. SHREVE, the Old Reliable Clothier, 114 Market st., sign of the Golden Arm.
