The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 1,939 bales.

JACOB'S Hdw. Depot is the place to buy a stove, if you want to save money.

Ger. barque Richard, Paske, from Stettin for this port, sailed from Swinemunde Oct. 12th.

It has been uncomfortably warm during the forenoon, the thermometer indicating full Summer heat.

See notice of the annual rental of pews in St. James' Church, which will take place on Wednesday next.

The most economical coal scuttles known are the galvanized iron ones. They never rust. You will find them at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot.

The regular meeting of the Literary Club connected with the Wilmington Light Infantry will be held at their Armory to-morrow night.

There were large congregations at the various churches in the city yesterday, with the exception of the First Presbyterian, where no services were held.

When you think that you need a new hat, you will be reminded that the "Melville" is the best, and it is sold by DYER.

Ger. barque Clara, Neijahr, cleared for Antwerp on Saturday last, with 2,040 casks spirits turpentine, (incorrectly reported as rosia) valued at $34,000, shipped by Messrs. Chess Carley Co.

The regular monthly parade and inspection of the Wilmington Light Infantry will be held next Thursday night. Any one wishing to become a member of the Company can make out an application and have it acted upon that night.

Capt. B. L. Perry, proprietor of the Purcell House, has recently been engaged in making some marked improvements there. Carpenters and painters have both been busy there for weeks past. Among other things a handsome lunch room has been laid off and the reading room has been renovated and improved.

Indications.

For the South Atlantic States, fair weather, followed by local showers, winds shifting to Southeast and becoming variable with nearly stationary temperature.

Knights of Honor.

Carolina Lodge No. 434. Regular meeting this evening at 8 o'clock. Full attendance is desired as business of importance will be transacted.

To Mark the Spot.

On Saturday last a handsome monument, which will mark the spot at Oakdale where rest the remains of the late Charles B. Fennell, was taken out to the Cemetery and erected there under the care and supervision of Mr. John Maunder. It is about ten feet high, made of Bedford marble, and in design represents the broken trunk of a tree, surmounted by cross and dove. It bears the inscription—"Charles B. Fennell. Born Dec. 4, 1856. Died May 1, 1885."

"Mikado."

The Bijou Opera Troupe, under the management of Mr. C. T. Atwood, arrived in the city last night and registered at the Orton. They will appear at the Opera House to night in the Japanese Opera of "The Mikado," one of Messrs. Gilbert & Sullivan's latest and most popular productions. The company were here last season and won high praise for the excellence of their performances, and the press of the cities in which they have appeared during their present tour bear abundant testimony that the record which they made last year has been maintained intact. It is a fine troupe, under excellent management, and there is every indication that they will be greeted by a crowded house to-night.

The best ready mixed paint can be had at JACOB'S Hdw. Depot. He has it in all size cans, from half pints up.

Declined.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard, who was recently elected President of the "Gun and Kennel Club" of this city, while in full sympathy with the objects of the Club, and especially wherein it relates to the preservation of game, has declined the position.

City Court.

There were several trival cases for Mayor Bear's consideration this morning, which were speedily disposed of: Jane Hines, colored, disorderly conduct, was permitted to pay a fine of $2.50 or go below for three days.

One case of disorderly conduct was fined $ We suppress the name by request.

One case of drunk and down was discharged and one case of disorderly conduct was continued.

Religious Meetings.

A series of religious meetings were begun at Brooklyn Hall last night which will be continued through the week. The sermon was preached by Rev. D. W. Herring, who will soon leave the country for missionary work in China, and he will conduct the services during the week. There was a large congregation and much interest in spiritual matters was developed. Meetings will be held every night, services to commence at half past 7 o'clock.

Religious Items.

Rev. Chas J. Soon, a native Chinese preacher, who lately graduated at Vanderbilt University, is now on a visit to the city, the guest of Rev. D. H. Tuttle, a fellow student at the University. He preached an interesting sermon at Fifth Street M. E. Church last night to an immense congregation. It will be remembered that Mr. Soon was converted at this Church during the pastorate of Rev. T. Page Ricard. He will deliver a lecture at the same church next Wednesday night, having for his subject, "China; its people, customs, manners and the missionary work."

A Credit to any City.

In all successful and prosperous cities there is a leading house in every branch of trade to which the citizens point with pride and pleasure. Mr. S. H. FISHLATE, regardless of expense and labor, has endeavored to win that position in the city of Wilmington, and has achieved that distinction. It is conceded by all that in the variety, excellence and cheapness of clothing his emporium has no equal in the State. If there is any one left who doubts this, let him call at his commodious stores and he will be thoroughly satisfied. He has also added a merchant tailoring department to his business and his styles and fits surpass anything ever turned out in Wilmington.

The Point Caswell Mail.

We have at hand some further information relative to the daily mail route between Rocky Point and Point Caswell, via mule express, which delivers a letter at a point distant only about 20 miles from this city in forty-eight hours after it is written. Mr. Gurganias has published his side of the story, and now we will publish that of the people. In the first place, Mr. Gurganias is not the contractor with the government, as might be inferred from reading his communication. The real contractor resides in Washington and he may or may not have taken the contract for less than it is worth; that is his own lookout. Mr. Gurganias is the sub-contractor.

Another thing: Mr. Gurganias says that it is 81 miles, over a rough road, between Rocky Point and Point Caswell. This is a strange statement on the part of one who has ridden it as often as he has done. Any one who has ever ridden that road knows that it is one of the very best roads in the State and that the distance is but 16 miles, according to the mile posts, instead of 21, according to Mr. Gurganias, or 19, as called for in the mail contract. It is true that Mr. G. has to go into Cedar Dale twice a week, which is only 1 1/2 miles distant from the main route, and he only stops there in returning, which makes but three miles additional, and only twice a week. A good horse instead of a slow mule, could easily make the distance in nine or ten hours, instead of twelve, as is allowed by the Government, and then not do a particularly hard day's work—not as hard, at all events, as it would be if kept plowing in the field all day.

For the best unlaundried white shirt in the city, call at the Wilmington Shirt Factory; only 75c. J. ELSBACH, Prop., No. 27 Market st.

The Banker's Daughter.

The audience at the Opera House on Saturday night was very small. The play, however, which is one of the best, was presented in excellent style and with a conscious regard for detail and effect which could not have been improved upon had the company been greeted with an overflowing house. It was an excellent performance and deserving of a crowded house.

Personal.

Mr. E. R. Fishblate, of Greensboro, is in the city on a short visit to his brother, ex-Mayor Fishblate.

Rev. Peyton H. Hoge, of Richmond, Va., has accepted the call to become pastor of the First Presbyterian church in this city.

Mr. S. Behrends, of the furniture house of Behrends & Munroe, has returned to the city from a two weeks' visit to the Northern markets.

We were glad to see that Mr. Charles D. Willson, who has been sick for the past week, has so far recovered as to be able to be on the street this morning.

Hon. R. R. Bridgers has returned to the city from Saratoga Springs, where he has been, with his family, for some time past. His health had become seriously impaired during the Summer, but we are glad to note that it has decidedly improved.

We were pleased to receive a call on Saturday afternoon from a "friend of other days" Mr. Samuel S. Peterson, who is here on a visit to relatives and friends, and as the guest of his uncle, Mr. B. F. Mitchell. Mr. Peterson left North Carolina 27 years ago and is now located on Prince Edward Island, Dominion of Canada, where he holds a position under the government.

Lippincott's Magazine.

Among the articles in Lippincott's for November, the one which is likely to receive most attention has for its subject "Queen Anne, or Free Classic Architecture." As this is the fashionable style of the day, especially for suburban residences, some knowledge of its distinctive features and relative position is a general requisite, while, owing to the laxity with which the name is used, and the apparent lack of well-defined principles which it covers and even implies, clear information and ideas in regard to it are not easily obtained. In this paper the subject is treated with fulness under its threefold aspect: historical, instructive and aesthetic, many specimens, old and new, being cited and described by way of illustration, the whole with special reference to American usages and needs, the lines on which further development should proceed, and the improvements to be aimed at. Another article full of solid and interesting information is on "The Peabody Museum of American Archaeology," "A North River Ferry," "Nos Pensions," and "The Art of Reading," are lighter but suggestive sketches; while "Van," an admirably painted study of animal life. The fiction includes the second and concluding part of "The Lady Lawyer's First Client," "A Random Shot," by C. W. Wilmerding, and "A Backwoods Romance," by S. H. Swett. There is unusual variety of poems, short papers and editorial matter.

Beware of Parties.

That hold out tempting baits. Honest goods and low prices are the only inducements necessary. If more is required the patron must pay for the extras pro rata, as hundreds of our patrons have, and who can truly testify that such are facts. We have saved our customers many dollars when they have taken the time and trouble to compare our goods and prices with scheming competitors. This is the only true and reliable test. We will cheerfully send goods to your residence, letting you be the judge. We have a standing offer to donate $100 to any charitable institution in this city, if $100 worth of goods selected from our large stock, viz: clothing for men, boys and children, gentlemen's furnishing goods, and hats and caps, are not found to be 15 per cent. less than the identical goods, of as good value, can be had elsewhere; in many cases we would be safe in saying 25 per cent.

It is very gratifying to us to know that our trade has increased, which goes to show that notwithstanding the different schemes and new competition we have to contend with the masses will not be gulled, preferring rather to trade where goods can be had for the least money, and whoever offers other inducements with their goods, you will find that the purchaser is taxed either directly or indirectly to support these schemes. SHRIER, the Old Reliable Clothier, 114 Market st., sign of the Golden Arm.
