The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

No less than 18,001 young women are at college in this country.

The pressure of travel on the elevated railroads in New York has become so great that longer trains are to be un-

The three daughters of Mr. Banker Drexel of Philadelphia, are set down at $6,000,000 each.

"Uncertainty, wonder, and the exercise of skill" are said by Sir James Paget to be the essential elements of healthy recreation.

The quinine manufacturers in New York and Philadelphia have organized to effect the restoration of the protective duty on that article.

Spanish politics and manners are so much in the ascendant in Paris that even the waiters at cafes are learning to speak Spanish; and so with dress.

Minnesota taxes dogs at their appraised value, and the 60,000 in the State foot up $197,000. The lowest
cents.

Of the 137 ports of entry and delivery in this country 25 do not return into the treasury $1 of revenue, and at 35 of them the receipts do not equal the expenses.

Many of the pupils in the public schools of New York and Philadelphia are suffering from ophthalmia, and steps are being taken to prevent the complaint from becoming epidemic.

The sparrow has not only lost caste abroad, but he is losing it at home.
The country papers of England are filled with a discussion by farmers as to the best methods for his extermination.

A church in Orlando, Fla., having shown signs of falling on a recent Sunday, the congregation fled in a body, and a local paper, in speaking of the incident, remarks that it occurred just as the collection was about to be taken up.

Nothing appears so to stir the fire of Stalwart Republicans this year as the perambulating prohibitioner St. John.
He sours the sweetest of them where-ever he goes; and yet those who know him best say he is a very proper sort of man.

Two hundred public houses in London were watched between the hours of 9 and 12, on a recent Saturday night, for the purpose of seeing how many persons entered them. The count showed that they were visited by 86, 000 persons—men, women and children—during the three hours.

At a recent sale in London of an ornithological collection the high price of 31 guineas was paid for a single specimen of a duck, but it was the little buff head, or butter ball, familiar to American sportsmen, which had wandered as far as the Norfolk Broads.
This bird is rarely seen in Europe.

Consumption as a cause of death is steadily decreasing in Massachusetts.
Dr. Abbott, of the State Health Board, says that the death rate from that disease was 35 in every 10,000 in the decade from 1857 to 1867, and 31 in 10,000 for the ten years ending 1883, while it is not expected to be over 29 for 10,000 in 1884.

Doctors say that mothers who take pride in the weight of their newly-born children should weigh them as soon as possible after birth. Children lose weight during the first three days of life, and the loss sometimes amounts to twelve ounces or more. It takes them nearly a week to regain the weight they had at the time of birth.

La Nacion, a Buenos Ayres paper, contained an announcement, signed by eight physicians, that connection by telephone will be made on application by any person requiring medical attendance at night. The fee for a visit after 11 p. m. would seem somewhat large in our latitude—$30—but is not thought to be exorbitant there.

Senator Walker, of Nevada, was attacked by a band of coyotes near Wamsley Gulch recently, and was obliged to take to a tree to save his life.
He had a rifle with him, and killed a number of the animals, which were quickly devoured by their comrades.
He remained in the tree all night, closely watched by the coyotes, but was

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1885. NO 240

The news from Ohio is not very pleasant. The State has gone Republican on the gubernatorial ticket and it is more than probable that the Legislature is also Republican, thus ensuring John Sherman's return to the Senate.

In the Philadelphia Medical and Surgical Journal, a sensible doctor suggests that night carriage lamps, instead of being put at the sides of vehicles, where they can serve only to illuminate the horses' tails and cast black shadows in the roadway, be made to project from the horse's collar or the ends of the shafts, where they would be of real service.

Many of the pretty anemones—the wind bower, the meadow anemone, the passe-fleur and the wood anemone—were long since swept into the pharmacopoeia under the name of pulsatilla.
Now the sea anemone (Medusa aurita) is found by some spectacular scientist to possess what he calls "medical properties," and its beautiful head is to be ground into a specific for the gout.

Our staunch Democratic friend, Mr.
J. L. Bradham, of Duplin county, was in the city to-day and favored us with a visit.

Dr. steamship Grand Holm, Wasson, cleared to-day for Liverpool with 3,855 bales cotton, valued at $170,320, shipped by Messrs Williams & Morchison.

There have been heavy rains in the Upper Cape Fear section and the prospects now are that there will be plenty of water in the river for the remainder of the season.

Remember that there will be no cutting of the performance at the Opera House to-night, as the company will not leave until to-morrow morning, when a special train has been engaged to take them to Charleston.

There was quite a heavy shower at about 10 o'clock last night, and considerable rainfall. There were frequent peals of thunder and vivid flashes of lightning for awhile, but they were at some distance from the city.

When ladies find the color of their dresses injured by watering-place lemonade they usually try to restore it with harshness. If, after making this application, they will rub a little chloroform over the spot, they will generally obtain a much more satisfactory result.

Personal.

Miss A. L. Rountree, of Atlanta, Ga., representing the Sunny South, was in the city to-day.

Mr. R. E. Little, of Wadesboro, is in the city to-day.

Col. John D. Shaw, of Rockingham, Richmond county, was in the city today.

Pharmacy.
A called meeting of the State Board of Pharmacy will be held in the city of Goldsboro on Tuesday, November 3, 1885, for the purpose of examining applicants for license to practice pharmacy. Any further information may be had of the secretary of the board, Wm.
Simpson, Raleigh, N. C.

For the Sound.
Quite a party of gentlemen, among whom were Lieut. Gov. Stedman, Hon. R. T. Bennett, Representative to Congress from this District, Col. John D. Shaw, of Rockingham, Mr. R. E.
Little, of Wadesboro, besides several prominent citizens of this city, went to the Sound this afternoon.

Look at Your Tickets.
In the monthly drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery Co., at New Orleans yesterday, the following tickets drew the three principal prizes:

Ticket No. 1,529 drew the capital prize of $75,000; No. 184 drew the second prize of $25,000, and No. 45,818 drew the third prize of $10,000.

Sale of Real Estate.
The Lord property, on the South side of Market street, between Second and Third, was sold to-day by Messrs.
Croly & Morris, under instructions from Dr. A. J. DeRosset, commissioner, for partition. It was sold in three parcels, two on Market street and one on the alley to the North. Col. Roger Moore was the purchaser of all, the sales aggregating $2,140.

Fine Poultry.
Mr. W. C. VonGluh received to-day from Philadelphia a coop of poultry which are exceedingly fine and of a rare breed. They are known as the white crowned black Polish and consist of a cock and two hens. They are jet black, of about medium size, and the tops of their heads are crowned with a magnificent tuft of pure white feathers which fall in graceful curves over the eyes.

in the city, call at the Wilmington Shirt Factory; only 75c. J. ELSBACH, Prop.,

The Magic Queen.
There was a large attendance at the Opera House last night to witness the second performance of So So, the Magic Queen, and it is entirely safe to say that there was not one in the audience who was not highly delighted at the entertainment. We but voice public sentiment when we say that it was one of the most beautiful exhibitions of the scenic painter's skill, combined with a group of bewitching loveliness and good acting, ever seen in this city. The acting was but a repetition, of course, of the previous night, and was excellent throughout, but the scenery seemed to develop beauties which we failed to discover on the first presentation of the play. It was beautiful beyond description. Each act opened upon a new scene, more beautiful and enchanting, if possible, than its predecessor.
The second act opened in the "Bower of Roses," which carried one, as if by the subtle power of the "Magic Queen," into the realms of "Fairy Land." But the great, crowning effect was produced in the grand transformation scene with which the performance concluded. This was a fitting finale to an entertainment so gorgeously presented. It was a work of marvelous beauty and was a triumph of the artist's skill. Of the acting we must say that Mr. George H. Adams, the comedian, was inimitable, and his drolleries were irresistibly ludicrous. He is a host in himself. The song by Miss Toma Haaton was very finely rendered; the dancing by Miss Leo Coles and Miss Bindley was exquisite, the former being the best we have seen in many years. The performance by Miss Bindley on the musical glasses was an interesting feature in the entertainment and showed a wonderful proficiency which could only have been acquired by much patient toil. Miss Jennie Barrett as Rose; Miss Myrtle Chase, as May Blossom, and Miss Louise Saunders, as Lilac, were especially good.
The parts of the gentlemen were well taken and well sustained. The engagement of the company will close here with to-night's performance when there will undoubtedly be a crowd house. It is a performance that must be seen to be understood and appreciated.
The matinee to-day was well attended and all were pleased.

The most economical coal scuttles known are the galvanized iron ones.

A Solemn Fact.
A gentleman from Philadelphia who was at the Fourth Street Market last Friday could scarcely believe that such fine beef as was displayed there by Jgo. F. Garrell & Son retailed at 10 cents per pound. He declared that he had often paid 30 cents in Philadelphia for just such beef. It is a fact. Garrell & Son lead not only Wilmington but the world, in fine beef.

The Next.
On Friday and Saturday night the emotional drama of the Banker's Daughter will be presented at the Opera House, with a matinee on Saturday afternoon, by a strong company. It is an excellent play and was presented here last year by the same company that are playing it this season. It is a good company. In speaking of the play, the Norfolk Virginian says:

A large house greeted the appearance of Crossen's Banker's Daughter Company at the Academy of Music last evening, although the play has been presented here by some very strong companies. It loses nothing in its strength, as presented by the company last night. Each and every character was most admirably taken and the company is evenly balanced. Mr.
Crossen, as G. Washington Phipps, an American tourist, and Mr. G. J. James, the retired millionaire, furnished their full share of amusement, while Miss Ida Lewis made an excellent Lillian.

Beware of Parties that hold out tempting baits. Honest goods and low prices are the only inducements necessary. If more is required the patron must pay for the extras pro rata, as hundreds of our patrons have, and who can truly testify that such are facts. We have saved our customers many dollars when they have taken the time and trouble to compare our goods and prices with scheming competitors. This is the only true and reliable test. We will cheerfully send goods to your residence, letting you be the judge. We have a standing offer to donate $100 to any charitable institution in this city, if $100 worth of goods selected from our large stock, viz: clothing for men, boys and children, gent's furnishing goods, and hats and caps, are not found to be 15 per cent. less than the identical goods, of as good value, can be had elsewhere; in many cases we would be safe in saying 25 per cent.

It is very gratifying to us to know that our trade has increased, which goes to show that notwithstanding the different schemes and new competition we have to contend with the masses we are not being gulled, preferring rather to trade where goods can be had for the least money, and whoever offers other inducements with their goods, you will find that the purchaser is taxed either directly or indirectly to support these schemes. SHREVE, the Old Reliable Clothing, 114 Market st., sign of the Golden Arm.
