THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. FRIDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1885. NO. 242

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Ex-Representative Hawley is rapidly recovering his reason in the Binghamton Asylum.

Madame de Mores, now so much talked of out West, has an income of $90,000 a year.

Frank James, the ex-bandit, is now employed as a salesman in a grocery store in Nevada, Mo.

The present freshman class of Harvard numbers 268. That of Yale is rather below the average.

Gen. Hancock will preside at the meeting of the Loyal Legion that assembles in Philadelphia on the 21st inst.

Some one has overhauled last year's novels and found that of the heroines 372 were blondes and only 100 brunettes.

Judge George Barrett: It is a crime to support a dishonest man of one's own party in preference to an honest man of the opposition.

Whoever meets the Earl of Chester in Austria now should know that his lordship is really the Prince of Wales. He is travelling incog.

The Savannah News suggests that one way to stop the smallpox in Canada would be to put vaccine virus in bird shot and open fire on the mob.

Lord Wolseley is to-day as unpopular a public man as there is in England. His passing over the services of the marines in his despatches is especially noted with indignation.

Posters have been appearing lately in some of the Pacific coast towns where difficulties with the Chinese exist, warning firemen not to respond to alarms of fire from the Chinese quarters.

Philadelphia Press: Jay Gould took a drink of whiskey twenty five years ago, and has never touched the stuff since. When Mr. Gould dies he will have for his monument a water spout worked in brass.

The Petersburg Index-Appeal feels authorized to remark that the South is in the saddle and the rebels are on top. Secretary Lamar has declared his determination to appoint none, but union soldiers as pension agents.

Ladies' bustles are used so extensively as a means of smuggling that the Bernese customs officers have published a notice declaring that "These appendages must henceforth be searched, though with the necessary politeness."

New York Times: There is practically no opposition in the Democratic party to the re-election of Mr. Carlisle as Speaker of the House of Representatives. The reputation he had already made when chosen to that position has been strengthened by his course while occupying it.

The committee appointed to arrange for the proposed river and harbor convention at Savannah have gone actively to work, and it is believed that the convention will be held and that it will present the claims of the South Atlantic cities to Congress in such a manner as to command more favorable consideration than they have received in the past.

Gath: Hostilities between the chief railroads led them to invade each other's domains. Finally the despairing cry of the stockholders on every side has compelled a truce, and the moment the basis of an understanding was established the bears in the New York stock market began to drop off like caterpillars from a reinvigorated tree.

A town meeting at Derby, Conn., decided that the town should relinquish all claim to a bequest of $5,000, devised by a deceased Justice of the Peace, on condition that the town should not touch any of the money until it amounted to $5,000,000. It was calculated that the bequest would not become operative for 200 years. The heirs at law now get the money.

The Czar of Russia has bestowed upon Alvan Clark of Cambridge, Mass., the golden honorary medal of the empire "in acknowledgment of the excellent performances of the great object glass" made by Mr. Clark for the chief telescope in the Pulkowa observatory. This medal is given very rarely, and only for extraordinary merits. Only one other has been granted by the present Emperor.

The latest from Ohio is that Foraker is undoubtedly returned and that there is some slight doubt as to the Legislature on joint ballot. This means that the doubt will be settled soon and in favor of the Republicans.

Archbishop Gibbons' sermon over the remains of Cardinal McCloskey was undoubtedly a grand effort, if one may judge by the synopsis which was sent out by telegraph. The New York papers arriving here to night will probably contain it in full.

Miss Annie Longfellow, youngest daughter of the late poet, was married on Wednesday afternoon to Mr. James Gilbert Thorpe, recently of Eau Claire, Wis. The ceremony took place at the Longfellow mansion on Brattle street, Old Cambridge, and was performed by the Rev. Samuel Longfellow, uncle of the bride, assisted by the Rev. E. H. Hall, of the First Parish church. The wedding was private.

They are registering pretty heavily in New York and it looks as though a big vote will be polled next month. Here are the figures for New York city:

The number of voters registered in this city yesterday was 66,298, making the total for the first two days 112,475. In 1881 on the second day the figures reached 49,206, and the total for the first two days was 84,876. In 1882, second day, 57,911; two days, 113,255. In 1883, second day, 41,684; two days, 85,632. In 1884, second day, 77,643; two days, 152,417.

There are two more days of registration this year, Oct. 23 and 24, Thursday and Friday of next week.

The explosion at Flood Rock has been pronounced a complete success. The Sun says:

Flood Rock continues to sink. The daily rate is variable, but the sinking aggregates in many places four or five feet. The Government diver, Mr. W. L. Quinn, was under water several hours yesterday, and examined three sides of the reef. On the north and south sides the rock is so shattered that it can be dredged with comparative ease. On the east and west sides the fragments are larger, and some surface blasting will have to be done. The whole reef, so far as it has been examined, is full of fissures, which follow the trend of the rock's grain. The north side of the nigger heads will probably be examined to-day, and as soon as possible dredging will begin. This work will doubtless be done by contract.

There was no City Court this morning.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,225 bales.

Swed. brig Mary, Olson, sailed from Hamburg, Oct. 11th, for this port.

The guard house is now empty of prisoners, and City Court officials have but little to do.

We have a large lot of glass for hot-houses which we are offering low. JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

When you think that you need a new hat, you will be reminded that the "Melville" is the best, and it is sold by DYER.

For the best unlaundried white shirt in the city, call at the Wilmington Shirt Factory; only 75c. J. ELSEBACH, Prop., No. 27 Market st.

Schr. Norambega, Smith, cleared to-day for St. Pierre, Mart., with 284,965 feet lumber, valued at $4,724.80, shipped by Messrs. E. Kidder & Son.

Steamboatmen report about four and a half feet of water on the shoals in the Cape Fear. The recent rains caused a rise of about six feet, but the water has fallen off a foot and a half since.

The colored man who was picked up sick in the street on Wednesday night and taken to the guard house, was conveyed to the city hospital yesterday afternoon. There is hardly a possibility of his recovery.

Attention Guards. It has been suggested that the Cantwell Light Guards should be persuaded to give another exhibition drill and festival for the benefit of the Ladies Benevolent Society of this city. It is truly a worthy object and the young ladies composing the "Guard" reflected so much credit upon themselves at their recent exhibition and made such an attractive, accomplished and meritorious display, that there is not a doubt of their drawing a full house should they consent to give another entertainment, similar in character.

Capt. Pennington, of the steamship Gulf Stream, says that, although he has seen heavier gales in his long experience at sea, he never saw a more fearful sea than that of last Monday while he was hoisted off Cape Hatteras.

In consequence of the continual falling of the plastering in the County Commissioner's room it has been decided to have it all removed and replaced by a ceiling and workmen are now engaged in making the change.

The Wadesboro Times enters this week upon the sixth year of its existence. It is a good paper, widely circulated, and the gallant Democrats of the Pee Dee section should take great pride in its prosperity. It has done much for the party in the past and will do more in the future.

Schr. Albert H. Waite, Macumber, hence, arrived at New York Oct. 14th. She reports that on the 12th inst., when 25 miles S. E. of Barnegat, took a heavy gale from E. N. E. in which she was obliged to throw overboard about 15,000 feet of her deck load of lumber, and the captain had his hand badly jammed and one finger broken; also split sails.

Indications. For the South Atlantic States, fair weather, light, variable winds, generally from West to South, stationary temperature on the coast and slightly warmer in the interior.

Opera House. The Banker's Daughter, which will be presented at the Opera House to-night, has been performed here on a previous occasion, and is a society drama of sterling merit. It was played at Goldsboro last night and the company did not arrive here until this afternoon. Nearly all of the actors and actresses who appeared when it was here before have been re-engaged and will appear to-night. The company is an exceptionally strong one, and are deserving of a liberal patronage, and we hope that a crowded house may greet them to-night. They will play again to-morrow night with a matinee to-morrow afternoon. Tickets now on sale at Heinsberger's.

Good Work. The Spanish schooner Natividad, which has been undergoing repairs at the yard of Mr. W. S. Ellis, in the Southern section of the city, was successfully launched last Tuesday afternoon. As Mr. Ellis has no regular marine railway with steam appliances for hauling heavy vessels from the water, this portion of the work was performed by the power of bone and muscle, and was accomplished after much hard labor. The carpenter work was under the supervision of Capt. R. H. Beery, the well-known ship builder. The undertaking was formidable, but in Mr. Ellis' dictionary "obstacles are things to be overcome," and the work was successfully completed and to the entire satisfaction of Mr. A. E. Doebble, the agent of the vessel here, and reflects much credit upon all concerned.

Carolina Central Extension. We glean the following relative to the work of the Carolina Central R. R. from this week's issue of the Shelby Aurora:

The Carolina Central has the same force as last week, about 175 at work in Shelby, also a train to assist in excavating and carrying off the dirt. They promise to push on rapidly to Piney Ridge, beyond Mooresboro and there await developments. This protects their territory and will increase their traffic, as their terminus is only ten miles distant from Rutherfordton. It will aid in the development of Cleveland county, but will prove detrimental to our cotton, guano and local trade of Shelby, unless Shelby has more and better railway facilities.

Some think the Carolina Central still intends to go from Shelby to Morganton and the western extension is only a branch or feeder; others think this western advance means on to Cranberry via Marion or Bridgewater. We do not yet know the routes, but must wait.

There is no doubt about the Carolina Central going to Piney Ridge, as Mr. Wright, of the firm of Starr, Wright & Co., large contractor in was in Shelby last week and secured on Friday a twelve mile contraction the direction of Piney Ridge. Four bids were put in for the work and his was the lowest and accepted. Mr. Wright telegraphed for his mules and carts &c., at Birmingham, Ala., and expects to go to work soon.

The election in Burke in December, Rutherford and McDowell's future action, the plans of the Georgia Central in reference to a Northern outlet, and the cost of the different routes will have to determine the line by which they will go to Cranberry. Railroads are reticent about their plans and frequently do what they say they will not do.

JACOB'S Hdw. Depot is the place to buy a stove, if you want to save money.

Vocal Music. We call attention to the advertisement of a vocal class to be found in another column. It is intended to make the course progressive and thorough and no pains will be spared on the part of the instructor to make the advance of the pupils permanent, and to give them every possible means of learning to read music by note and at sight. The class will commence just as soon as a sufficient number of pupils has been obtained.

Mikado. The above named comic opera will be performed at the Opera House for the first time in this city, next Monday night, by the Bijou Opera Troupe. This company has won a host of friends in its Southern tour, and has fully maintained the excellent reputation which it established last year. Mikado is a Japanese plot, and is written and set to music by Messrs. Gilbert and Sullivan, whose comic operas have won for them a world-wide reputation.

Personal. Mr. H. S. Alderman, of Point Caswell, was in the city to-day.

Mr. J. W. Taylor, who has been in New York and Baltimore during the past week, returned to the city last night.

Mrs. E. S. Warrock, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Burnsville, N. C., arrived in the city last night on a visit to relatives and friends.

Mr. S. H. Robbins, a prominent official of the Pennsylvania Railroad and wife, arrived in the city last night and registered at the Purcell House.

The appointment of Mr. E. G. Parmelee as Inspector at this port, vice Mr. J. C. Lumsden, deceased, has been confirmed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

In the absence of Mayor Hall, who has gone to New York and will visit Gloucester, Mass., before his return, Alderman Samuel Bear will do the honors as acting Mayor.

Mrs. E. A. Lumsden left the city last night for the North for the purpose of purchasing her winter stock of millinery. The ladies will hear from her through the REVIEW on her return.

Beware of Parties that hold out tempting baits. Honest goods and low prices are the only inducements necessary. If more is required the patron must pay for the extras pro rata, as hundreds of our patrons have, and who can truly testify that such are facts. We have saved our customers many dollars when they have taken the time and trouble to compare our goods and prices with scheming competitors. This is the only true and reliable test. We will cheerfully send goods to your residence, letting you be the judge. We have a standing offer to donate $100 to any charitable institution in this city, if $100 worth of goods selected from our large stock, viz: clothing for men, boys and children, gents' furnishing goods, and hats and caps, are not found to be 15 per cent. less than the identical goods, of as good value, can be had elsewhere; in many cases we would be safe in saying 25 per cent.

It is very gratifying to us to know that our trade has increased, which goes to show that notwithstanding the different schemes and new competition we have to contend with the masses will not be gulled, preferring rather to trade where goods can be had for the least money, and whoever offers other inducements with their goods, you will find that the purchaser is taxed either directly or indirectly to support these schemes.
