The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Several of the young women of the Harvard Annex ride to their recitations on the bicycles.

There are now 1,200 cases on the docket of the United States Supreme Court, which the judges hope to clear by 1888.

Abany Times: Mr. Davenport is not so young a man as his pictures indicate. Indeed, he will not attain his majority this Fall.

Every manager who has run the new Grand Opera House at Paris has thereby incurred financial failure, despite the Government allowance.

M. Gounod has left Paris and secured himself in the country to finish a new oratorio. He is said to have become a religious enthusiast and to suffer from mental excitement.

Atlanta Constitution: "The bloody shirt," says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, "is a grand old garment." It is indeed. It keeps the South solid and the people contented. Snake it up.

A stimulant for hesitating Democrats: "Brooklyn ladies have registered and will try to vote at the approaching election. The experiment will be interesting, successful or unsuccessful."

After a speech of Fitzhugh Lee, of Virginia, 1,400 men went to the local skating rink and ate up 1,200 pounds of beef, twelve hams, four sheep, 700 loaves of bread and a wagon load of pies.

An old penknife of Gen. Grant's was sold in New York on Monday for $100. It was bought by Dr. C. B.
Webster, of Sheffield, England. The money was given to the Grant monument fund.

The wealthy men who oppose the running of a street car line on Fifth avenue, New York, have subscribed $300,000 to put a new line of stages on the avenue, with the hope that they can beat off the street car scheme.

The new marriage law in Pennsylvania imposes so many penalties upon the officiating clergyman who violates any regulation that a special handbook or guide has been issued, with which the wary minister goes around on all occasions.

Philadelphia Times: The cordial unanimity with which convicted thieves and tattooed politicians unite in demanding vindications is a touching tribute to the genius of our race. But why do they never unite in any indignant demand for justice?

Here is a rough tariff obtained from an employment agent of various grades of help in California: Cooks, $240 to $370; nurses, $180 to $360; housemaids, $180 to $300; coachmen, $360 to $720; butlers, $500 to $600; Chinese cooks and general servants, $240 to $480. Even a child of 14 cannot be hired as a nurse under $120 a year.

Patti has accepted an offer of £480 a night for a series of appearances in Paris. She has also signed a contract with Gye, securing her £450 a night for the next London season, for an extended engagement. Mr. Gye pleads the current depression in trade as a reason for lower receipts at the theatres, and says that his financial prospects, in view of the condition of business, involve a reduction of the price which he has heretofore paid Mme. Patti.

M. Bartholdi, the French sculptor, will come over to this country to superintend the delicate and important work of placing his statue of "Liberty Enlightening the World" upon its pedestal on Bedloe's Island. He will arrive in New York on November 7. He will show to the Congressional committee the plans he has drawn for the statue of Lafayette they have authorized him to make, which will be erected at a cost of $50,000 in Washington.

The Philadelphia Ledger says:
"When the Ohio Democratic bosses were engaged last year in defeating ex-Senator Pendleton, and in ignoring ex-Senator Thurman, they little dreamed that they were settling the election this year also against their own Governor; and also destroying the chances of their chief aspirant for Senator in John Sherman's place. The walls over last Wednesday's defeat are but the echoes of the hurrahs over the slaughter of Pendleton and Thurman."

wards, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 27 Market st., J. ELSBACH, Prop.

Mrs. E. A. Lumsden has returned from the North with an elegant line of millinery goods to which the attention of the ladies is invited in advertisement in this issue.

Two tramps applied for lodgings at the guard house last night. They were accommodated and discharged this morning with a warning to obtain work or leave town within 24 hours.

Attention is invited to the advertisement of Mrs. E. Warren & Son in this issue. It speaks for itself, as do their candies whenever you taste them. The display of fruits, candies &c., now at Exchange corner is indeed an attractive one.

The officers and visitors of the Ladies Benevolent Society are requested to meet, without fail, at Miss Hart's School Room on Wednesday next, the 28th inst, at 4 o'clock p. m. No meeting having been called for three months past a full attendance is especially desired.

Painters and those in need of white lead, colors, oil, etc., can get the best and save by buying at JACOB'S Hd. Depot.

The law requiring deeds to be registered by the first of January, 1886, does not mean that those heretofore registered shall be registered, but only those that have never been registered shall be registered by the time mentioned. Some people are laboring under the mistake that they are required to have their old deeds re-registered.

Personal.
Mr. S. A. Craig, who has been quite sick for some days past, is again at his post.

Mr. W. A. Whitehead has been quite sick for some weeks past but we were glad to see him on the streets again today.

Mr. J. C. White, Manager of the Telephone Exchange, arrived in the city last night from a visit to friends at Richmond, Va.

Capt. W. M. Parker and wife arrived home last Saturday night and we were glad to see him looking as hearty and well as ever this morning. Messrs. W.
B. Jordan, of the Raleigh News and Observer, and B. W. Cobb, of the Goldboro Messenger, arrived in the city last night en route for Bladen County, which convened at Elizabethtown this morning.

Musical.
Remember the piano recital which will be given by Prof. J. H. Denck at Miss Annie Hart's school room tonight. Prof. Denck is one of the few masters of the piano in the South and his programme for to-night will embrace selections of the very highest order. There will be nothing light or trivial about it, and those who attend may be sure of hearing the language of the composer ably and understanding-ly interpreted by the performer. The price of admission is placed at the small sum of 50 cents and we hope to see the house crowded to its utmost capacity to give Prof. Denck a cordial greeting.

The Othello is, without doubt, the best cook stove in this market. Call at Jacob's Hd. Depot, and see it before buying.

Fire at Smithville.

The "Walker house," at Smithville, occupied by the family of Mr. Cramer, pilot of the Revenue Cutter Colfax, caught fire on the roof yesterday, but the flames were extinguished before any very serious damage was done, further than the burning of rather an ugly hole in the top of the building.

The Laurinburg Affair.

We glean from the Charlotte Observer the following particulars in regard to the unfortunate shooting affair between two lads which occurred in Laurinburg on Friday last:

From passengers on the Carolina Central yesterday afternoon an Observer reporter learned the particulars of a tragic occurrence in the town of Laurinburg, and one which has greatly excited the people of that town. Daniel May, aged 13 years, son of Rev. D.
May, of the North Carolina Conference, was shot and perhaps fatally injured, by a companion named Herbert Clark, aged 11 years, son of Mr. Robert B.
Clark, of Laurinburg. The two boys had each secured a gun and had been out hunting, and it was on their return home and after entering the town that the shooting occurred. The two lads were immediately in front of the residence of Capt. D. K. F. Everitt, a conductor of the Carolina Central, when Capt. Everitt's wife, who was in her room, was startled by the report of a gun, and hurrying to the front door, she saw young May lying in the street, his head and face covered with blood, while young Clark, with hat in one hand and gun in the other, was speeding down the street towards his home. News of the affair spread rapidly, and very quickly a throng of excited people surrounded the wounded youth. He was picked up and carried into Capt. Everitt's house, where physicians were soon in attendance upon him.

A glance at young May's wound showed it to be of a very serious character. The lead of shot had struck him in the face, but fortunately for a sudden movement of the boy at the moment the gun fired, the wound was partially a glancing one. One of young May's eyes was shot out, his nose was perforated, and a portion of the cheek bone under the destroyed eye was torn away.
The shot wounds bled profusely and the doctors had great difficulty in extracting the leaden pellets, many of which had gone in too far to be reached. Several shot were extracted from the roof of the boy's mouth. After the wounds had been dressed young May regained consciousness and was borne to the home of his parents. He has since been in a semi-conscious condition and the doctors are unable to say how it will probably end, but they give the opinion that the condition of the boy is very serious. It is feared that some of the shot may have penetrated the brain.

There are conflicting reports as to the cause of the affair, but it is generally believed to have been purely accidental. The principal witness is a little girl who was in the street near the boys, and who says she heard Clark ask May: "Give me leave to shoot you," at the same time pointing his gun at May. May said, "No, I won't," but just then the gun fired. They appeared to be in play. Clark had evidently pointed the gun at his companion in fun, and the firing was an unfortunate accidental result. The affair created a great sensation in Laurinburg, and much sympathy is expressed for both the parties concerned, as well as for their families.

Wear and Tear.

Wear and tear is one thing to be considered when you buy clothes. Durability is what one should look to as well as style, shape and color. Perhaps you have learned by bitter experience that a suit, which seems all right at the store, in many cases proves anything but all right when you wear it a short time. Buttons drop off, seams give way, material wears out, and colors fade. Such things are common to the lot of man, for but few are expert enough to detect clever imitations of honest goods offered by unscrupulous dealers.

There is one certain way to avoid being deceived—and that is to deal with a house who base their reputation and success on keeping only honest, reliable goods; who aim to secure continuous patronage by supplying their customers with goods which shall invariably prove satisfactory. S. H. FISHLATE is determined that your purchases of him shall be just right every time. All his clothing is expressly manufactured for him, with an eye to durability and lasting qualities. He uses the best of materials, and insists that thorough work shall be put on every article even to the minutest detail. You will find FISHLATE's clothing all that could be desired, and equal to the best tailor made garment. He keeps no shoddy goods or claptrap bails. Try him and we guarantee that you will be perfectly satisfied.

The semi-annual meeting of the stockholders of Bellevue Cemetery Company will be held this evening in the office of Mr. John D. Bellamy, Jr., on Princess street.

City Court.

Acting Mayor Bear had a large docket this morning. Mary Williams, colored, disorderly conduct, was invited to make a deposit of $3 for the benefit of the City Treasury or go below for two days. She went below.

Grace Austin, colored, disorderly conduct, was required to pay a fine of $5.

Dolly Shepherd, colored, disorderly conduct, was discharged.

Orris Martin, colored, disorderly conduct, called and failed.

Aaron Lloyd, colored, assault with a deadly weapon, bound over to the next term of the Criminal Court in the sum of $200.

This finished the docket and court adjourned.

Beware Where You Trade.

The question that should interest you the most is where the best clothing for men, boys or children can be had for the least money, without any nonsense or humbugging. Just think for a moment, how could these scheming concerns exist if such was not the case; if their prices were not above SHIRER'S, who is satisfied with the smallest living profit? We sell as fine clothing as can be bought ready made of the large-est clothing houses in this country, but we also have low and medium qualities, for every one is not able to buy the finest. It is a well known fact that every garment in our house, whether the cheapest or the best, is strong, durable and well made. We will not sell poor, worthless goods at any price. Remember, also, you are not taxed for any snide 10 cent gifts. We are not tricky, (but we do guarantee to give you more and better value for your money than you get elsewhere. This is the secret that lies at the foundation of the success of SHIRER, the Old Reliable Clothier, 114 Market st., sign of the Golden Arm.

We ask those in need of a heating stove to examine our stock and hear our low prices, before purchasing JACOB'S Hd. Depot.
